

been appointed Locker, son of Mr. Boyd removed, and Locker at Waterford.

persons at a distance will be in the dark, no street lighting, and no street lamps. Accidents are of hourly occurrence every night. No person has been paid by the day that Mr. C. has made settlement can take place from his account. The persons at the mercy either of the Dublin Society for anment was not successful. In Lifford gaol, Donegal, at distillation.

sons, Michael and Thomas; and Thomas Duffy, for 7 years' transportation. various periods of imprisonment and larceny.

used the Cork corn-market proceeding years. The wheat in haggard, entered by burglars a few days before shutting, of a booty.

of sold per cwt. 50s. to 58s.; pork per score lb. 6s. to 214; calves 38; pigs 237. at a testimonial meeting in the country, and every admirer family, whose high fame were heard with rapidity and morning concerts on which were fully attended.

Michael Molony, jun. for at Cahircalla, was fined imprisonment.

performer on the trumpet, the audience.

discussing the repairs of the church the liberal support of consider the truly christian spirit it breathes.—See Advt

At Paris, Louisa, daughter of the late J. Campbell, Esq. of Yorkgate, Regent's Park, to Gustave Count de Truguet, only son of the late Admiral de Truguet, Marshal and Peer of France.

DEATHS.

On the 28th ult. at her son's residence, Woodlawn Cottage, Newcastle, in this county, at the advanced age of 87 years, and much respected through life, Mrs. Carte, relict of the late Robert Carte, Esq. and mother of Lieut. Robert Carte, Barrack-master of Newcastle.

At her mother's house in Barrington-street, on Monday last, Miss Diana Vandeleur, aged 19.

At Kilfrush, on Sunday last, Georgina Elizabeth, the youngest daughter of Joseph Gubbins, Esq. aged two years.

In Roche's-street, on Monday, Mr. Patrick Hogan, many years a respectable grocer and spirit merchant in this city, some time Inspector of the turf quays.

At the Sisters' of Mercy Convent, Rutland-street, Cork, Mary Anne, second daughter of the late Robert Prendergast, Esq. of Marlhill, county Tipperary.

At Bushy Park, near Ennis, Anne, wife of John O'Kelly, of Clonina, Esq.

At Kilduff, Michael H. Walsh, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, eldest son of John Hussey Walsh, Esq.

At George's-avenue, Blackrock, after being confined of her eighth child, Eleanor Dorothea, wife of the Rev. William St. George Sargent, Assistant-Chaplain of Carysfort Church.

At Banagher, Susan, wife of T. Falkner Fleetwood, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. Doctor Alan Bell.

Richard James, son of Richard Fitzgerald, Esq. of Rathellen, county Carlow.

At her house, Stephen's-green, Mrs. Erek, relict of the late John Caillard Erek, Esq.

At Morneen-Nugent, county Longford, T. Lennon Nugent, Esq.

At her house in Kilkenny, Margaret Grace, relict of the late Major Samuel Madden, formerly 18th Regt.

Mrs. Henrietta Blair, of Lucan.

Maria Amelia, wife of Edward Morgan, Esq. of Bridestown, county Cork.

At Clover-hill, Anna Conner, daughter of Captain Richard Conner, R.N. Monte Notte.

At Fermoy, Richard, son of Daniel Geran. of Rushmount, Esq.

At Lee Bank, Cork, Anne, daughter of the late John Morris.

At Fermoy, the infant daughter of Capt. R. C. Lloyd, 76th Regt.

At Midleton, Johanna, daughter of the late John Carey, of Strawhall, county Cork, Esq.

At Kingstown, Captain Charles King, late 24th Regt.

In Richmond-place, Nicholas Sophia Herbert, aged 78 years, daughter of the late Edward Thomas Herbert, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and the Hon. Nicola Sophia Cuffe, Desart, county Kilkenny.

Louisa, eldest daughter of Dr. Walshe, of Naas, Kildare.

At her house in Dorset-street, Mrs. Elizabeth M'Cartney, relict of Robert M'Cartney, Esq.

At Downpatrick, William H. Smyth, Esq. M.D.

Mary, wife of Walter Henry Kavanagh, Esq.

Mary, wife of Mr. Nicholas Tottenham, late of the Customs Department, Belfast.

At Sallyvale, near Armagh, Michael Pringle, Esq.

At Havannah, aged 19 years, William Benjamin, eldest son of Mr. Hugh S. Lanphier, of Cork.

At Stratford, R. Gregory, Esq.

At Dumfries, Mrs. Crosbie, relict of Mr. J. Crosbie, merchant.

At Stirling, Mrs. Jean Muirhead, wife of Mr. John Kidston.

At Gloucester, in his 85th year, George Worrall Counsel, Esq. Solicitor. The deceased, who was one of oldest inhabitants of that city, was a well-known antiquary, and author of a "History of Gloucester." Mr. Counsel was one of the most intimate friends of the late Mr. James Wood, the banker, who left him £10,000 in the codicil to his will.

At Bath, aged 64 years, Mr. John Philpot, father of Mrs. Anderson, the celebrated pianist.

At Uxbridge, William Lake, Esq. thirty years postmaster of that town.

Fanny Plantagenet Kerry Nicholls.

In Hertford-street, Mayfair, Jas. Franck, Esq. M.D. Inspector-General of Hospitals.

In Italy, of consumption, Rosabella Maria Frances, wife of Thomas Birmingham Trotter, Esq. and youngest daughter of the late Major St. Clare.

ORATORIO will be by T. To the Sanctuary and Aisle, which will be fu

NO
KILRUSH HOSPITAL
A MEETING of the INSTITUTION on TUESDAY, the 7th MA for the purpose of appo ing measures for the in and its future managen supporting this most u pay their Subscriptions Town, on or before the as those only produc considered Members.

A Benevo
TO THE EDITOR OF SIR—We beg leave give insertion in t the following most exc Vincent, Esq. Erina, numerous Tenantry in and County of Tippera instant, and has bene them of ten shillings i also pledged himself to swine and black cattle temper, evidently rife ference to the good ex gentleman, we say, "I do in like manner." act of tenderness and records thereof for In (Si

January 31.
EDITOR OF THE
DEAR SIR,
UPON my happeni ber twelvemont duties of ST. MUNCH during Incumbent's a noticed in your Journ appointment to the C effect still continues, are, in several instanc it would be conveni takes, your allowing upon the occasion wa nating on the 30th of Your February 1.