DEATHS.

At Fort Royal, Jamaica, on the 27th of April, Lieut. Poole Gubbins, R.N. of H.M.S. Scylla, youngest brother of James Gubbins, Esq. of Kenmare Castle, in this County. This young officer was but two days ill, and his untimely fate was universally regretted by the officers and seamen on that station, and is a source of deep affliction to his many and highly respectable relatives and friends in this country. The Scylla has arrived at Cove, and had he withstood the climate but a few days longer, he would have had the good fortune of again seeing his native land.

On the 22d instant, at Ballyconry, sincerely regretted, the Hon. Catherine Jane, second daughter of General Massey, first Lord Clarina, aunt of the present Lord Clarina, and relict of the late John Stack, Esq. of Ballyconry, county Kerry.

On Wednesday, at his residence, George's-street, after a few day's illness, aged 35, Richard Baker, Esq. Solicitor.

On Wednesday, at Johnstown Glebe, in the prime of life, to
