

...tion, was anxious cted as the result of the pre-
and. An Irish Government than to receive constabulary had yet been effected, he something would be done
g the condition of the po-

the course of a speech of ability observed—I rememgo, when I had the honor of
and was one of the ministers, of an organised system of
to be carried on with greater ing the vacation; I gave an that these agitators were host, if they thought they meetings to the danger of risk of outrage, and at all e well-disposed and loyal. I must lay their account in im-otious, seditious, and rebel-his I was the object of abuse
ut cessation. However, no
d (loud cheers), the parties were well aware that the er which was very certain to personal prudence, therefore,
aware, too, that the parties
localities; they would adopt other in Dublin, and a third ster—(hear.)—and I know
es were committed in certain
I might obtain a conviction the guilty at once be brought onnaught and Munster the erent (hear.) But to pro-
, an act was in force, which ch had been proposed by the ad the honor to be a mem-s to change the venue, in ght be tried in Dublin, it was ny threat, which otherwise t, and I should have been The consequence was, that preserved (hear, and cheers.)
ed by saying—Repeal is an ver cross the channel. The ed the support of only one ament, and the other doctrine
supporters in Parliament, rine; it is universal in its
the confiscation and destruclikely to spread in England
should say, rather more so.
each such a doctrine here.
ers.) I should not have said I had not understood that in the other house of Parlia-
m the quarter whence it proonish me not a little—about not a thing to be adopted, at eration. (hear, hear, and

In St. Peter's Church, Alexander, eldest son of Christopher J. M'Caule, of Springlawn, county Roscommon, Esq. to Sophia, eldest daughter of the late George Gillington, of Dublin, Esq.
In the parish Church of Wear, county of Salop. William Tilson, of Upper Dominick-street, Esq. Solicitor, to Sarah, daughter of the late John Morris, Esq. of Edstaston House, county of Salop.

DEATHS.

At Woodlands, Staffordshire, the seat of her grand-father, Letitia, the only daughter of L. M. Murray Prior, Esq. of the 12th Lancers.

At Ringwood Lodge, in this county, of inflammation of the brain, Joseph R. Fitzalleyne, aged 18 years, eldest son of Joseph Finlay, Esq.

On Monday last, at Camass, of scarletina, Frederick, only son of Doctor Samuel Bennett, aged 3 years—a most interesting child.

At his residence, Hotel, Macroom, John Williams, sen, in the 87th year of his age.

At his house on the Lower Glanmire Road, Captain Henry Browne Hayes, late of her Majesty's 84th Regt.

At Kennare, Daniel Quill M'Carthy, Esq. second son of Daniel M'Carthy, of Kiltadamore, Esq.

At Smithgrove-terrace, Mary, wife of Robert Radcliffe, Esq. L.L.D.

At his father's residence, Glanmire Road, William, son of William Boyle, Esq.

At his residence, Dromouna, the Rev. Peter Reilly, P.P. of Drung.

In Galway, at the advanced age of 88, Elizabeth wife of Peter Lawless, Esq. formerly Lieutenant 35th Regt.

Of hooping cough, at Westland Cottage, county Meath, Arabella, youngest daughter of Edward Kellett, Esq.

Edward Syngé Townsend, Esq. formerly of Bridgemount, county Cork.

Of pulmonary consumption, at his brother's residence, Belfast, Mr. John Dinnen printer.

Mr. William Chambers, of Gardiner-street.

At the residence of her son, Mr. R. Charles, builder, Millmount Lodge, county Dublin, Mrs. Mary Charles, aged 85.

At his house in Hardwick-street, Nicholas Comyn, Esq. of Ballinderry, county Galway, and Clerk of the Crown for the county Roscommon.

In Prussia-street, the Rev. Gerrard Wiley.

At Ems, in Germany, Thomas Cramer Roberts, Esq. of Branfield, Kent, and Salthymount, Kildare.

Mr. John M'Kellar, late of Judd-place East.

Mary Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Moses Monds, Radcliffe-st. In Montague-square, London, Major-General Sir Donald Macleod.

At Burwood, near Cobham, Ellen, daughter of J. N. Fazakerley, Esq.

Louisa, the wife of George Ross, Esq. M.D. formerly the highly respected medical officer of the Cornwall Lunatic Asylum.

Emma, daughter of H. Banner, Esq. and relict of the late Rev. T. R. Barnes.

Mr. Alexander Milne, of Renshaw-street, and formerly of Greek-street, London.

At his house, Brompton, in his 83d year, R. Pennington, Esq.

At Epsom, George Browne, Esq. Captain, retired full pay, R.M.

Laura Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Denham James Joseph Cookes, of Bentley, Worcestershire.

At Wavertree, Thomas, second son of the late John Pyke, Esq.

At Gloucester-place, Portman-square, London, Mrs. Elizabeth Dallas, sister of the late Lord Chief Justice Dallas.

At Faringdons, Lieut. E. C. Smith, R.N.

At Falmouth, Elizabeth, daughter of T. Fitzgerald, Esq. R.N.

At Middleton, near Oswestry, Salop, John Tomley, Esq.

On board the Tulloch Castle, Captain John Mackeson, late of the East India Company's Service, and of Jamaica, aged 67.

At Hyderabad, Assistant-Surgeon Baxter, Bombay Horse Artillery, late of Michael's-place, Bromton.

Louisa, wife of Sir George Best Robinson, Bart. formerly Superintendent of British trade in China.

At Melbourne, Port Philip, Jessie, wife of Thomas E. Boyd, Esq. manager of the Union Bank of Australia.

Friday last, at Thomond Lodge, the residence of her brother-in-law, J. Cree, Esq. Mary, the beloved wife of Richard Shinkwin, Esq. late Captain 10th Regt.—a lady sincerely and deservedly lamented.

At Adare, Elizabeth Shire, widow of Mr. Jacob Shire, aged 81 years, for the last 60 years a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Society.

13 CHARLES
WILLIAM BUR
Charles Boulton,
The Hon. P. Pleyde
verie.
James Campbell, E
Harry Chester, Esc
John Cockerell, E
John Drummond, I
Charles Bell Ford
William R. Hamilt
Edward Harman, I
Joseph Hoare, Esc
Felix Ladbroke, Es
JOSH

The Managers fo
SOCIETY, beg lea
Holders of Policies
the profits of this S
advantageous posit
Tables of Rates r
for the SUN FIRE C

LIMERICK—
Banagher—Mr. H.
Ennis—Mr. E. Gall
Kilrush—Mr. M. K
Nenagh—Mr. P. C

In
Cooper Crawford, I
O'Sullivan, wido
Edward Reynolds
Plaintiffs.
James O'Sullivan, a
and others,
Defendants,

in this cause mentio prove the same, on next, otherwise th
arising from said
August, 1843.

EDWARD REYNO
Fitzwilliam square,

COUNTY
John Jack, Lessee
Patrick Clarke, ar
Elizabeth Clark
his wife,
a.
Ejector,

or, thereabouts, as
COOPER CRAWFORD
Application to be Nenagh, or to JO
street, Dublin.