

Dublin broke a out of Nenagh, which half. The agents ex-date the passengers.
aises and a long car,
nd luggage forward.
ed, as they succeeded tythe tried at our

Barrington's Hospital
Mayor, Lord Bishop,
R. Bourke, W. Roche, light, J. Harvey, D. rphy, J. W. Haynes. shot himself on Wed-Mountrath. He was ed, it is said, robbing Hanly, after having ade resistance, and

SATURDAY.

arrister took his seat
the hearing of a few sent, was entered on.
ed and sworn.

were found guilty of y of George Powel—
hard labour.

M'Mahon were next stealing 20 stone of Smith—Two months'

o a common assault
-2 months' imprison-
peace for 12 months.
l with having kept a table levers was the
was not satisfactorily charged.

yns, and Margaret ue of goods seized y—To be imprisoned

essy were indicted for icles of wearing ap-Minihan, of Ballin-
re charged with re-

he charge of steals proceeded with.
e prisoner, Mary,
imprisonment—the value is. the pro-

Two months impri-

James Liby, of Ballysimon, farmer, aged 92 years, to Miss Eliza Gleeson, of John's-gate, aged 82 years.
At All Souls', Langham-place, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Chichester, and previously, according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, William Archer Shee, Esq. third son of Sir Martin Archer Shee, President of the Royal Academy, to Marriet, widow of Major William Cubitt, Deputy Military Secretary to the Government of India.
At Bishop's Hull Church, George Dance, Esq. of the 71st Regt. only son of Sir Charles Dance, of Barr House, to Sarah Pearson, eldest daughter of the Rev. H. W. Rawlins, Incumbent of Bishop's Hull, county of Somerset.

DEATHS.

Sunday last, at 127, George-street, aged 83 years, Mary, relict of the late Francis Russell, Esq. of this city—a lady whose virtues endeared her, during a long and well spent life, to the affectionate consideration of family and friends.

At the New Barracks, Mr. Martin Howley, first class Barrack-Serjeant, leaving a young family of 14 children, to deplore the greatest loss they could sustain.

After a short illness, at Royal Crescent, Cheltenham, Catherine Isabella Thompson, third daughter of the Venerable the late Archdeacon of Cork.

On the 12th inst. the Rev. Robert Longfield, of Castlemary, Cork.

At the Rectory House, Ballymony, county Antrim, the Rev. William Greene, Rector of the Parish, in the 76th year of his age.

In Clare-street, of measles, William Heffernan, third son of Mr. Thomas Bunton, late of Tralee, aged five years.

At Tipperary, on Saturday, 7th inst. James Reardan, Esq. aged 59 years. The benevolence of his disposition, and urbanity of manners, gained for him the unqualified esteem of all classes. During his illness, he was consoled by the thought that "this was not his home," and resigned his spirit in the "sure and certain hope of a Blessed Resurrection."

Of fever, at his house, South Main-street, Cork, Wm. Henry Robinson, Esq. of the firm of W. and P. Robinson.

On the 14th inst. Mr. Thomas Mullane, Excise officer, respected and regretted by all who knew him.

In Tuam, Mr. Robert Copley, Petty Session Clerk.

At Killimiatta House, Kilkenny, the residence of her uncle, Rev. Mr. Bergin, P.P. Miss Catherine Bergin.

In Clonmel, Mr. John Savage.

In Harwicke-place, Sarah, wife of Nicholas Ellis, Esq.

James Holmes, Esq. Upper Dorset-street, aged 78.

At his residence in Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Robert Hamilton, Esq. son of Henry Hamilton, of Ballymacoll, county Meath, Esq.

Mary, wife of James Lynch, of Blackhall-street, Esq.

At Cootehill, Richard, eldest son of John M'Fadden, Esq. M.D. Coroner for the county Cavan.

At Hauteville, Guernsey, Alice, wife of the Rev. C. Mulloy.

Charlotte, wife of Thomas Murdoch, Esq. of Portland-place.

At Edinburgh, Mr. Wm. Bennet, W.S.

Hannah, relict of the late Joseph Bateman, Esq. of Chester.

At his residence, in Hampshire, Admiral Thomas Alexander.

The Lady of J. S. Pakington, Esq. of Westwood House, M.P.

Sir John Gordon, Bart. of Earlston, Stewartry of Kirkcubright.

At New Orleans, Mr. John Blair, late of Glasgow.

Friday last, after a short illness, Mr. Michael Burke, celebrated as the manufacturer of the Limerick Gloves, Patrick-street, an honest, industrious, and respectable citizen, much regretted.

At Ashfield, of apoplexy, H. J. Clements, Esq. M.P. for Cavan.

At Evergreen House, Cork, the residence of her father, Louisa Frances, daughter of Daniel B. Foley, Esq.

Dora, wife of H. Babington, Esq. of Derry, and daughter of the late Murray Babington, Esq. of Donnyglan, county Donegal.

At Portarlinton, Mr. Charles Le Cam, apothecary.

At Arklow, county Wicklow, William Fitz-Henry, Esq.

In Peter's-street, Cork, aged 74, Mr. Thomas James Simcocks.

At Anne-street, Circular-road, in his 81st year, J. Murray, Esq.

At Dawlish, Captain Kane, a leading member of the Irish Yacht Club.

Suddenly, at the Grand Parade, Brighton, Mrs. Taylor.
Mr. George Buckstone, formerly an eminent comedian of Drury-lane.

engaged Waterproof.
No. 1, DENMARK-S (Next Door to

14 TO BE
AND IMMEDIATE P
FOR SUCH TERM AS M

THE HOUSE, OFFIC ROCKSTOWN, in the taining 58A. 3B. 26P. Iris now in the possession of The Lands both Pasture a including Orchard and Ga House is commodious and reception of a respectable
The Offices consist of T
Barn, Granary, Cow and T
enclosed.

ROCKSTOWN adjoins t
Ballinaguard, and is situ
Limerick.

A large quantity of Hay
on the premises, may be h Proposals in writing will MOLONY, Esq. Solicitor, I
on the premises, will show

15 CHANC
Anne Bourke, Spinster, administratrix of Thomas Bourke and James Bourke, deceased, }
Plaintiff; } Richard Aylmer, and } others, } Defendants. } on

fourth day of JANUARY inst o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Inn's Quay, Dublin, set up and fairest Bidder, for Se Cause, from the First Day that and those the Lands lately in possession of CORN Lands of BALLYCANNO Acres, Three Roods, and Tw in possession of GEORGE Barony of Lower Connelloe,
Dated this 3d day of Ja

N.B.—For further parti DELMERGE and FERGUSON, R
keale; or 102, Lower Gardin