

ter of the late Francis Hoffman, Esq.

Charles Turner, Esq. of Liverpool, to Anne, only daughter of Charles Whitaker, Esq. of Melton-hill, York.

John Nash, Esq. to Anne, third daughter of Henry Lainson, Esq. of Heath House, Reigate.

In St. Pancras Church, Captain Paget Wotton Clarke, 2d Bombay Native Infantry, grandson of the late Sir William Beaumaris Rush, of Wimbledon House, Surrey, to Mary, daughter of Thomas Joshua Platt, Esq. one of her Majesty's Counsel.

DEATHS.

On Thursday night last at her residence in Cecil-street, after a few days illness, Mary, relict of the late James M'Beath, Esq. of this City.

Yesterday evening, at his house in Queen-street, of scarlatina, Frances Weldon, the beloved daughter of F. Weldon Walsh, Esq. aged six years—a lovely and most interesting child.

At Upper Haristonge-street, Thomas, the beloved child of Thomas Usher, Esq. R.N. aged nine years—an amiable and talented child.

At Merchant's-road, Galway, Mary Anne, relict of the late William Graves, Esq.

On Monday last, at Listowel, to the sincere regret of his friends and relatives, Mr. Michael Guerin, woollen-draper.

At Lower Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, Mr. Patrick Davoren, for many years Sub-Sheriff of the county Clare.

Arabella, wife of Francis Chute, Esq. of Chute Hall.

At the house of Mr. John Reid, Borrisokane, Mrs. Sarah Delany, aged 88 years.

At the Royal Oak, county Carlow, Mr. J. Nash, of that town.

Suddenly, after bathing, Robert Haliday Clindinning, son of Mr. William Clindinning, Belfast.

Suddenly, at his house, Lower Abbey-street, William Herrick Reardon, Solicitor.

At Belfast, Mary, wife of Dr. Charles Bell, of Jersey, formerly of London.

At Clapham, Elizabeth, relict of the late G. H. Copland, Esq.

At St. Julian Friars, Shrewsbury, Eliza, wife of J. Peele, Esq.

At the house of his sisters, Edgbaston, near Birmingham, the Rev. Charles Panton Myddleton, Incumbent of Heaton Norris Chapel, Stockport, and Chaplain to the Earl of Tyrconnel.

John Clews, Esq. Craig's-court, Charing Cross.

At Chatham, Goodman, son of Capt. R. G. Hughes, 80th Regt. Aged 74, Charles Beatty, Esq. M.D. Close of Lincoln, Alderman and Magistrate of that city.

At Clapham, Ann, widow of the late J. Petty Toulmin, Esq.

Robert Elliot, Esq. of Mount-terrace, Taunton, aged 83.

At Invercauld, George Houstoun, Esq. younger of Johnstone.

At Garnethill, Hannah, daughter of Mr. William Bentley, sen.

At Cheltenham, Mary Elizabeth Cholmeley, widow of James Raymond Johnstone, Esq. of Alva.

At Clatto, Fifeshire, Susanna Eliza, relict of Robert Low, Esq. aged 83 years.

At Southsea, the Rev. Robert Bentham, Wesleyan Minister.

At Adelphi, Upper Canada, George, son of William H. Cox, Esq. Fairy-hill House, Tipperary.

At Boulogne, Frances Ayrton, wife of Mr. I. Hopwood.

At Harsimus, Jersey City, New York, Mr. Andrew Casey, a native of Mitchelstown, county Cork.

At New York, Mr. Joseph O'Connor, a native of Arden, King's County.

At Versailles, aged 14, Gilbert Joscelyn Nangle, son of George Nangle, Esq.

At Dominica, Louisa, wife of Edward Lockhart, Esq. and daughter of the late Admiral Cumberland.

At Barbadoes, Mr. William Newson.

At Sierra Leone, John Henry Jeremie, Esq. only son of the late John Jeremie.

In Waterford, Margaret Lucy Vincent, aged 90, relict of the Rev. Richard Vincent, Curate in Youghal.

At Sandfield, county Roscommon, the Rev. T. Beirne, Roman Catholic Curate.

At D'Olier-street, Alexander William, eldest child of Mr. Bell, Professor of Elocution.

Robert M'Neale Beatty, eldest son of Pakenham Beatty, Esq. of Gardiner's-place, Mountjoy-square.

lent Pump Water.

Application to Mrs. MAHO
rance Office, Tontine Build
will be received, and informat

10

TEA

Horatio N.

Has this Week Received from
A WELL ASS

Supply of

which he offers to the T
COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS

ENNIS COL

REV. DOCTOR KING, EX
MASTER

Terms (and no extras) TH
Annun

MODERN LANGUAGES

Literature occupy two-th in this Establishment, under highest qualifications; whilst
of the Classical Masters is pr
Sizarships, Vice Chancellor's
Exhibitions in T. C. D. invari
King's pupils.

These advantages, and the treatment, extensive buildings
supplied chiefly through the S
private Establishment or one
able to insure them, since th
masters employed in this School
proceeds of an unendowed A rishing.

Dr. King pledges himself (w severe strenuously in his know
tions for the religious and mor
and comfort of his pupils.

N.B.—Pupils from this Scho
to Exhibitions for seven years
have a prior claim to several P

Coaches from Dublin to Enn
Cork in eleven: and from Trale

12

NOTI

To Country

THIRTY or Forty Country
stant employment for T
highest wages.

Apply to JAMES NOONAN,
Stores, next the new Church,
Cork, Hardwick-