

pledge to 1000 children,

Spencer went to visit Father ed to a public dinner in of his native County. The of six R. C. Clergymen.

M.P., is to attend a Re-Sunday the 30th, at the Mahon, P.P.

was at Headford on Tuesday, ranks, where he told the hope for the restoration of Repeal of the Union. But parliament given you? yes, Emancipation, by which been robbed!!

to the parish Priest, is Repeal wardens for Swords,

min, Leeson-street, Dublin, of Mercy £200 in aid of ylum, Donnybrook.

part of our last impression :
Durham.

Ayrshire is vacant by the rne to the title of Earl of death.

chairman of the meeting at to consider the grieiances of Lord S——, who has a l, agreed with an eminent £70,000, on loan at 3 per ances of 5 per cent.; but of Repeal agitation that the xecuting the proposal, and attending the negotiation, capital.

nes, elder brethren of the owned while on survey of light annel, on Saturday.

Provincial Bank in this City,
a at Enniscorthy, and Mr.
uch at Tralee, succeeds Mr.
ere.

Acting Constable Hardy, of Saturday presented, while neurons, as badges of merit, discharge of their duty. A or was read on the occasion, h.

nor of Castle Lloyd station, chevron or badge of merit, this active officer within the well known most efficient

In St. Pancras Church, George Douglas, Esq. of Timpendean, son of the late Major-General Sir William Douglas, KCH. of Timpendean, Roxburghshire, to Mary Beevor, daughter of the Rev.
William James Carver, MA. Rector of Winfarthing, Norfolk.

At St. John's, Manchester, Robert Dawson Clegg, Esq. of Cheetham, to Emily, daughter of the late Richard Langston, Esq. of Everton, near Liverpool, and grand-daughter of the late Sir Stephen Langston, of Little Orwood, Buckinghamshire.

At Kingston, C. V. Garrett, Esq. of the Ordnance Department, to Hannah, daughter of the late W. H. Goodtellow, Esq. of the Sessions House, London.

At Forres, Captain T. H. Hull, Madras Fusileers, to Hannah, daughter of the late C. Gordon, Esq.

At the British Embassy at Frankfort, the Baron Thomas Frederick Zobel, of Giebelstade Darstade, Chamberlain to the Emperor of Austria, and Major Commandant of the 7th Chasseurs in the service of Austria, to Emily Caroline, daughter of Lieut.-
Colonel Kirkwood, of Newbridge House, Somersetshire.

DEATHS

On Thursday morning, at his house in Catherine-street, Edward Gayer, Esq. for many years a highly respectable Classical and Mathematical teacher in this city. His moral and religious character was a model of excellence to the many whom he educated for those professions in which they subsequently moved with honor and success.

At Ramsgate, George Bourne, Esq. Commander R.N. brother of the late W. H. Bourne, Esq. of Terenure, Dublin, aged 71.

At Dingle, Robert Eagar, Esq.

At Corofin, the Rev. Mr. Crowley, Roman Catholic Curate.

At Cross Haven, William Crosbie Harrington, Esq.

Of influenza, Sophia, wife of Joseph Masters Barter, Esq. of Dromnacarra, county Cork.

Of hooping cough, Therese Benoit, daughter of Standish Grove
Grady, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, of the Middle Temple.

At Harold's-cross, John Hogan, Esq. of Exchequer-street, aged 73 years.

In Kilkenny, aged 92, Patrick Byrne, Esq. of Glashare, in same county.

At Eyre-square, Galway, Mr. Alexander Marsden Logie, Excise Officer.

At Russell-place, Mr. William Hall.

In the 79th year of his age, the Right Hon. John Radcliffe, Judge of the Prerogative Court.

At Thistle Cottage, Fortis-green, Finchley, George, son of Mr.
Wilson, the vocalist.

At Birmingham, suddenly, the Rev. W. Riland Bedford, Rector of Sutton Coldfield, Warwickshire.

In his 65th year, the Rev. Hugh Langhorne, Vicar of Radford Semele and Rowington, Chaplain of Warwick gaol.

At Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the Rev. James Worswick, 48 years a Catholic Clergyman in that town.

At Clapham-rise, Bernard Bedwell, Esq. in his 81st year.

Emily, daughter of Frederick J. Rothery, Esq.

At Sydney-place, Cambridge-road, Mr. Thomas White.

At the Old Steyne, Brighton, Miss Rebecca Bond, aged 85.

At Crickhowel, Brecknockshire, James Parratt, Esq. late Surgeon Royal Artillery.

Thomas Howard, Esq. of Grantchester, Cambridgeshire.

At Wood End, Chichester, Lady Maria Louisa Lennox, sister of the late Duke of Richmond.

At Hill Side, King's Langley, Anne Augusta, wife of H.
Tuffnell, Esq. M.P.

At Bakewell, Derby, John Williams, Esq. aged 83 years, late of the Royal Engineers, Malta.

At Clonea Castle, county Waterford, aged 81 years, Walter M'Guire, Esq.

At St. Servan, France, Major Richard Ryan, late of the 93d Regiment.

In Amiens-street, Lucy, daughter of George Johnson, Esq. of Duntahen, Fermoy.

Mr. James North, of Abbey-street.

At Bath, Sir Charles Ethelstone Nightingale, Bart. late of Kneesworth Hall, Cambridgeshire.

At St. Hellers, Jersey, Mr. Denis Murphy, of the "Travellers rest" inn.

In Nottingham-place, Marylebone, Arthur Lancelot, son of Lancelot Shadwell, Esq.

A prospectus may application to Mr. O' Business will be re

Cork Steam

ESTABLISHED
THE following f
Ships compo pany :—
SIRIUS, Capt. Mo
TIGER, Capt. Maw
JUPITER, Capt. H
OCEAN, Capt. File
And now Buildin powerful Iron Steam These Vessels are style, and every atte and convenience of Order of sailin
For BRISTOL, eve
VICTORY, Capt. F
ROSE, Capt. Gilmo
Friday, 28th, at 4,
From BRISTOL,
Saturday, 22d, at 1.
Saturday, 29th, at 7
For DUBLIN, G
JUPITER, Capt. H
From DUBLIN :—
For LONDON, call
Capt. Moffett, the T
22d, at 11, a.m.; S
Leaves London
Plymouth, every M
For LIVERPOOL, e
Pile :—Friday, 28th
From LIVERPOOL
8, Morning.
Every information Passage Money, by Packet Office, Penr

Cork; 22d July,

MALT
Millers, Co
Co

ARE respectfully
at any time, b Large Hand-picked of very superior qu kenney Coal, at 20s.
in Limerick, free o
Liberal Credit gi
Orders ad
Swansea, or 39, N will be attended to