

Mr. Purcell being in London, Lord Lowther, Postmaster, told him that there were two Irish mails lower than that of Messrs. Bourne and Co. had been awarded to was one halfpenny and a half than that of the joint concern the firm had named was the same as their present concern. Mr. Purcell offered to the sum as named by Mr. Lowther said the offer came too late. The magistrates of Waterford are indignant at Government, of magistrates

Information has reached the steamer is ordered forth-ward to ply between that of Wales. The station between will be filled by the Dover to be completely re-fitted for readers will be gratified to be commanded by Capt. Kennedy, to the satisfaction of the public of steamers on the Lower

Mr. Jackson, at Cork, was an assistant-barrister, but from the question as to the ne-cessary arise upon a recognizance, the Lordship had previously de-termined (agreeably to the opinion of Mr. Warren) that a recogni- zance from the assistant-barrister's stamp; but in this case he is liable to the stamp duty. Mr. P. is appointed by the nomination of his father and Inspector of the Province

Mr. Harriett Fleming are fully com- manded from Major Raines, 95th. were brought up to College-st. and in different gaming-houses by Mr. Monaghan and John Sloman, 15, and the other cases stand

Mr. Shannon, name unknown, was the Bar last Tuesday, and nar- rowly escaped. This dangerous spot is not without other cautionary signal, to Mr. and Queviedo were lost on

Mr. Massy gratefully acknowledges the A. B. for the Protestant

At Greenock, Mr. Thomas Fisher, shipmaster, to Isabella Farquharson, daughter of Mr. Peter Bowman.
At Barbadoes, Frederick Charles, son of Deputy Commissary-General Maturin, to Mary Ann, only daughter of Assistant Com- missary-General Swain.
At Barbadoes, Assistant Commissary-General Charles Swain, to Miss Rebecca C. Niles.
Milo Macmahon, Esq. of Rathkeale, to Jane, second daughter of the late John Creagh, Esq. of Waterville, in this county.
In St. Thomas's Church, Mr. G. William Jones, Kildare- street, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late Captain Bennett, 5th Foot.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday night, at his residence, near Scariff, Anne, the beloved wife of Matthew Reddan, Esq.—a lady whose death is great affliction to her family and friends.
On the 1st inst. at Bruff, Honora, the wife of Richard Dowling, Esq.
At Elm Park, Castlereagh, Martha, the beloved wife of the Rev. William Cornwall—a lady universally regarded.
At the house of his uncle, Richard Downes, Lancaster-quay, Cork, the Rev. William E. Kingston, Curate of Tallow.
In Dingle, Miss Purdon, daughter of the late Rowan Purdon, Esq. M.D. Trales.
In St. Francis's Abbey, Katharine, wife of Mr. Matthew Ryan.
At Castletown, Berehaven, Ellen Maria, daughter of Redmond Power, Esq. Sub-Inspector.
At Castlelyons, Mrs. William Lynch.
At Cavan, the residence of his father, the Rev. Patrick Smith, R.C. Curate of Kill, diocese of Kilmore.
At Kilbeggan, Annie, second daughter of Peyton Sheals, Esq. S.I. of Constabulary.
At Sandymount, at an advanced age, Susanna, relict of Mr. Robert Underwood.
At the residence of her brother, Dr. John Jacob, Maryborough, Mary, daughter of the late Dr. Jacob.
At Harold's Cross, the Rev. John M'Cormack, late of St. Isidore College, Rome.
The Rev. Denis M'Davit, P.P. of Urney, Derry.
At Bath, Major-General Sir Charles Broke Vere, K.C.B. and M.P. for East Suffolk.
Benjamin Coates, Esq. of North-end, St. John's, Fulham.
Thomas Henry Egan, Esq. Resident Surgeon to the Westmor- land Lock Hospital.
At his father's house, North Portland-street, Glasgow, Peter Brown, Esq. one of the Stipendiary Magistrates for Jamaica.
At Ditton House, Thames Ditton, Surrey, Sophia, wife of Edward Bligh, Esq. and daughter of the late Charles Keverfield, Esq. of Denne Park, near Horsham, Sussex.
At Camden-town, W. Henderson, Esq. late Lieutenant of the Hon. Corps of Gentleman-at-Arms.
In his 84th year, Sir George Griffies Williams, Bart. of Llwyny- wormwood, Carmarthenshire. He is succeeded in the title by his eldest son, now Sir Erasmus Henry Griffies Williams, Rector of Marlbro', Wilts.
At his residence in Upper Grosvenor-street, Rowley Lascelles, Esq. in the 75th year of his age.
At Aigburth, near Liverpool, Seraphina Eliza Lucy, only daughter of Mr. Alderman Bramley Moore.
In his 80th year, Sir Samuel Chambers, Knight, of Bredgar House, Kent, Deputy Lieutenant for that county.
At Kennington-green, Mr. William Wilkinson, chief clerk of the Phoenix Assurance Company.
At Rockfort, on the Missouri, United States, William Dunn Oxley, Esq. youngest son of Thomas Oxley, Esq. of Killiney, county Dublin.
In Carlew, Henry Malcolmson, Esq.
At Hanwell Park, Charles Turner, Esq. magistrate for the county of Middlesex.
At Kennington, Lieut. Thomas Duell, R.N.
At Boulogne, Major Joseph Dacre Watson, Hon. East India Company's army, Chief Translator of the native language in the provinces of Malabar. In the war with Tippoo Sultan he was selected by General Stewart as Aide-de-Camp, in which capacity he acted during the campaign, and at the siege of Seringapatam.

Major-General Service.
Major-General I
Major-General A
Lieut.-Colonel F
Lieutenant-Colo
Service.
James Nugent D
Major Shadwell
Archibald Hair,
Captain Melville
Captain John Sh
Captain William
William Chard,
James Patch, Es
PHYSICIAN.—J.
General of Hospita
SECRETARY.—JO
F.R.S.L.
ACTUARY.—J.F.
culator.
MEDICAL REFERE
M.R.C.S.I., 48, G
Esq. M.D. M.R.C.S
Prospectuses and on application to th
AGE
Will

September 21.

UNITE
Life Assu
8. WATERLOO P
THE first Septe Company will all Policies of the P
to the 31st Decemb
wish to insure their
the opportunity the
so soon to be decla
posals. 30

Belfast, Thomas
Cork, Messrs. T.
Dundalk, Alexan
Dublin, Mr. Ald
Listowell, Edmo
Newry, James W
Tralee, Daniel S
Esq. Solicit

Willia
LAND AGENT, I