

audience left
portance of the port its claims delivered the
a dense and
ced an expo-
brain to the fects which its e skull. This y reference to
fect of the dis-enlarging and kable specimen
died at Bar-Dr. Geary, who g instanced the
to prove that tellect bore a
of the head
he read from racter of Daniel
t were remark-est head of any ng advances in he characters of day bear a strict
es of their heads.
d casts to illus-
ration. Mr. Ry-
Monday evening
n to-morrow eve-
onomy and natu-
ogen microscope,
eir children.

K CHRONICLE.
h April, 1843.
e 20th inst. to one of the old
e. I found him
pon a pallet of se hardly to be ve debility, from
give any rational informed me that ra, they believed previous evening
ost lifeless. They pplication at the
efused admission.
ong to this union.
ry poor, paid him
some charitable
of Mercy, visited
all their attention
l until yesterday,
ernoon.
is fact before the y thing, that in which the law
te, that a fellow-
e from pure want.
the country into
the exclusion of a what quarter he servant,
BEVERIDGE.

At Munich, Count Fischler Von Treuberg, to Donna Isabella, Duchess of Goza, a daughter of Doa Pedro, late Emperor of the Brazils.

DEATHS.

- On Thursday night, at Castleconnell, in advanced age, after a very short illness, Thomas Harding, Esq. M.D. formerly one of the most eminent professional gentlemen in the South of Ireland, and at the head of medical practice in this city. He was high-minded, strictly honourable in all his transactions, and munificent in his private charities.
- Yesterday, after a short illness, at Adare, George William Langford, Esq. M.D. sincerely regretted by a numerous circle of relatives and acquaintances, who appreciated his sterling worth as a friend, and admired the uprightness and integrity of his character.
- On the 27th inst. at Rosshill, county Clare, Henry Rosslewin, Esq. a Major in the army, and a Magistrate for the county of Clare. He was present at eleven general actions and sieges, and was wounded in the last and decisive attack on Clausel's position at the battle of Salamanca.
- At Bird-hill, on Thursday last, after a protracted illness, which he endured with christian resignation, William, second son of C. Keayes, Esq. regretted by his family and numerous friends.
- At Tarbert, Edward, second son of Richard Leslie, Esq. aged 4 years.
- At Coolnafeesha, Pallasgreen, deeply and sincerely regretted by his family and friends, Mr. John Toby Ryan.
- At Marybrook, the residence of her brother, E. H. Riordan, Esq. Julia, relict of the late James Ellis Knight, Esq. formerly of Cork.
- At Janeville, the residence of her brother, Winthrop B. Sealy, Esq. Anna Maria, daughter of the late Robert Sealy, Esq. of Barleyfield, Cork.
- At Eglisli Glebe, county of Tipperary, Thomas, son of the Rev. John Exshaw.
- At Newtown Mountkennedy, James Mitchell, Esq. M.D.
- Mr. Staveley, of York-street, Belfast.
- At Westport, in the 87th year of her age, Catherine, relict of James Madden, of Mosabrook, county Mayo, Esq. J. P. and sister of the late Michael George Prendergast, Esq. M. P.
- At Cheltenham, Anne, relict of Humphrey Hartley, of Fitzwilliam-square, Esq.
- Sir Josiah Coghill Coghill, Bart. (formerly Captain John Cramer,) Rear Admiral of the Blue, youngest son of a gentleman who assumed the name of Coghill, pursuant to the desire of Hester, Dowager Countess of Charleville, grand-daughter of Tobias Cramer, in Ireland, in 1639.
- At Grenada, Mrs. Anna Maria Townsend.
- At Hickleton, near Doncaster, S. F. Wood, Esq. son of Sir F. L. Wood.
- Jane, wife of Mr. Francis Hobler, jun. of Bucklersbury, Mansion House.
- Drowned, on his passage from Portsmouth to Sheerness, Frederick Rich, merchant, R.N. son of Sir G. Rich, Lowndes-street, Belgrave-square.
- At Brighton, Samuel Jellicoe, Esq. in his 95th year.
- Frederic William, son of the Hon. Mr. Justice Coleridge.
- At Willersley, Derbyshire, Richard Arkwright, Esq. aged 87.
- At Norwood, Major William Locker, late of the 8th Light Dragoons, eldest son of the late William Locker, Esq. Lieut.-Governor of Greenwich Hospital.
- At Edinburgh, Captain Richard Hussey Charles Moubray, of the 1st Madras Native Cavalry.
- At Oldwood, Anne, wife of Robert Rogers, Esq.
- Sir Robert Williams Vaughan, who had represented a Welsh county for half-a-century.
- At Burn-side, Airdrie, Aitcheson Alexander Mack, Esq. Writer to the Signet.
- At Garnethill, Alexander Gray, Esq. Manager of the Clyde Marine Insurance Company.
- At Selkirk, H. B. Stains, sen. Esq. of the late firm of Messrs. Hamilton, Monteath, & Co. wine merchants, Glasgow.
- At Rome, Cardinal Giustiniani.
- Rev. M. Maguin, of Saint-Germain l'Auxerrois—the same who found means, in 1793, to penetrate into the dungeon of Queen Marie Antoinette, and administered to the illustrious prisoner the consolations of religion.
- The Abbe Seguin, sen or of the clergy of the church of St. Sulpice, Paris, at the age of 95.
- At Paris, James Hennessy, Esq. of Cognac, for many years Representative of that district in the Chamber of Deputies, aged 77.
- At Naples, George Turnour, Esq. eldest son of the late Hon. George Turnour, formerly Treasurer of Ceylon.
- At the Glasgow University, Thomas, son of Dr. Godfrey, of Beechmount, county Cork.
- In Hatch-street, James Lyne, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
- At Bute House, the infant daughter of Lord Dinorben.
- At St. Kitts, of yellow fever, soon after his arrival from England, Major John Gordon, (1st) 47th Regt. eldest son of Major Gordon, formerly of the 2d, or Queen's Royal Regt.

