

... have been concluded, and mining materials removed to Ennis are in several parts so be rendered impassable for

Sessions, an appeal from convictions, was tried before Assistant-Magistrate, and a full Bench of Magistrates with the Game Laws. It was versus Denis Crowley, a letter appeared in the Limerick after one conviction was quashed, and seum is offered for sale by a lately exceeded £3000 a year. Light, of Roscrea, formerly £5000 a year, was discharged on Saturday, in Dublin.

... was declared a lunatic on an inquisition held before the Court of Sessions.

... for sweeping the streets of Ennis, which has been in operation for the last year, and is doing away with the necessity of

... London and Dublin Bank has been in operation for the last year, and is doing away with the necessity of

... annual Christmas fete, given by the Committee, took place at Newtown, Tipperary, on a scale which has never been exhibited there. When all the children amounted to two hundred, a large number of the farmers of the neighbourhood. The

... out in a most tasteful manner. The decorations, with various devices, hung from the ceiling, were placed in three rows. The refreshments included

... &c. &c. with a plentiful supply of sea, which were done ample service, and were served by twelve of the ladies of the immediate neighbourhood.

... which continued with great vigour. Loud cheers were given, and the whole ended in a most happy manner. Substantial contributions were made to the poor on Christmas-day, and a quantity of flannel and blankets were distributed by the same kind and be-

... in part of our last impression: a gentleman suddenly summoned this day to Windsor Castle, and a

... ed on the Great Western, at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

... which hitherto have been at the Council of the Cabinet Ministers to the Admiralty and other Courts, which hitherto have been at

At St. George's, Hanover-square, Griffith Jenkins, Esq. Lieutenant India Navy, to Jane, daughter of John Jones, Esq. of Crosswood, Montgomeryshire.

Robert Henderson, Esq. Surveyor, Strabane, to Maria, daughter of William Fenton, Esq.

At St. Mary's, Cheltenham, Henry Bulkeley, Esq. Standlow, Staffordshire, to Elizabeth Edith, daughter of the late Peter Wettenhall, Esq. of Winnington Lodge, Cheshire.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, on Friday last, at Cheltenham, Mathew O'Brien, Esq. late of Newcastle, near this city—a gentleman greatly esteemed by a large circle of friends, to whom his courteous manners and truly excellent disposition had much endeared him. He was a most affectionate parent, an excellent landlord, and a most agreeable companion.

On Saturday night, in Henry-street, Mr. William Batchelor, miller to John Norris Russell, Esq. He was a native of Durham, and a man much esteemed by his employer.

At his residence, Ballybrack, John Heard, Esq. Registrar of the Dioceses of Cork and Ross.

At Caher House, in the 80th year of her age, Elizabeth Maria, relict of Luke Dillon, Esq.

At the Rectory House, Kilcolgan, the Rev. John Burke, son of Michael Burke, late of Ballydugan, county Galway, 20 years Incumbent of that parish.

In Dublin, Richard, son of R. C. Cuming, Esq. Assistant-Surveyor, Ordnance Department.

In Waterford, Maria, wife of Lieut. Darby, Royal Navy, Commander of her Majesty's packet Advice.

At Ennis, yesterday, Mr. Joseph Barrett, builder.

Mr. Robert Willis, of Curragh, son of the late Edward Willis, Esq. of Rorkefield.

In Tuam, at an advanced age, Mrs. Hopkins.

Mrs. Bell, relict of the late John Bell, Esq. of Cargagh, near Downpatrick.

Mr. Robert Robinson, of Ballysudden, near Cookstown, in his 91st year. He was the last of the Loughry Old Volunteers.

Mr. Francis Smyth, of Eden-quay, shoemaker.

Of epilepsy, Charles Garde Durdin, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At New Orleans, William S. Dickson, son of the late William Dickson, Esq. Surgeon, Belfast, and brother of the Rev. J. Steele Dickson, Presbyterian Minister, Ballygawley.

Arthur, son of Samuel Warren, Mountpleasant-square.

At Sheerness, on Wednesday, the 4th inst. of a three-day brain fever, in the 38th year of her age, Julia, the beloved wife of Major Raines, of the 95th Regt. and only daughter of the late Charles Jardine, Esq. banker, Seven Oaks, Kent. She lived beloved, and died lamented, by a sorrowing circle of relatives and friends, as well as her bereaved husband and only son. Her remains were interred in the family vault at Seven Oaks.

Mary, wife of Charles Cochrane, Esq. of Devonshire-place.

At Berlin, Arthur, son of Charles Perkins, Esq. Southend, Lewisham, Kent.

At Glasgow, John Drummond, Esq. Surgeon.

At Clyde Villa, Glasgow, John, eldest son of A. Robertson, Esq.

Mr. A. Bowie, manager of the Kilmarnock and Troon Railway.

At Glasgow, Dr. Corkendale.

In Curzon-street, Mayfair, Robert Benjamin Walker, Esq. Surgeon to St. George's Hospital.

At Henrietta-street, Bath, Charles Fry, Esq. late of London.

At Norwich, Elizabeth Neale Frances, daughter of the late J. F. Priest, Esq.

At Greenock, Mr. Richard Adams, pilot.

At Leamington, Mr. T. C. Holland, the landscape painter.

At Hadley, Middlesex, Alexander Dury, Esq. Magistrate and Deputy-Lieutenant for Hertford and Middlesex.

At Clerk-hill, Lancaster, Jane, relict of Sir J. W. S. Gardiner.

At Putney, Sarah, eldest daughter of Professor Wallace.

