

witnessed a more e 88th and 45th."
Lieut. R. Ouseley,
ative of this city,

resident in South
erby, Nottingham, placed under the

ed to the Sligo
ive per cent. upon instead of three,

f age, from Buljuries about three y, in consequence
her (as detailed LE) died on yesere she has been

Whilst in community, we must s, we often feel
ently take place,
in which people
e corn stores in t catastrophe will ic in future.

e Revenue Police, rge of having de-

Rev. Dr. Ryan was ne of the natives
og, of the King little animal of

oulty, Tipperary,
fields to his land
perate characters
of Ryan Galosser, ford groves, close
t. Mr. Cormick with him, imme-
ded to the spot, s apparently col-ithin a few yards and "without the

of 500,000 men at the entire area of e total population ildren, from the not come, under
nt. So much for is is a common

Nicholas William Spelman, Esq. C.E. of Great Brunswick-street, to Ann Mary, daughter of the late Peter Markey, Esq. of Drogheda, and niece of Morgan Delvin Nugent, M.D. RA.

At Egremont, Cheshire, Edward Atkinson, Esq. of Monkstown, county Dublin, Barrister-at-Law, to Jane, daughter of the late B.
Searight, Esq. of Liverpool.

At the Spanish Chapel, Manchester-square, the Hon. William Petre, eldest son of Lord Petre, to Miss Clifford, daughter of the Hon. Charles T. Clifford, and niece of Lord Clifford, Chudleigh.

Graham Hardie, Esq. Manager of the Falkirk Iron Works, to Elizabeth, daughter of Jas. Russell, Esq. of Blackbraes, Falkirk.

The Rev. Henry Philip, son of Robert Marsham, Esq. of Stralton Strawless, Norfolk, to Caroline Savill, daughter of Onley Savill Onley, Esq. of Stisted Hall, Essex.

In St. Marylebone Church, Edmund Mears Kelly, of Dublin,
M.A. Barrister-at-Law, to Georgiana Eliza, daughter of the late Richard Thomas Goodwin, Esq. of York-place, Portman-square, formerly senior member of council at Bombay.

In St. John's Church, Paddington, Frederick Alexander Campbell, Royal Artillery, son of Colonel Frederick Campbell, RA. to Emma Frances, daughter of William Stockley, Royal Artillery.

At Bromley, Kent, Dudley Costello, Esq. formerly 69th Regt. to Mary, widow of the late Rev. J. D. Tweedy, of Warley House, near Halifax, Yorkshire.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his house, Upper Catherine-street, sincerely and very deservedly lamented by his family and friends, Joseph Mullock, Esq. of the House of Mullock & Sons, of this city, Ship-brokers and Insurance agents.

At Moonaraha, county Tipperary, George Everard, Esq. eldest son of Dr. Everard.

Of hooping cough, Baggot-street, Caesar, son of George Digges Latouche, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At his residence at Knockduve, near Kinsale, General Sir Thomas Browne, K.C.H. in his 71st year.

At his lodgings, Grand Parade, Cork, John Callanan, Esq.

At Kingstown, Christopher Carleton, Esq. of Market-hill, county Fermanagh, and of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.

In Rathmines, of consumption, James Bond, Esq. eldest son of the late James Bond, of Cartroncard, county Longford.

At Stephen's-green, Mrs. Patience Ogle, at an advanced age.

In Dorset-street, Helen, wife of C. Naghten, Esq. Castlereagh.

At Markethill, Mary Jane, relict of Surgeon William Grey.

Mr. Andrew M'Lean, of Bush House, near Dungannon.

George Joseph Bell, Esq. Professor of Scots Law in the University of Edinburgh.

At Munich, Maria, wife of the Rev. Charles de Costlogon, Minister of the English Chapel at that place.

Phaëbe, wife of Burton Brown, Esq. of Brunswick-square.

At Pershore, J. Hunter, Esq.

J. Freeman, Esq. of Battersea, late of Thames-bank, Chelsea.

At Reading, Lieut.-Colonel Archibald Cameron, formerly of the 87th Royal Irish Fusiliers.

At Canterbury-row, Newington, aged 88, Thomas Nixon, Esq.
President of the Benevolent Society of Blues, Christ's Hospital.

At King Edward's-terrace, Islington, Mr. Thomas Powell, of the Stock Exchange.

At Haddington, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. Dr. Lorimer.

At Fisher-row, James Heriot, Esq.

At Whitevale, the Rev. Alexander Harvey, of the Relief Church, Calton, Glasgow.

At Greenock, Mr. Malcolm M'Gregor, cooper, aged 81 years.

At Avenue Lord Byron, Paris, Frances, eldest daughter of J.
Jones, Esq. of Llanarth, Monmouth, and of Lady Harriet Jones.

At Camden-town, Mr. Charles Lennox Halsted, son of the late Captain John Halsted, Royal Marines.

In Canada, Sarah, wife of George Dance, Esq. 71st Regt.

At his residence in Pembroke-place, Upper Baggot-street, William Stroker, Esq. aged 73.

At Cheltenham, Fleanor Caroline, youngest daughter of the late Hon. Robert Annesley, and niece of the late Earl Annesley.

OFFICES in EDINBURGH
LONDON,
DUBLIN,
LIMERICK

UNQUESTIONABLE
Low Rates of Pre-principles, are distingporation.

IN THE FIRE
Losses by Fire are immof every description is tageous terms.

This Company pays wards of £20,000 for Property in Great Brita
Fire Insurances effec
Six Years only.

IN THE LIFE
Assurances may be effe
Profits, or at a higher p Profits, of which Two-periods, without being charges of management Moderate Rates for other serious maladies.

Prospectuses, contain conditions of Assuranc mentioned Office, or at lishments throughout G

Receipts for renewal
September last, are no
Office, No. 46, GEORGE
before the 10th of Octo

EDWARD HA
September 30.

RUPTURE

A. GREEN'S PATENT
IMPERCEPTIBLE

on the best scientific pr
all trusses with springs
only a soft bandage rou spring acting only upon degree of pressure is ob seat of the complaint.
coriation of the skin is worn day and night wit

Sold, by appointment

SOLE AGENT

MR. O'SHEA

MEDICAL

12, GEORGE

ONE DOOR FROM