

of all denominations. al affection and regard nans, in the admirable linane to the excellent arish, whose deserved he people of that dis- with great pleasure by eputation of the Pro- he costly and highl- Wren was subscribed eral of the gentry of nission to unite with the expression of their lar clergyman. The follows:—"Presented by the parishioners as a token of their rivate character, and performance of his dependent Minister of e Chapel, Tralee, on that Chaplains are to istrict lunatic asylums the Bishop of London vernment to put down e shall shortly hear as well as Magistrates. rided at Lynn to erect d to the vacant parish Paterson, who has for usefully and accepta- the wynds and lanes 7. Mellery, is danger- ranciscan Friars of Ire- this week, which the Bergin, and Rev. Mr. , in Henry-street, have own as Father Prout, ere he will succeed the Theological College in owldges the receipt of e funds of the Church cese of Killaloe, and Treasurer:—From the rry, £1, and 10s. col- 2s. 10d. the proceeds town-arra, by the Rev. ciety's funds. P.P. of Kilfinny, for- on yesterday, the sum idation are daily prac- of Carlow, to prevent give evidence at the Headfort, Co. Galway, the return of R. J. M. absence in England.

Dr. Chalmers has resigned the Professorship of Divinity in the Edinburgh University, Dr. Hahnemann, the founder of homoeopathy, died in Paris on Sunday, aged 88. Mr. Grant, who acted as second in the late fatal duel, is not the Hon. Lewis Grant of the Royal Horse Guards. In commemoration of her Majesty's birth day, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant gave yesterday evening a fete champetre on a scale of great magnificence on the lawn at the Viceregal Lodge, Phoenix Park, in an elegant and spacious marquee erected for the purpose. The Irish Catholic oaths abolition bill received the Royal assent on Wednesday last. Mr. E. B. Roche, M.P. has at last sailed to attend his parliamentary duties. The Kildare Grand Jury will be sworn on Tuesday next at Athy, before John La Touche, Esq. High Sheriff. Mr. Sergeant Warren goes the Leinster circuit—he is accompanied by Mr. Edward Wight Seymour, as his Register. Sir Benjamin Morris, D. L. is superseded in the commission of the peace for Waterford Jacob, the White Quaker, was yesterday brought up by the gaoler, before Mr. Litton, in hope of inducing him to hand over the £4000, of which he is possessed; he however persists in retaining it for religious purposes, and has returned to durance vile. Her Majesty has been pleased to confer upon our gallant countryman, Lieut.-Colonel Pennefather, 22d, the decoration of a Companion of the Military Order of the Bath, for his distinguished services at Hyderabad, under Major-General Sir Charles J. Napier. Nineteen Field Officers of the East India Company's Service, have received the decoration of C. B. Naas Barracks has been fortified by order of government; upwards of 40 loop holes have been made in different parts of the wall that surrounds the Barrack, and a fortification has been erected outside the front gate, composed of strong wooden posts, and a wall of sand bags breast high; iron spikes are affixed to each post; and on the right hand side of the gate is a large iron barrier, known in military parlance as a chevaux de frise. The Irish Mining Company have just declared 12½ on each share. At an ordination holden by the Bishop of Ripon on Sunday, the following were ordained:—Deacons—John Robinson, B. A. Trinity College Dublin; William Kelly, B. A. and John Mackintosh, B. A. Trinity College. Dublin. J. Swete, D. D. Trinity College, Dublin, has been admitted B. A. ad eundem of Cambridge. On Wednesday, a countryman tried to get into our barracks, but was prevented by the sentry, who told him he could not pass, the country fellow turning round remarked "I know that fellow (the sentinel) and I'll soon have a shot at him!"—Tipperary Consti tution. Last week Mr. M. Cletchie, an eminent agriculturist, engaged for some time in draining part of the Marquis of Lansdowne's estate in the Queen's county, recieved a threatening notice through the Stradhally post office, ordering him "to quit the country within four days or he would be shot as dead as a dog, in the noon day light."

At Trinity Church, Dublin, on Sunday, the 27th inst. Egerton, Esq. Captain 99th Regt. son of the late Rev. Sir Philip Grey Egerton, Bart. to Margaret, daughter of Alexander Cumming, Esq.

