

the no small amusement of the lovers of Doctor Bindon, of the Moneygall was the person operated on; Mr. Elias the 'whip hand.' Thomas Brereton, Esq.
immediately placed both parties under arrest.
e, winner of the 2,000 guinea stakes at his first favourite for the Derby.

appeared in part of our last impression :
orning of her Majesty's confinement a nger arrived at Brocket Hall, the seat of bourne, with a despatch from His Royal ince Albert, announcing the gratifying
f her Majesty's safety.

of the Royal Yacht Club who intend to mmer in England, propose to attend her er progress across St. George's Channel, o Ireland.

meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary eld this morning in the large room of which was densely crowded. In conse-
e death of his brother, Sir George Rose, n announced to take the chair, was end, and in his stead Mr. Plumptre, d over the meeting. The report stated al receipts for the year amounted to the annual expenditure to 100,633*l*. To ciency, there was a surplus income for 32*l*. A debt of 30,000*l*. incurred in the
of the Society's operations in 1838, 40, had been reduced to half the amoun.
contributions, including a donation of Isaac Crowther, Esq. of Yorkshire were passed, and powerful addresses reference to the objects of the society ects in different parts of the world.

from Lisbon again unsettles the wine ere was a disposition on the part of the overnment to re-open the negotiations.
ive fire broke out on the 22nd ult. in a building called the Collegio dos Nobres, Jesuits' College, and latterly the Polyool at Lisbon. A boat's crew from her p Vanguard, and another from the French
he Suffren, were present, but the greater uilding was destroyed. One of the French is life on the occasion.

ters of the late R. O. Gascoigne, Esq.
ly his Irish and other estates, but also estates enjoyed by him under the will r Thomas Gascoigne, Bt.—York Courant.
e been rumours for some days respecting of Magistrates who have taken part in
ngs. It is said that last night superse- sent down to a number of gentlemen Commission of the Peace. One rumour mber 12—another 17.—Evening Post,

Earlswood Lodge, Surrey.

Lieut. F. T. le Touzel, Cape Mounted Riflemen, to Silvestra Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Thomas Gybbon Money Penny, Esq. of Hole House, Rolvenden, Kent.

At the Town Church of St. Helier's, by the Very Rev. the Dean, Mr. D. J. Fitzpatrick, Surveyor, to Miss A. C. West.

At Charlton, Commander George Cheyne, R.N. to Maria, daughter of the late Tobias John Young, Esq. of Southampton.

At Paddington Church, John Michael Edward Roche, Esq. M.D. eldest son of John Roche, Esq. of Rotterdam, to Victorine Louise, widow of George Lyon, Esq. late of Marseilles.

DEATHS.

At Loughil, in this county, the residence of her nephew, the Rev. Mr. Studdart, Mrs. Agnes Fitzmaurice, mother of Maurice Fitzmaurice, Esq. of Duagh, Kerry, at the advanced age of 95.

At his father's residence, Correally, county Westmeath, Thomas O'Brien, Esq. late of Oporto, wine-merchant.

At the residence of his mother, Old Dominick-street, Thomas Jones Walsh, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At Castlepollard, James, second son of the late James Ryan, Esq. of Blessington-street.

At Derryhoyle, county Galway, Constantine O'Hara, Esq. Solicitor.

At Golden-bridge, William, eldest son of Captain Nowlan.

At his residence, Mountpleasant, co. Mayo, George Mahon, Esq. who filled a confidential post in the Customs Department.

At Comber, county Down, William Allen, Esq. Solicitor.

In Dorset-street, Monica, wife of R. Cornwallis Anketell, Esq. Honoria, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Garret Cussen, 'Pralce.

In Carlow, Margaret, wife of Mr. William Fitzsimons.

At Cheltenham, Georgina, daughter of the late George West, Esq. of Cranlaghmore, county Longford.

In Edinburgh, Mary, sister of Thomas Campbell, Esq. author of the "Pleasures of Hope"

On the 1st of May, the Rev. John Gibbons, Rector of Brasted, Kent, in his 90th year

At Ludlow, in his 76th year, the Rev. John Dyer, a descendant of the poet Dyer, of Aberglessney, Carmarthenshire.

At Hythe, Kent, Captain E. B. Patten, Royal Engineers.

At Lauriston, William Wallace, L.L.D. Emeritus Professor of Mathematics in the University of Edinburgh.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, John Anderson, Esq. formerly Captain in the 89th Regt.

At Carlton-place, Glasgow, Robert Jarvie, Esq. merchant.

At Edinburgh, Louisa Clementina, daughter of Major Norman Pringle.

At Ayr, Andrew Gemmell, Esq. of Langlands, in his 86th year.

At Brighton, William S. Rose, Esq. youngest son of the late Right Hon. Sir George Rose, M.P.

Wednesday last, aged 12 years, of a painful and lingering illness, Thomasina Henrietta, second daughter of John Waller O'Grady, Esq. of Fort Etna.

At his residence, Summerville, Nenagh, Peter Holmes, Esq. jun. D.L.

At Merrion-avenue, Jane, relict of James Burne, Esq. formerly of this city, eldest daughter of Peter Roe, Esq. and sister of the Lord Mayor.

In Denmark-street, Ellen, widow of the late Mr. Michael O'Connor.

At Mountpleasant-square, Florence, eldest daughter of the late Henry Cole, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and one of the Magistrates of the city of Dublin.

At Merrion-street, Michael Harris, aged 84 years.

At Stephen's-green, at an advanced age, Jane, relict of the late Richard Espinasse, Esq. of Kill Abbey, county Dublin.

At her father's residence, Lower Gardiner-street, Martha, wife of John Hoysted, jun. Esq.

At Upper Rutland-street, Letitia, wife of Neal Davis, Esq.

Mrs. Keogh, of Monck-place, Phibshorough.

At West Tofts, near Brandon, Suffolk, Daniel Sewell, Esq.

The Rev. N. Bernel, Rector of St. Saviour, Guernsey, in the 74th year of his age.

At his residence, Richmond, Surrey, at an advanced age, the Hon. Sir Edmond Stanley, for many years Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Madras.

W 19
W
WIL
N

nity, for from the
by a strict ance of t
not yet fa
having a
FIRST H
a perfect
in the st
he feels prices wi
combinin
economy,
making t

2
F
of t
as late in
Mr. Will Applica
Fort Hen
levers, E
ville, Cro

2
I
HER Credi
as I am r tract, be irregular

Witnes

Ado

THE S
that at the no
purpose
All Subsc
or before

May 6