

Patrick Williams, George Looby; Darby Macking the house of William Condon, assault on Michael Corbett, Patrick O'Donnell, and mother, confederate; Richard Head, William Butler; Peter Keating; Cornelius highway robbery of Clonmel, this was found guilty at one wife by Rev. Mr. and, to another, by Michael Roberts, Tullamore Assizes. Mr. Roberts, is to be William gaol. James Wm. Bergin, of Hall is moved from at Dublin Castle on Turner is succeeded in her, formerly a cap- in Dublin, that the Pennefather, was London for threatening the Exchequer, formerly Coast Guard station when with his boat on an American smuggler from effecting an hour of Glandore. The Old Head of Kinsale, ve put off to sea. The sale, where she was by of the port, seized and e. Masters received only £50. This is the in and complaint of ill preman of the City of disposed of the money seven gentlemen who the first time, in the Hospital, 27; Mag- sylum, 27; Sisters of an Society, 27; Poor ut by ladies who have visiting and purchasing 27. 12s.

At Rome, the Rev. J. Knysett Leighton, Rector of Harpenden, Oxford, to Catherine, daughter of the late Hon. and Rev. James St. Leger.
 At Port Philip, Captain Miller, late 40th, aged 65, to Miss MacQueen, aged 17.
 Henry Connell, Esq. of Mallow, to Charlotte, relict of William M'Donnell, Esq. of Fairview, and Mandaville Hall, co. Armagh.

DEATHS.

On the 9th inst. after a premature accouchment, the Lady of the Rev. Denis Mahony, of Dromore Castle, county Kerry, sister to Sir V. Blake, M.P. Lady Ventry, and Lady O'Donnell O'Hara.
 At Gresham's Hotel, Major Robert Handcock Temple, of Waterstown House, county Westmeath.
 At Fir Park, Borrisokane, Catherine, wife of Wm. Doolan, Esq.
 At Gardiner's-place, Honoria, relict of the late Thomas Tighe, Esq. of Newfort, county Galway.
 George Mahony, aged 107, and his wife Julian, aged 99, living at Castle Donacon, within a few miles of Dunmanway.
 At Oakgrove, the residence of her nephew-in-law, John Bowen, Esq. Miss Elizabeth Travers, at an advanced age.
 In Mungret-street, John, son of Mr. Thomas Malone.
 At Listowel, Mr. D. Egan, apothecary.
 The Rev. Michael O'Callaghan, P.P. of Drumcliffe.
 Suddenly, at Castlebellingham, county Louth, John Duncan, Esq. eldest son of the late J. Duncan, of Castlebellingham, Esq.
 At Lara Vale, near Omagh, Eliza, relict of the late Captain Dudden, of the 32d Regt.
 James Lynch, of Blackhall-street, Esq.; and in Dorset-street, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Anne Lynch.
 On Saturday last, at Clanbrahill-street, Inspector of Erasmus Smith's School, and Church Education Society, formerly of the Kildare-street, Society.
 Mr. Mathew Fegan, schoolmaster, of the Athlone Workhouse.
 David, eldest son of William Geiston, Esq. Belfast.
 Sir James Wemyss Mackenzie, Bart. Lord Lieutenant of the county of Ross, and its representative in Parliament for many years. He is succeeded in his title and extensive properties by his only son and heir, James J. R. Mackenzie, Esq. who married in 1838, Lady Ann Wentworth, daughter of the Earl Fitzwilliam.
 At Lamington, Warwickshire, George Potter, Esq. Solicitor, Guilford, Surrey.
 At Bath, Colonel Love Parry Jones, of Llwyn Onn, Denbighshire. He commanded the 2d. or Queen's, at Alexandria.
 At Devonport, the Rev. Septimus Courtney, Vicar of Charles Church.
 At Chichester, Francis Freeland.
 Isabella, widow of Lieut. Jones, R.N. killed on board the Victory at Trafalgar, was accidentally burned to death at Wandsworth, on Thursday.
 At Edinburgh, Sir J. Robinson, Secretary of the Royal Society there.
 At Stirling, Mr. Alexander Thomson, of the Town's Customs, Mr. Jonathan Nield, senior member, or father of her Majesty's Chapels Royal, St. Paul's, and Westminster Abbey.
 At Edinburgh, John Herries Maxwell, Esq. of Munches.
 Mr. J. Barton, of Lambeth, Surrey.
 At Woolwich-common, Major-General Sir John B. Savage, K.C.B. K.C.H. aged 84.
 At Edinburgh, Mr. Andrew Archer, dentist.
 At Irvine, Henry, son of P. Blair, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, Dr. J. G. Pack.
 At Rome, Cardinal Guistiniani, aged 74.
 In the Island of St. Christopher's, the Rev. John Pickwood, M.A. Chaplain to the Bishop of Antigua.
 At Malta, Lieut. John Evans, R.N. of the Polyphemus steamer.
 At Nice, Harriett, wife of William H. Woodcock, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service.
 At his house, Merrion-square, Dublin, Maxwell Blacker, Esq. late Chairman of Kilmarnham.
 At Clifton, Richard, son of Daniel Tighe, Esq. of Rossana, county Wicklow.
 At Cove, Mrs. Ann Carroll.
 Sir James Leighton, of Greenford, Middlesex, physician to the Emperor and Empress of Russia.
 In Jersey, Lieut.-Colonel Savage, thereabouts, all prime Till with right of Turbury, sit and within a mile of the P six Acres have been laid with a crop of Oats, and prepared for crops.

Also that part called G containing 17 Acres or possession of WILLIAM M Also that part of the said late in the possession of Jo of the lands of CARHUGA ratty, late in the possession Application to be ma O'CALLAGHAN, Esq, 29 La or P. CARRICK, Esq. Enni MICHAEL WALSH, Care JOHN NEYLAN, of Toon Premises.

The Right Honorable Hay Lord Viscount Donera and John Leahy, Plaintiffs.
 The Rev. Richard Plummer Frances Plummer, widow Brudenel Plummer, Thomas Fitzgerald Plummer Charles William Plummer and Edward Plummer, Defendants.

pleadings in this cause na on or before SATURDAY, and prove their said dema excluded from the benefit Dated this 15th day

For further particulars RICHARD J. THEODORE C No. 40, Great George's-s

Lessee of Edward Tierne Esq. and also Lessee Thomas McMahon, Esq. Against The casual Ejector.

taining by estimation 4 Perches, plantation meas of Limerick, late in th CRIPS, and her undertena March, 1843.

Application to EDWA Ballygarry. N. B.—The Tenant w under the Habere.