Company an amount of security no
similar Establishment in the Kingd
Losses paid without any d
AGENT AT LIM
WILLIAM
Chambo
April 29.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners for the Im
Navigation of the River Sha
Notice, that they are ready to re completing the removal of the Sho O'Brien's Bridge, in the County of Specifications for which may be see mation supplied, on application to t
neer, at Killaloe, or at the Commis Dublin.

Security for the due performan
will be required.
The Commissioners do not bir
accept the lowest or any Tender.
Sealed Tenders addressed to the non Commission Office, Dublin, to or before SATURDAY, the 13th day which day and hour none will be re
By Order,
EDWAR

Shannon Commission Office,
Custom-House, Dublin, 28th

Bruff Dispens

THE ANNUAL GENERAL M
Subscribers to the BRUFF D
be held at the Dispensary House, E on MONDAY, the 1st of May, auditing the ~~Treasurer's~~ account for doing other business connected with
By order,
W. N. RIGG

Bruff, April 28.

AUCTION

At Hartstonge-
ON THE 2nd OF

JAMES MARSHALL will Sell TUESDAY, the 2d of MAY,
No. 8, Hartstonge-street, a quan
fashionable Furniture, which have within a very short time from one o able Manufacturers, and consequen preservation. They comprise:— Modern Drawing Room Chairs
Parlour Chairs, handsome solid C Loungers, Two superb Rosewood C
sells Carpet, Kidderminster do. Mo
New Scarlet Damask Curtains, Pie
Ornaments, Sideboard, Dinner an Fender and Irons, Bedsteads, Fe
tresses, Bedding, Childrens' Bec Tables and Basin Stands, Large I and Harness, Binns, Water Barrels
quantity of Tools, Kitchen Requi Glass, &c.

Sale at 12 o'Clock. One