DEATHS

On Monday, at Furry Park, near Dublin, the residence of his son, Thomas Bushe, Esq. the Right Hon. Charles Kendal Bushe, of Kilmurry, county Kilkenny. He was elected a member in 1805, and filled the office of Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench for many years; he was an orator and statesman, and perhaps never had his equal for varied acquirements and literary knowledge and taste. So recently as Friday he was in the enjoyment of as good health as he has had for some time, or since his retirement from the bench. A sudden suffusion on the brain was the immediate cause of the death of this truly great and good man.

At an early age, of consumption, William, fourth son of William Parsons, Esq. Governor of the Carlow Lunatic Asylum. Of brain fever, at his mother's house, Percy-place, Michael Head Burgoyne, Esq. son of the late Sir John James Burgoyne, Strabane, county Tyrone.

At Ballycurry, county Wicklow, Charles Tottenham, Esq.

At Westport, county Mayo, George Clendenning, Esq.

At his son's residence, Ballygar House, county Galway, Frederick M'Clelland, Esq. of Longford, aged 85.

At Cornahowel, county Fermanagh, John Nixon, Esq.

At Phibeorough, Samuel Burton, Esq.

Euphemia, relict of the late Lieut. Conyngham O'Gilvie.

Of hooping cough, Rebecca Emily, aged three years, and on the following month, Maria, aged five years, the beloved children of Mr. J. G. Wilson.

At Windsor-terrace, Kingstown, Mary, the beloved wife of Robert Hitchcock, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

In the 85th year of her age, Sarah Abbott, of the Society of Friends.

Suddenly, at Bristol, Doctor Barnes, R.C. Bishop.

At Barham House, East Hoathley, Sussex, William Hart, Esq.

At Scoutbush, of rapid consumption, Maria, wife of the Rev. Edward Bruce, and daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Head, 7th Dragoon Guards.

At Paisley, Thomas, son of Mr. Robert Hunter, Bank of Scotland.

At Hermes Cottage, Valley of St. Lawrence, Jersey, Frances Griffiths, only daughter of Thomas Harral, Esq.

At Gifford Vales, Haddington, Mr. William Martin, Surgeon, Royal Navy.

At Clifton, Ann, eldest and last surviving sister of the late Admiral Sir W. Hargood, G.C.B. and G.C.H.

In Montagu-square, aged 73, John Reade, Esq. of Holbrooke House, Suffolk.

In King-square, Mr. Lindsay, aged 67.

Frances, fourth daughter of Joseph Webster, Esq. of Sutton Colefield.

At Camden Town, Mr. T. Searson.

In his 78th year, J. K. Picard, Esq. Deputy Recorder of Hull

Mr. R. Martin, of Old Quebec-street.

At Rookland, near Torquay, Lady Ekins, wife of Admiral Sir Charles Ekins, K.C.B.

At Paris, Annie, only daughter of Major S. Parby, retired list Bengal Artillery.

On the 3d April last, at the Cape of Good Hope, Daniel, son of the late John Primrose, Esq. of Tralee, and nephew of his Excellency General Sir Maurice O'Connell, Commander of the Forces in New South Wales.

At Trinidad, Dugald Bannatyne Stark, Esq. late of Glasgow.

At Hingolee, of small pox, Maria, wife of Capt. T. V. Lysaght, 1st Bengal European Regt. and daughter of Major-General Sir Joseph O'Halloran, G.C.B.

In the Punjab, immediately after crossing the Chenaub river, Captain William White, formerly of the 11th, and subsequently of the 3d Light Dragoons.

In Dublin, the widow of Counsellor Castles.

At Sandymount, Eliza Anne, daughter of Robert Wallace, Esq. of Russell-place.

At Thurles Convent, Aane, daughter of the late John Hely, Esq. of Cappoquin.

Elizabeth, sister of John Hunt, Esq. Upper Merrion-street, aged 93 years.

The Rev. George Adam Brown, Vice-Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, acting P.G.M. of the order of Freemasons of Cambridge.

At Brighton, Lady Georgina Elizabeth Bridgeman, eldest daughter of the Earl of Bradford.

On the 3d inst. Lieut.-Colonel Fawcett, C.B. 55th Regt. aged 25 years.

At St. John's-wood, Francis Monasson, Esq. one of her Majesty's pages.

At Clapton-square, Hackney, Mrs. Sophia Griffin.

At Colombo, Maria, wife of William Newland, Esq. 90th Light Infantry.

enable them as they advance in years to advance in spiritual knowledge, in order that they may themselves perform the things which were promised in their names. If I have taken my share with the zealous and indefatigable Committees in the management of those beneficial and indispensable institutions to which you have alluded, I have only done what was my duty to do. Your valuable and handsome token of esteem and affection will be greatly enhanced by the remembrance of the motives and wishes which prompted the gift. Be assured I will feel it incumbent on me unceasingly to endeavour to merit and support your favourable opinion so kindly entertained and so generously avowed.

