DEATHS.

At Ballingarry, the beloved daughter of William O'Dell, Esq. aged 21, after a short and painful illness, in which she testified repentance towards God, and faith in her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

At Coolmain, on the 23d ult. in the 80th year of his age, Eustace Stawell, Esq. sincerely lamented by his family, friends, and a large circle of acquaintances. His kind disposition—bland manners—refined tastes and elegant accomplishments made him the welcome associate of the eminent men of his day, of whom he was the chosen companion and friend. A whig of the old school, he was esteemed among his cotemporaries as a distinguished member of "the Volunteers of Ireland," so much so, that in his person, that Patriotic Association was highly complimented at the Court of France. He bore a painful illness with Christian fortitude, and resigned his spirit into the hands of his Creator with an entire reliance on the atoning merits of the Redeemer.
