

(whose evidence has not been shaken by the cross-examination to sustain negative proof has been produced by the prisoner the first three, namely, had been a patient in hospital, I respectfully submit a positive denial of the facts in hospital respect-ation was afterwards by Sergeant Ritchie and sought up to confront him, to contradict them. The prisoner, admits he was in bed dispute about the fires, and at night also he accuracy, observed the he takes upon himself in s who were walking about state that on that night he saw him in a state of intoxi- who was also a patient in his own evidence confined If with great accuracy to 5th of November. As to whether to the best of his r visited the ward he was at he was then perfectly mination, however, he is of the Doctor's visit, nor after sunset, nor where ere lighted; and the d up by the production ther hospital patient, who e never saw the Doctor visit the hospital in a th respect to the third by Dr. Lawlor's evidence, s not on the sick list on stated in that charge; Lawlor, dated the 24th bmit, is evidence that he ous evening of the 23d risoner reported himself Lawlor would not have of the 24th, which state on the evening of the made by the prisoner as t towards him from that of which it is right I should fficers under arrest, and General of the district. own justification inform t to the prisoner's debts nformation on which the e by written application s, addressed to me at the y any seeking of mine, or will be observed that the debts, but states he has

Captain Day, 84th.

Theodore E. Vidal, Esq. of Hamburgh, to Annette, daughter of the late Mr. Charles Stuart, of Dame-street.

At Pagham, Sussex, Henry Edmund Michell Palmer, to Eva Maria, daughter of Captain Rowland Money, R.N.C.B.

DEATHS.

At her residence, Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Dorothea, relict of Fitzmaurice Hunt, Esq. Cappagh House, county Tipperary.

On Thursday last, at Martinstown, near Kilmallock, aged 75 years, Alicia, relict of the late William Collier Bennett, of Cottage, Esq. in this county, and eldest daughter of the late Rev. John Parker. She was an affectionate wife, and fond parent.

On Tuesday, the 14th inst. at Cragg, the residence of the Rev. Mr. Sheehy, suddenly, of apoplexy, William Molony, Esq. of Garrara Cottage, Tulla, sincerely and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances.

In Clare-street, Mr. Timothy Nunan, timber merchant.

At her residence, Blarney-lane, Cork, Margaret, relict of the late John Walsh, Esq.

At Castle Park, Galway, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Patrick Joyce, Esq.

In Dublin, the wife of George Baldwin, Esq. of the Exchequer Court, and Past Master Free Mason.

At Neddins, Tipperary, Mr. James Mulcahy.

At Cloughall, county Kildare, Martha, daughter of the late Thomas Tyrrell, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At his residence, Paradise-row, Michael Edward Coates, Esq.

At his residence, Upper Camden-street, Thomas Fry, Esq. of the firm of William Fry and Co.

At Bilton, near Finglas Bridge, county Dublin, Agnes Cameron, the beloved wife of Donatus Henchy, Esq.

In Drumrow, county Down, Miss Ellen Watterson.

Thomas West, of Longfield, county Longford, Esq. at the age of 73 years.

At Lower Sherrard-street, Hannah, daughter of the late John Woodhouse.

Mr. John Stokes Wilson, son of Robert Wilson, Esq. Surgeon, R.N. of Knockanboy.

At North Richmond-street, Mr. Michael Bernard Dunphy, of the Society of Christian Brothers.

At his residence, Suffolk-street, Richard Sparks, Esq. in his 79th year.

Mr. Charles Kilanert, manager at Covent-garden theatre, many years a protegee of the late Lord Egremont.

At Torr, the Rev. John Osborne, Rector of Angmering, Sussex.

In London, Eliza Ann, widow of Captain Frederick Durack, Bombay Army, and daughter of the late Colonel Ellis.

At Dumbuck, Dumbartonshire, Andrew Giles, Esq. of Dumbuck, late Lieut.-Colonel 73d Regt.

At Greenock, Mrs. Robert Bannatyne.

In London, T. J. Parker, Esq. late of the 15th Light Dragoons.

Sir Thomas H. Hesketh, Bart. He was born in 1799, and married in 1824 to Miss Bomford, daughter of Mr. R. Bomford, of Rahanstrom House, county Meath. His only son, Mr. Thomas George Hesketh, succeeds to the Baronetcy and the estates of the family in Lancashire.

At Glasgow, Captain William Murdoch, late master of the George M'Leod.

At Barham-wood, Elstree, Richard Kirwan, youngest son of the late Captain R. K. Hill.

Janet Cockburn, wife of Brigadier-General Charles Dallas, late Governor of St. Helena.

At Ham-common, Eliza, the wife of Henry M. Pigou, Esq.

At sea, on board the ship Orestes, on his passage to China, John L. Broderick, Esq. Ensign, of the 18th, or Royal Irish, eldest son of the late Captain H. Broderick, 29th Regt.

At Bombay, Captain Lorn M'Intyre, Bombay European Regt. son of Major A. M'Intyre, of Edinburgh.

At Colombo, Ceylon, on the 22d December, 1842, Jane Hicks, the beloved wife of Major G. T. Parke.

At Fairview Avenue, Samuel Scott, Esq.

At Kingstown, Mr. Thomas Johnson, the eminent light comedian, of Crowe-street, and Hawkins'-street theatres.

At Jersey, John Churchill, Esq. Surgeon, late of Plymouth.

At the Crescent, Plymouth, Miss Jane Maria Welsh.

At Dawlish, Devon, Sophia, wife of Thomas North, Esq.

At Ceylon, of dysentery, Henry, son of the late Mr. Thomas Evans, Roscrea, Drum-Major 95th Regt.

Cent. Builders are rec of the opportunity now trifling Ground Rent, Lodges in Merton-square be given, and leave to MACDONNELL'S admira Application to WM Limerick; or WM. BR

EDITOR OF THE
SIR—Permit me thro spectable and tale pleasurable duty I feel cordance with the unan tenantry residing on t Turagh in the County Sir JOHN S. RIBTON, B my most heartfelt and and liberal abatements tenants, of £20 per ce of the Village of Toora Rent, and to all witho Poor Rates, a system t disapprobation.

Sir JOHN S. RIBTON, HAYES RIBTON, Esq. sojourning with his res kind Agent, Mr. RICH happy to say, possess upwards of a quarter o rience,) the full confid and Tenants, walked enquired into their wishes—and, after m tented, and renewing left this day, attended tenantry, who parted h regret and gratitude. pressing my humble an landlords of Ireland to doctrine and practice o would have a happy rous tenantry, not exorbitant, and oppres peace of the Country b social intercourse of lar man be interrupted. A be hoped for, when the escutcheon to sustain t and honor, and none o one to be derived from humane care and prote proved himself the t man's friend.

I rem
Y

New Pallis, Feb. 18