

ve been deemed compatible ances, with the efficient per-service throughout the exten-esty.

ts the diminished receipt from ources of her revenue.

that it must be in part attri-consumption of many articles, n of the manufacturing indush has so long prevailed, and so deeply lamented.

owever, the present state of esty is assured that you will en materially affected by the the import duties, which re-ring the last Session of Pare progress has been hitherto of those taxes which were ime of supplying the deficiency uses.

s confident that the future pro-ill be sufficient to meet every service.

GENTLEMEN,
mands us to acquaint you that e utmost gratification from the attachment to her Majesty, on the occasion of Her Mad.

ts that in the course of last year
me of the manufacturing disturbed, and the lives and pro-subjects were endangered by s and acts of open violence.

promptly enforced, was suffi-repression of these disorders.
dently relies upon its efficacy, upport of her loyal and peace-maintenance of tranquility.

ed by her Majesty to acquaint nected with the improvement various questions of domestic ed for your consideration.

dently relies on your zealous e the public welfare, and fer-favour of Divine Providence per your counsels, and make happiness and contentment of House of Lords was moved by seconded by the Earl of Eglinthe Commons was moved by enay, M.P. for South Devon, o Miles, Esq. M.P. for Bristol, about Ireland and its concerns, withstanding, must certainly ene attention of Parliament in Ministers, it will be seen,

In Jersey, W. Hodder, Esq. to Miss Daly, of Dublin.
Isaac Buchanan, Esq. merchant, Glasgow, to Agnes, daughter of Robert Jarvie, Esq.
James Smith Torrop, Esq. of Edinburgh, to Mariann, daughter of the late John Edwards, Esq. of Whitechurch, Shropshire.

DEATHS.

On the 6th inst. Arthur Kiely Westropp, Esq. third son of the late Robert Westropp, Esq. of Fort Anne, county Clare.

On Monday, in Dublin, the second daughter of Mrs. Vandeleur, of Ralahine. Her eldest sister died in this city a few days ago, both most amiable and interesting young ladies.

At Tomgraney, county Clare, Ellen, the beloved daughter of Mathew Reddan, Esq.

At George's-quay, Cork, Harriet, relict of the late Edward Hatton, Esq.

At her residence, South Mall, Anne, relict of the late Richard Maguire, Esq. of Cork.

At the residence of his grandson, Dr. Bernard, Dundrum, Joshua Lacy, Esq. aged 84 years.

Mrs. Curry, head-nurse of the Limerick District Lunatic Asylum.
Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Dillon, Esq. of York-street.

Mrs. Edgeworth, wife of the Master of the Athlone workhouse.
At Portarlinton, Mr. Charles Le Cam, of that town, apothecary.

At Ballinan, Queen's County, John Rutledge, Esq. formerly Quarter-Master in the 9th Lancers, aged 81 years.

Mr. Paul Gillespie, of Derry.
At Glenarm, Charlotte O'Neill M'Kenty, Lower Gloucester-street, only daughter of the late John M'Kenty, Jamaica, and niece to the Rev. John M'Auley, P.P. Downpatrick.

In London, Margaret, wife of Mr. James J. Darcy, formerly of Waterford.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, at the Philosophical and Literary Institution, Bristol, Mr. James Smith, many years senior Surgeon of the Bristol Infirmary.

Joseph Ruscombe Poole, Esq. Solicitor of Bridgewater.

George Boyd, Esq. of the old and respectable firm of Oliver & Boyd, of Edinburgh, publishers of the Cabinet Library, and many other standard works.

At Birmingham, J. M. Baynam, Esq. Surgeon.

Mr. David Mitchel M'Gregor, merchant, Glasgow.

At Irvine, Margaret Shaw, relict of John Macfie, Esq. Glasgow.

At Ribbesford House, Worcestershire, Captain F. E. Winning-ton Ingram, of the 6th, or Enniskillen Dragoons, and eldest son of N. W. Ingram, one of the Canons of Worcester Cathedral, aged 29 years.

In Cambridge-street, Connaught-square, in his 78th year, John Williams, Esq. late of her Majesty's Receipt of Exchequer.

At Cambuslang Manse, the Rev. Dr. John Robertson, in the 75th year of his age, and 45th of his ministry.

At Castle Douglas, William Ireland, Esq. writer, and agent for the Bank of Scotland.

In Southampton-street, Strand, Mrs. Power, relict of Major W. Middleton Power.

At Kensington, aged 77, Susanna, relict of Walter Brind, Esq.

At Hempriggs House, Caithness, the Right Hon. Lord Duffus
Thomas Taylor, Esq. formerly of the Royal Observatory Greenwich.

At Emery Down, near Lyndhurst, Hants, Lieut.-Colonel Fountainne Hogge, late 26th Regt.

At the Mote, Pembrokeshire, William H. Scourfield, Esq. formerly M.P. for Haverfordwest.

At Ashbourne, Lieut. James H. Hamilton, Ceylon Rifle Regt.
Knight Commander of the Military Order of San Ferdinand.

At Grenada, Lewis Hoyes, Esq. Speaker of the House of Assembly, and a native of Forres, N.B.

At Clonard, of brain fever, George A. Cunningham, Esq. M.D.

At Brookeborough, at an advanced age, at the house of her son, Lieut. John Hill, Revenue Police, Mary, relict of Richard Hill, Esq. Supervisor of Excise.

In Mountrath, Mr. James Delany.

At Naas, Louisa, eldest daughter of Dr. Walsh.

At Queen Anne's County, Maryland, Maurice P. Hore, Esq.
formerly of Cork.

In Jersey, John, son of the late Captain Briscoe, 75th; and Captain George Falle, and Mrs Turner.

At Taunton, Doctor Malachi Blake, M.D.

at the pump, &c. There are 106 adult females, of whom 19 are capable of doing laundry work, widows with young families, and 54 are employed at work of a less laborious description. The knitters, and needle-workers, contribute materially to the economy of the establishment. The number of medical prescriptions for the half year ending 29th September, 1842, were 3928.

KILRUSH MEETING INSTITUTION

TUESDAY, the 7th
for the purpose of ing measures for
and its future man-
supporting this m-
pay their Subscrip-Town, on or before
as those only pro-
considered Memb-