

Lieut.-Colonel Garrett, 46th from Athlone, with parties of the 3d Dragoon Guards, and 27th Regiment, were the two last days detached to Mohill, county Leitrim, where the Fair toll was refused to be paid.

The remaining troops of the 12th Lancers in this country, are ordered to England immediately. They have lost a number of horses, it is said by glanders.

THE WINDSOR CASTLE.—The Commission in the case of the Kibaha pilots for salvage against this vessel, has been sitting for the week at Kilrush. The first witness, James Hanrahan, who boarded the Windsor first, was under examination day after day. The two light keepers at Loop Head were then examined; also, Anthony M'Mahon, and D. Melcarr, who are still under examination. It is thought the case on the part of the pilots will not close before Tuesday next; and then the defence on the part of the ship will be entered on. Mr. Richardson is attending on the part of the pilots, and Mr. Hamilton for the ship.

Mr. Montgomery, the Secretary to the Dublin Grand Jury, died in Rutland Square on Tuesday.

Several Benchers dined at the Kings Inn on Monday, to compliment J. S. Furlong, Esq. Q.C., on his elevation.

THEATRE.—Everything that can be effected by taste, industry, and expense, on the part of the Manager, and the most strenuous and untiring exertions by the talented company, is called into action for the purpose of making this establishment worthy the support given it, since its opening, by the patrons of the drama in Limerick. Mr. Gardiner has made such arrangements for the production of novelty as must ensure his continued success; and his having added, since the opening of the Theatre, three gentlemen of high standing on the boards, to the strength of the company, whereby he is enabled to represent the legitimate drama in a manner unknown for years in this city, speaks his anxiety as a caterer for the intellectual appetite of our citizens.
