DEATHS.

On Monday last, of dysentery, after a few days illness, in the prime of life, at his residence, Clonybrien, near Killaloe, George Creevy, Esq. Manager of the extensive works of the Imperial Slate Company in that district—a gentleman whose general knowledge eminently fitted him to sustain the responsible duties of his office, with honor to himself, and paramount advantage to the respectable Company which he represented. He has left an amiable wife and young family to mourn a loss to them irreparable, and to his numerous friends and connections, his death has caused a vacuum which cannot easily be filled. It may be truly said of him "to know him was to love him."

AT a General Meeting of the Proprietors of th COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS, held on TUESDA 12th September, 1843.
 Surgeon WILKINSON, in the Chair.
 It was proposed by James Morris, Esq. seconded b Surgeon John Wilkinson, and Resolved—That as the fund created by subscriptio to the Reading Room of the Commercial Building is not sufficient for its maintenance without app priating the profit rents of the Company, we do clo the Reading Rooms for the purpose of remodelli the terms on which they may be at a future peri
