of which was disputed by the Commissioners of St. Michael's parish, but the Court adjourned without making any decision.

With reference to the proposed consolidation of the respective managements of St. Michael's Parish and the municipal body in this City, a letter has been received by the Commissioners of St. Michael from John O'Brien, Esq. M.P. stating that Lord Eliot has declined introducing into the Municipal Amendment Bill any provisions affecting the local government of this City, which he intimates to the Town Council's memorial for that purpose is more properly the subject of a private Act of Parliament.

The vacancy in the Adare Dispensary and Infirmary will be filled by Doctor William Fitz-Gerald, a young gentleman whose very superior medical attainments we had the pleasure of adverting to, on his appointment to the Lying-in Hospital, in this City.

A most melancholy occurrence took place at Baltard, on Thursday when Miss M'Nevin, daughter of Lieut. M'Nevin, of the Coast Guards, to went bathe, a wave dashed against her with such violence that she was thrown down, and before she could recover herself she was dragged out to sea by the reflux, and drowned. Miss M'Nevin was a very interesting young lady, and about 16 years of age.

As Master French, eldest son of Mr. R. French, was taking an airing at Ross, Wexford, for the benefit of his health, he accidentally fell off the car, and was carried home by the servant who attended him; he was shortly after taken with convulsions and expired.

The body of the man found drowned in Ballinacurra creek, on Wednesday, as stated in the CHRONICLE, was next morning identified as that of Mr. Richard Mahony, a Printer of this City, who had been missing from his residence since last Christmas. Deceased was about 23 years of age.