I am, dear and respected friends,
Yours faithfully,
GEORGE WREN.

4th July, 1843.

12 CHANCERY.

Anne Willens, Plaintiff.
Mary Tandy, and others, Defendants.

PURSUANT to the Decree of her Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland made in this cause, bearing date the 13th day of November 1826, and the order bearing date the 29th day of May, 1843, to settle Rental and Conditions of Sale—I will on SATURDAY, the 22nd day of July, 1843, at the hour of One o'Clock in the afternoon of said day at my Chambers, on the Inn's Quay, Dublin, set up and sell by Public Cant to the highest and fairest bidder, all the Defendant's estate and interest of and in All That and Those the several Town and Lands of Clonty Menagh, Red Island, Coogy Park, and Coolderagh, situate in the Parish of Enniscalthragh, and County of Clare; and of and in All that and Those the Towns and Lands of Middleline, Kilrateery, Mountshannon, Dooras, Bushy Island, Cribby Island, Cloonamerrin, Derrycun, Revouilly and Derryoran, situate in the said Parish of Enniscalthragh and County of Galway, held for lives renewable for ever, containing in the whole 3,100 Acres of the late Plantation Measure, or thereabouts, being the Defendant's, Tandy's, moiety, in severalty of the lands in the pleadings in this cause mentioned, allotted to the said Defendants by the Deed of Partition bearing date the 17th day of September, 1840, executed between them and Philip Reade, Esq.; and, also, all the Defendant's estate and interest of and in All That and Those, the Town and Lands of Balrath, situate in the Barony of Duleek and County of Meath, containing 23a. 3r. 0p. of the late Plantation measure or thereabouts. for the purposes in said Decree mentioned.

Dated this 1st day of July, 1843.

THOMAS GOOLD.

For particulars as to Statements of Titles and Rentals, apply to Messrs. PENTLAND and PITCHER, No. 2, North Frederick-street; Messrs. SMITH and GIBSON, Solicitors for the Inheritors, No. 35, Lower Ormond Quay; JAMES ROSE, Esq. Solicitor for the Receiver, MATHEW REDDAN, Esq. No. 7, Lower Erne-street, Dublin; and also to said MATHEW REDDAN, Shannon View, Scariff.

July 5.

Bath-room, Pantries, Scullery, large Kitchen with new improved ing Apparatus, supplied with a purest Spring Water. The Out the Dwelling-house, consist of Coal room, Stabling and Loose Boxes, houses and Drying Loft. &c.

A well stocked Walled-in GARD The FARM-YARD, a suitable Mansion, contains extensive Barn, for Farm-horses, Storehouse, a Piggeries, a long range of Cow-ho with new extensive Steaming App and permanently built.

The situation of the House, and must be viewed to be appreciated sumptuously planted Glen, in which Lakes connected with each other forming in itself the most delightful and commanding a view of that "Dripsey Castle," and its richly aud standing in the midst of a respectably inhabited locality.

THE LANDS are of superior quality highest state of cultivation, a large expended within the last six years valuable improvements. Irrigation on to a great extent, and at a water can be carried over the great farm, and every stream can be direct, for propelling machinery for poses of the Farm-yard.

MYSELL offers to the sports source of amusement, the Game preserved for a long period; it ab sants, Partridges, Hares, and Cock the Lakes and Rivers Dripsey abundantly stocked with fish; the gorse Fox cover in the plantation th has been drawn blank, a favour Muskerry hunt, being within a sho kennel, also within one mile of a p and situated in a magnificent hunt.

The Plantations consist of a large Ash, Elm, Beech, Birch, Larch, S firs, in the most healthy and thriving 25 to 50 years growth. The en and sheltered, with front and rear Gatehouses, and carefully laid out

Should a purchaser be declared may have the standing Crops at a v so disposed of they will be Sold same day, viz. 20th July, and the is very select—Horses, Sheep, Implements, and Modern House the following day, Friday, 21st Ju full particulars will appear.

JAMES MARSHALL
Limerick.

Any information as regards tained by letter to J. HERRICK, ANDRU & JOHN MONTGOMERY, Frederick-street, Dublin, or Belfast Myshell, Coachford, or the Auction Charles M'Namara of the front the premises.