

although it may be Chancellor!

be of opinion that in the spirit of the ion itself recognises, right so to petition? coming dangerous to er to the state would the groans of the brood in silence over ings; and a more le exist not under the Irish people. ld consist in sup- lar opinion in dam- hannels of relief; ple to the wild and stead of leaving them the houses of Parlia- to the argument used with respect to the ending meetings, to etrically the opposite ld possibly have so n preventing violence trates who are parties ling together of such

on that her Majesty essed her determina- of the Repeal of the most utter and inex- st know—and indeed own when you made erly unfounded; in admitted the falsity y, whom the people has made no such say it enhances the or that he has per- er the sanction of his urious to her Majesty, irself to expose her (at were possible) of ople of Ireland.

graph of your letter, nd conciliation of the desire to improve the prosperity of Ireland, it ible faculties of every the indignant sorrow ou should venture to a specimen of such

, your most obedient

EL O'CONNELL.

favorite horse of the isoned in the stables

At Pierrepont-place, Bath, William Whiteinan, Esq. of North Kilworth, Leicestershire, to Charlotte, daughter of Admiral Dobson.

At Lambeth, John George Lear, Esq. of Ceylon, to Sophia, daughter of the late T. Norton, Esq. Surgeon to the Forces.

At St. George's, Hanover-square James Boote, Esq. to Maria, widow of the late Captain Robert Grace, Royal Marines.

James Glover, Esq. Edinburgh, to Katharine, daughter of the late William Scott, Esq. brewer, Leith.

The Rev. Patrick Hay, to Kate, daughter of Moses Dill, Esq. of Springfield House, county Denegal.

In the Church of Ballimore, N. W. Heath, Esq. to Johanna, Lyle, daughter of the late Thomas Huddleston, Esq. of Dublin.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, R. C. Mellish, Esq. of the Foreign Office, to Mary, only child of Lady Blunt.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at his brother's residence, Sunville, in this County, in the prime of life, and to the deep regret of his relatives, friends, and acquaintance, James Kearney, Esq.

At Grand Parade, Cork, Michael Foley M'Namara, Esq. of Macroom, Solicitor.

William Richardson, Esq. of Crumlin, county Dublin.

At his house in Upper Merrion-street, Jonas Morris Townsend, Esq. of Shepperton, county Cork.

In Lower Gardiner-street, Abraham Pilkington, formerly Capt. in the 92d Highlanders, and late Captain 2d Life Guards, one of the survivors of Waterloo.

On the 9th of May last, off Madeira, on his passage to the Honduras, Edward Sheil, Esq. deeply lamented by his family and friends.

At his residence, Poplar Lodge, Sandymount, Mr. Martin Brett, pocket-book manufacturer.

At Tullamoore, the wife of Doctor Wallace, J. P. Staff Surgeon.

At Threadstown, Maynooth, at the advanced age of 90 years, James Fagan, Esq.

At Ballymena, Dr. Beattie.

At the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, Elizabeth, wife of Lieut.-Col. Le Blanc, and mother of Capt. Le Blanc, 37th Regt.

At Eaton-square, Charles John, son of Captain and Lady Jane Swinburne

At her house in Harley-street, Mary Lady Petre, relict of Robert Edward, 10th Lord Petre, and sister to the late Duke of Norfolk.

At Conock-manoor-house, near Devins, Major-General C. S. Fagan, of the Bengal Army.

Mr. Edward Howe, office-keeper to the Board of Trade

At Brompton-square, Ann, wife of Sir James Wellwood Moncrieff, Bart.

Martha Prescott, daughter of the late John Watson, Esq. of Doctors' Commons.

At Leamington, Anna Mary, eldest daughter of John Ireland Blackburne, Esq. M. P.

At Kirkintilloch, the Rev. Adam Foreman, Minister of that parish, aged 83.

At Wantage, Berks, Mr. John Davis, Superintendent of the Religious Tract Society.

At Patrick Hill, near Glasgow, Alexander Wood, Esq.

At Montreal, Lawrence Kidd, Esq.

On passage from Port Philip to England, the Rev. Joseph Orton, Superintendent of the Wesleyan Missions in Australia

At Odelltown, Canada, Lieut.-Col. Lewis Odell, a devoted adherent of the loyal cause in the late insurrection.

At St. Renie, Upper Canada, Mr. Bartholomew O'Brien, sen. a native of Clonmel.

At Kingstown, Capt. Herchmer, well known on the Canadian lakes.

In Montreal, Mrs. Elizabeth Connell, widow of the late Mr. Richard Connell, aged 75 years; also John, son of Mr. Michael O'Meara.

At Diamond Harbour, Canada, Mr. Burnet M'Hugh, of Tyrone.

At Mussoorie, Archibald Mackean, Esq. F. I. C. S.

At Caher, at an advanced age, Henry Hughes, Esq.

At Bray, Henry Vincent Jackson, Esq.

Suddenly, the daughter of Aquilla Smith, Esq. M. D. Lower Baggot-street.

Drowned, in the Ringsend Docks, Grand Canal-street, John Thomas, only son of Mr. William Stack Eagerty, Denzille-street.

In Clonmel, Miss Margaret Keller.

Mary, daughter of Terence Lalor, Esq. of Clonmel.

At his residence, Rutland-square, Alexander Montgomery, Esq.

Mr. Lott Halloran for Ennis for Cloughjordan, and Burri

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY LEECH, AND ALFRED THE JUNE NUMBER, Bentley's

Conta THE ADVENTURES OF HIS FRIEND JAMES By ALBERT S WITH AN ILLUSTR CHAPTER XXXII.—Ledb friends patronise the illeg CHAPTER XXXIII.—Mrs. conversazione of talented CHAPTER XXXIV.—Mr. acquaintance behind the CHAPTER XXXV.—The E Knooks and Erebus. By Albany Poyntz. The Genuine Remains of William Little. By Paul Pindar. Burning of a Roca. By Ben Bunting.

THE GAOL C OR, A DARK PAGE FROM Prison Gloom—Poyntzbury "Sell and Fell"—"The S Hearts—Black Cattle—The Victor Vanquished The Exile of Louisiana. With an Illustration by George Cruikshank. The Mother on the Anniversary of her Child's death. By Wm. Jones. ORIGINAL LETTERS London: RICHARD B street. * * * Agent for Ireland, J

In the Court of Insolvent In the matter of Samuel H an Insolvent.

vent are required to take no the Assignee, will on MON June next, at his Office, F in the City of Dublin, at th the afternoon, proceed to Sums received by the Assign in his hands. Dated this JOHN HUNT, Attorney fo rington-street, Dublin.