Beale, Sheane, & Co. of Mountmelick, are paying a dividend of 16s. 3d. in the pound

Messrs. Kennedy and Greg, Clerks of the Peace of Derry, have been bound to keep the peace, in consequence of hostile proceedings arising by the former being nominated to the office by the Custos Rotulorum, and the latter retaining the place under a joint appointment with his late partner.

The Abbyleix union guardians passed a resolution in favour of Dr. Phelan, Poor law Commissioner, on a division of 13 to 10, Lord De Vesce, and his son, the Hon. T. Vesey, M.P. were against the resolution, as having no official connexion with, or knowledge of Dr. Phelan's merits in that union.

The atmosphere is brilliant, and the frost continues with little interruption since Wednesday, although somewhat moderated. On the night of Wednesday the Mercury fell in a north east aspect, to 21 degrees of Fahrenheit, or 11 degrees below the freezing point; on Thursday night it went down 8 degrees; and last night 6 degrees below Zero. There are several skaters on the ice at Loughmore, and the canal fields.

Constable Parker, and Sub-Constable Latchford arrested James Walsh for an attempt at rape on Catherine Higgins, of Inch St. Lawrence on the night of the 15th inst. Constable Parker and party also succeeded in arresting James Connors, assisting John Grady, who fractured the skull of Sandy Phillips on the 11th inst. and lies dangerously ill in hospital.

Mr. Edward Costello is likely to succeed to the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Holmes O'Brien, as Commissioner of affidavits under the superior courts.