At Yoxall Lodge, Mary, wife of the Rev. T. Gisborne, Prebendary of Durham, aged 82.

At Hampton Court Palace, Lieut.-Colonel Cotton, aged 75.

At Brighton, Jeremiah Simpson, Esq. of King's Bench-walk, Inner Temple, London.

At Hastings, Eliza, wife of Crowley Millington, Esq.

At Boston, Lincolnshire, Esther, wife of J. P. Holloway, Esq.

Mr. Joseph Burton, of her Majesty's Customs at Liverpool.

At Dent de Lion, Isle of Thanet, W. C. L. Keene, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and one of the Justices of the Peace for the Cinque Ports and county of Kent.

At Georgetown, Demerara, John Murray M'Gusty, Esq. son of the late Rev. Barry M'Gusty, Rector of Rathkenny, co. Meath.

At Pallaskerry, on Friday evening, after a lingering illness, which he bore with Christian patience, Mr. John Walsh, cloth-merchant, leaving a widow and large family to regret the loss of a good husband and fond parent. In all his transactions through life he was an honest man.

At the New Barracks, Color-Serjeant James Kerrigan, 26th Regiment.

At Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Amelia, daughter of F. Thorpe Porter, Esq.

Eliza Maria, eldest daughter of Samuel Scott, Esq. of Richmond-place, Dublin.

John William, son of Joseph Lyons, of Moyanna, Queen's County, Esq.

At Delyville, county Dublin, Sarah, daughter of the late Samuel Gordon, Esq.

Arabella, daughter of William Pasley, Esq. of Peter-street.

At his residence, Darkley House, Keady, Henry M'Kean, Esq.

At Oxford Terrace, Gloucester, Ann Keith, wife of Mr. James Alexander, of her Majesty's Customs at that port.

At Norwich, Mr. David Templeton, of the South Cheshire Bank, and late of the Paisley Bank, Glasgow.

At Greenock, Mr. Thomas Bunten, of the White Hart Inn.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, William Coleman, Esq. and Miss Jane Joyce—a lady well known for her extensive charities.

Gentlemen (who are not Masons) to pay Three Shillings and Sixpence each for their Tickets, and to appear in Fancy or Full Dress.

Masks, or persons appearing in objectionable Fancy Dress, not admissible.

Ladies to pay Six Shillings and Six Pence each, and they are requested to wear Fancy Dresses, and, as far as convenient, of Irish Manufacture.

Rooms to be open at Nine, and Dancing to commence at precisely at Ten o'Clock.

Tickets to be purchased only from the Committee, and no Ticket to issue later than within three days of the Ball; and if any question shall arise as to the issuing of Tickets, same to be decided by ballot.

The Name of the person obtaining each Ticket to be inserted therein, as also the name of the Member of the Committee recommending its issue, who will be held strictly responsible for the respectability and demeanour of the person to whom such ticket may issue.

Tickets are not to be transferrable, nor will they be received at the door with an erasure; nor will any person be admitted without delivering his Ticket. The Committee may issue New Tickets where a change of name becomes necessary.

Gentlemen to accompany the Ladies on their return to the Ball Room from Supper.

Thirty Stewards are pledged as Masons to maintain the strictest decorum, and study the pleasure and convenience of the assembly.

Carriages to set down, with the horses' heads towards Baker-place.

JAMES SPAIGHT,
Worshipful Master of Lodge 13,
George's-street, Limerick.

January 11.

APPEARED ON MONDAY, THE 9TH INSTANT,
PRICE FOUR SHILLINGS.

Key to Classics;

AND, as far as relation between Ancient and Modern Language, to ENGLISH and FRENCH
By MATHEW O'FLANAGAN,

(Son of the late Theophilus O'Flanagan, A. B. T. C. D.). Literary Professor, Limerick, Author of "Original Solutions," and of "Limericensis."

Published for the Author, by T. LE MESURIER, 8, Lower Abbey-street, Dublin; and to be had of all Booksellers, and of the Author. January 11.

AUCTION

Of Useful Household Furniture, Upright Piano Forte, Large Chimney Glass, Carpets, Curious Stuffed Birds and Animals, Rich Cut Glass, Morniny and Evening China, Double and Single Harness, Hunting Saddle, &c. &c.

James Marshall

WILL Sell by Auction on FRIDAY next, the 13th of JANUARY, at the LIMERICK COMMERCIAL MART, a choice collection of Handsome and Useful Furniture, comprising Round Table, Two Card Tables, Sofa ditto, Reclining Chair, Grecian Sofa and Two Loungers, in Drab Damask, Chairs, Library Book Case, Pedestal Sideboard, Bath Chair, Mahogany Dressing Tables and Basin Stands, Wardrobe, Chest Drawers, Bedsteads, Commodes, Biddets, Sofa Bed, (new construction,) Large Chimney Glass, 5 feet 8 by 3 feet 2, Superb Brussels Carpet and Rug, Kidderminster ditto, Eight Day Clock, Oval Hall Table, Dressing Stand, Dish Covers, Morning and Evening China, Epergne, Cutlery, Kitchen Requisites, Bedsteads, Feather Beds, Mattresses, Fenders, Fire Irons, Bedroom Ware.

Curious Stuffed Birds, principally from Australia, amongst which are specimens of the Vampire Bat, Paroquet, Blood Bird, Pelican, Diamond Bird, Humming Bird, &c. &c.

Sale at Twelve o'Clock precisely.

ON VIEW THIS DAY.

January 11.