

BE ATTAINED.

Ages	Sixty-five.			Seventy.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
1	2	2	4	2	0	0
0	2	15	2	2	10	6
0	4	0	3	3	9	7
0	7	8	1	5	12	2

aged 20, by paying an annua es entitled to £100, on his or to the same sum should he at age.

WARD LENNOX BOYD, ENTS:—

Cannon, Esq. King-street.
 ington & Co.
 Maclean, Esq. Claremont.
 an Hyndman.
 Harnett, Esq. Stamp Office.
 ms, Esq. Stamp Office.
 le, jun. Esq. and J. W. Neligan

LIMERICK.

Henry Hall,
NCIS-STREET, LIMERICK.
 March 25.

TRIP SHIP FOR

ERICA.

ISH-BUILT, OAK SHIP,

ETIS,

THEN, PER REGISTER,

ugill, Master.

or QUEBEC, about the 20th and weather permitting.)

essel is likely to be the last that becom his Spring, and as she has er numerous trips across the well calculated for the Passen-t especially for that purpose) will find that she affords every an conduce to comfort during also commanded by a Captain attention to his passengers has, general satisfaction. Plenty of e laid in for the voyage toge-ance of Provisions, such as plied to the Passengers by the ent.

ion is recommended to the PAIGHT, Esq. at his Offices, enry-street, where every inforen to benefit and direct the Messrs. MULLOCK & SONS, street.

Mr. THOMAS G. HILL, of RY BENNER, of Tralee; for ALLORAN, of Ennis, and for EWIS, of that town.

April 15.

of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy in the University of the King's College, Toronto, Canada, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late Edward Pilkington, Esq. of Urney, King's County.

DEATHS.

On Easter Sunday, at Gort, Capt. J. Barnes, Barrack-master of that district.
 On Easter Monday last, at his house in Nicholas-street, Mr.
 Thomas Jackson, retired Officer of Customs—an honest, worthy man.
 At his seat, Little Island, county Cork, Phineas Bury, Esq.
 At his residence, Busby Park, county Tipperary, Thomas Towers, Esq. at an advanced age.
 In Nile-street, Cork, Elizabeth, relict of the late Thomas Austen, of Waterfall, Esq.
 On Monday, of brain fever, aged six years, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted parent, Charlotte Anastasia, second daughter of the late Paul Erson, of Rock-view, Askeaton, Esq. She was a most endearing and interesting child.
 Mrs. Corcoran, mother of Town Councillor Corcoran, Clonmel, and Rev. Mr. Corcoran, P. P. Cappawhite.
 At Tempemore, Robert Jasper Baillie, son of Capt. Campbell, 46th Regt.
 At Ballywalter, county Wexford, Peter Taylor, Esq. aged 79.
 At Mount Pleasant, near Omagh, the Rev. Claudius Crigan, many years a magistrate of the county Tyrone.
 Mr. P. Conway, Clonmel.
 The Rev. John Doyle, R. C. Curate of St. James's, Dublin.
 Aged 72, Anne, daughter of the late Joseph Boardman, of Cork-street, and widow of Samuel Jackson, of Cork-street, cotton manufacturer.
 In Tuam, at an advanced age, Mr. Thomas Hicks.
 At his residence, Lisanskeea, Blackrock, T. O'Mara, Esq.
 Patrick Hanly, Esq. Athlone, Solicitor.
 At Rutland-square, Susan, only daughter of the late George Dunne, Esq. of Hoiles-street, Dublin.
 Of apoplexy, the Rev. Mr. Whiteside, Presbyterian Minister, Coleraine.
 At Fitzgibbon-street, James William, second son of Major Cottingham.
 At Southampton, Jane, relict of Ralph Smyth, Esq. of Glenanea, county Westmeath.
 At Northampton, Thomas West, Esq. late of Copthall-court, London.
 At Leamington, the Hon. Mrs. Ozilvy.
 At Hastings, Anne, daughter of Dr. John Clark, K.H. Deputy-Inspector-General of Army Hospitals.
 At Widey Court, Devonshire, Mary Frances, wife of Major Baker, 7th Fusileers.
 At Aliesley, near Coventry, William, only son of the Rev. W.
 S. Burgess.
 Aged 82, Mr. G. P. Day, the well-known newsmen of Liverpool.
 At Greenock, Mr. James Somerville, aged 62.
 At his residence, Horsley, Wolverhampton, J. Crowley, Esq.
 At St. Petersburg, Baron Stieglitz, the rich banker.
 At the Elms, near Lymington, Colonel John Shedden.
 At Alloa, Elizabeth Walker, wife of Mr. Ballantine, of Excise.
 At his residence, Dumfries, Roger Kilpatrick, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, Mrs. Hastie, housekeeper, Hamilton Palace.
 At Balham-hill, Surrey, G. Bankes, Esq.
 At the Isle of Man, Major-General Charles Younghusband, Royal Artillery.
 At Ashbocking, Suffolk, Caroline, daughter of the late Captain Bloomfield, of Hawleigh.
 Mr. Jabez Bunting, son of the Rev. Dr. Bunting, Wesleyan Minister.
 At Paris House, Pertshire, Jane, wife of Arthur Barclay, Esq. and daughter of the late Hugh Hay, Esq. of Paris.
 At Glasgow, Mr. John Ballantyne, wine and spirit merchant.
 Suddenly, Matilda, wife of James Crichton, Esq. M.D. Colonial Surgeon, Perth, Western Australia.
 At Paris, Harriet, widow of Lieut.-Colonel R. Campbell, Assistant-Quartermaster-General, Guernsey.
 At Erinpoora, Bengal, Captain D. T. Pollock, of the 74th Native Infantry.
 At Lower Giamire Road, Cork, John O'Connell, Esq.
 At Merchants'-quay, Mr. John Wright, aged 76 years.
 At his house in Essex-street, Mr. William Coghlan, Printer.
 In Dublin, Harriet, relict of Captain Thompson, late of the 65th Regt.
 At Belfast, aged 82, Margaret, widow of Joseph Stevens, Esq.
 At Torquay, the Hon. Emily Sarah Trench.
 In Avenue-road, Regent's-park, Ellen Palmer, daughter of Captain Brabazon Higgins.

April 15.

NAVAL East India
Assure
OFFICES, 13, WA
Pa
 Her Most Gra
 Lieut.-Col. Sir Fr
 neers, Chairman.
 Col. Sir Wm. Go
 gineers, Deputy Cha
 Admiral the Rt. H
 B., M. P., Major G Admiralty.
 Major General Si
 Admiral Sir Charl
 General Sir Thom
 Major General
 K.C.H.
 Lieut.-Gen. Sir I
 Inspector-General
 Lieut.-Gen. Sir J
 Major-General S
 Adjutant-General.
 Major-Gen. Sir J
 Company's Service.
 Major-General T
 Service.
 Major-General C
 Service.
 Major-General E
 Major-General A
 Lieut.-Colonel H
 Lieutenant-Colon
 Service.
 James Nugent D
 Major Shadwell
 Archibald Hair,
 Captain Melville
 Captain John Sn
 Captain William
 William Chard,
 James Patch, Es
 PHYSICIAN.—J.
 General of Hospita
 SECRETARY.—J
 F.R.S.L.
 ACTUARY.—J. F
 culator.
 MEDICAL REFE
 M.R.C.S.I., 48, C
 Esq. M.D. M.R.C.
 Prospectuses an on application to t AG
 Wil
 September 21.