

was brought up to Guilt-with uttering three forged the United States for 1000 ence in point of law was not mittal, and the prisoner was October, in order to obtain d States.

on, was drowned at Boulogne f high connexions, named wson, and Savage took the olic Chapel, Bermondsey on their becoming "Sisters of

y. exhibits a novelty in jour-rthenshire farmers who had rieivances before Mr. Hall, of e not informed, required the hear them. He did so on duly reports their evidence, "turnpike-tolls," "New Poor-Rents," with a further comstrates and their fees"; the anding English, and despising first time that a newspaper nowledged as a tribunal for inrter as something like a public r. The tolls were more than erable; and the Times likens the French peasantry before ator.

made in the Queen's Bench y, for the discharge of two xford gaol, charged with the tler Bryan. The application , that the prisoners were ready since their committal in May, ificate of a physician, which a of one would be materially ement. The motion was op-but no rule was made.

thirty non-resident members of nvocation have addresssed a -Chancellor, deprecating the in censuring his sermon with-reasons. The first signatures gannon, Lord Courtenay, Mr. dent of the Board of Trade.) idge. Dr. Wynter refused to rebuking the memorialists erawe the Governor of the Ancona have issued an edict of the Pope, against the their jurisdiction, expressly ding the observance of the de-stitutions, especially in respect Christian nurses or domestic rictly commands that no chris-an Israelite, and that none to hold converse or presume lations with Christian men and f Bristol, was killed near that ing. He, with two nephews,

Reference may be made to the late Lord Chancellor of Ireland, the Lord Bishop of Limerick, the Veng-rable the Archdeacon of Limerick, &c. &c.

Business was resumed on the 24th JULY.

WANTED A FRENCH MASTER.

Diocesan School, Roxborough Road, Limerick, August 23, 1843.

An Irish Landlord shall appear in our next; also, an Address from the pen of a Literary Lecturer of Limerick to the Earl of Rosse.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23.

To-morrow the Queen, in person, will prorogue Parliament.

The Lord Lieutenant and suite leave Dublin on Friday, for England; they will be absent five weeks.

W. S. O'Brien, Esq. M.P. has left London on a trip to the Continent, for a few weeks. Mrs. O'Brien and family have arrived at Cabernoyle, in this county, from London.

The Hon. Lady Burton has arrived at Clifton.

By the death of Colonel Justin Sheil, his sister, Mrs. Peter O'Brien, of Pery-square, in this City, derives a large accession of property.

W. B. O'Shaughnessy, Esq. M.D. of this City, who has just returned from a visit to Sir C. Metcalfe, in Canada, is appointed to the important and valuable office of Assaye Master of the Mint at Calcutta.

Mr. Robert Murrough, at an auction sale on Friday, in Cork, offered £2000 for Lotabeg, the property of Mr. Callaghan. The house was built by Sir Richard Kellest, and cost £20,000.

Bridget Sexton of John's-square, was drowned while bathing in the river Shannon, near St. Munchin's Church on Sunday.

A very fine child, the son of Mr. M. Roughan, of this city, fell a victim to cold water application, at Kilkee, on Sunday.

Capt. Claridge has arrived at Belfast, where he intends to give a series of lectures on the Hydropathic treatment of disease.

There were four drunken committals from the Police office on Monday. Eight persons were brought before the Magistrates presiding on suspicion of being of a gang of pickpockets, but they were discharged yesterday for want of evidence.

A young woman named Winifred Dwyer, residing at Ayle, county Tipperary, fired a pistol shot a few days since at a man named Richard Mockler. She has since been committed. The cause assigned for the deed is, that Mockler had bid for a farm, out of which her father was about to be ejected.

Yesterday at a meeting of the Burgesses of John's Ward, at the Exchange, Alderman Geary in the chair, Edmond Fitzgerald Ryan, Esq. of John's-square, was elected an Alderman, in room of Jasper Creagh, Esq. resigned.

A broach found yesterday by an officer, is left at the Chronicle Office.

At the fair of Newcastle held on Monday, there was rather a smaller shew of stock than at any former fairs, and few buyers in attendance. Milch cows soever, to which or inhabitants th liable before the act shall not be to impose or create or parishioners, or existence of any s parish or parishion tive or disprove th but the rights priv and emoluments of and his successors, Michael shall be a effect in respect of successors, and sa inhabitants thereof, any thing herein standing."

Extract of Mr. D

"An alteration introduced by the imposition of Mini likely to cause som Bill goes down to t faith may be implic that clause. I hav of it appears to me in respect to that Bill; and although to me unobjection
I think, cause dela

On the night of dwelling-house, w
one James O'Hara
O'Brier, near Abb ciously set on fire with the furniture, vernment reward who would give int the the O'Grady fa together with the £200 for a similar likely to be ha mated for a pr Sessions for £44, of some informal information receiv magistrate of the him against O'H burning the hou for them at their they had fled th withstanding the nothing could be when that active Inspector Armst
Castleguard, in th
tance of 40 miles ruse succeeded in made numerous were marched on well where they v when the entire n by the magistrate