

them, armed with a scythe, struck a woman over 50 years, and cut her hand in such a way that one of the fingers had to be amputated by Dr. Evans, of Newmarket, and her life is in a precarious state. There are six persons committed for the outrage.

Last night, the residence of Abraham Grubb, Esq. within a short distance of Clonmel, was entered by some persons through the parlour window. They searched the drawers of the side-board, and took therefrom a quantity of plate.

Alexander Stuart, Esq. late Manager of the Provincial Bank at Youghal, is appointed to the Managership of the London and Dublin Bank, at Wicklow.

The office of Governor of the Irish Society of London, which holds such large property in the North of Ireland, is vacant by Alderman Sir Mathew Wood's death.

Upwards of eight hundred of the Repealers of Liverpool and Manchester have hired one of the City of Dublin Company's steamers, to take them to the great meeting to be held at Clontarf on Sunday next!

Thursday, the Lord Bishop of Killaloe held a confirmation at Nenagh Church, when several of the 52d received the solemn rite.

John Bayly, Esq. D.L. was chairman of the annual meeting of the North Tipperary Protestant Orphan Society, on Wednesday, at Nenagh, when the income was stated to be £932, supporting and educating 206 destitute orphans.

The Rev. Dr. Miley of Dublin, is to preach at Waterford chapel on the 15th inst. for the Mount Sion poor school, conducted by the Christian Brothers.

The Association in Ireland, for the propagation of the Roman Catholic faith, received from the 4th of September to the 2d of October, £493, including Rev. John Brahan, P.P. St. Mary's, £1 10s. 6d.

BALLINASLOE FAIR—WEDNESDAY.

It is confidently hoped that the beef trade will open at remunerating prices to the grazier to-morrow.

Friday will be the horse fair, and from the number and excellence of the animals already arrived, it is anticipated that the exhibition will far exceed anything witnessed for many years. Prices will decidedly be remunerative from the demand, more particularly from the amount of cavalry regiments in this country.

John Eyre, Esq. of the Castle, Eyrecourt, brought to the hammer a splendid stud of hunters; and one very fine sire, Royalty, purchased at the late Mr. West's sale, was knocked down for £295, to go to England. Croagh Patrick, a first-rate field horse, £105, and the remainder proportionably high.

EX OFFICIO GUARDIANS.

ROSEREA UNION.—Hardress Lloyd, Frederick A. Jackson, Barker Thacker, Maunsell Andrews, Henry White, M. H. Drought, D. Hutchinson Vaughan, Esqrs. Captain Butler.

WATERFORD UNION.—Earl of Huntingdon, Samuel King, William Christmas, William Morris, Shapland Carew Morris, Hon. Robert Carew, Doctor Mackesy, John Harris, Sir Robert Paul, George Meara, Daniel Osborne, Esqrs.

ARMY UNION.—Right Hon. Lord Downes, Sir A. Weldon, Captain Lefroy, E. H. Cole, Edward Bagot, B. A. Yates, W. D. Ferrer, Esqrs.

ATHLONE UNION.—Lord Castlemaine, H. M. Smythe, Edward Larkin, St. George Gray, Edward Hodson, Gerald Dillon, Wm. Magill, John Longworth, John Byrne, Esqrs..

LIMERICK UNION.

At a Meeting of the Poor Law Guardians on Wednesday, the 4th October, 1843, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—

“That the best thanks of the Board are due and hereby given to Lieut.-General Sir RICHARD BOURKE, for the zeal, attention, and ability with which he discharged the several duties of Guardian, and that we much regret his retiring from the Board.

“HENRY WATSON, Chairman,

“Poor Law Guardians, Limerick Union.”

October 7.

At Christ Church, Marylebone, Henry Edmonds Norris, Esq. of South Petherton, Somerset, to Mary Anna Revett, daughter of the late Rev. R. Sheppard, Rector of Thwaite, Suffolk.
At St. Mary's, Bryanston-square, the Rev. E. S. Stanley, to Annie, daughter of Robert Hand, Esq. of Great Cumberland-place, Hyde-park.

DEATHS.

At Chilworth Lodge, near Southampton, on the 5th inst. the Hon. Richard George Quin, brother of the Earl of Dunraven.
On Monday last, in William-street, Mr. Thomas Quin, grocer and spirit-merchant, late Town Councillor for William-st. Ward.
At Kilmallock, on the 9th inst. Henry Bradshaw M'Connell, Esq. deeply and deservedly regretted by his friends and the public. He filled the office of sub-distributor of stamps, and Postmaster of that town over 40 years.
In Killarney, aged 76, Miss Fanny Courtaune, principal for half a century of one of the most respectable boarding schools in the South of Ireland.
After a protracted illness, and at an advanced age, the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, President of Carlew College during a period of 44 years. Deceased, who was educated on the Continent, was an excellent scholar, and possessed the courteous manner and politeness of the old French school.
At his house, Westland-row, Walter Doolin, Esq.
At Tivoli Gardens, Cork, James, son of the Rev. W. Chatterton.
At Thurles, Mrs. Kirwan, relict of the late Philip Kirwan, Esq. and mother of P. Kirwan, Esq. Solicitor.
At Arklow, county Wicklow, William Manifold, Esq.
At Pembroke-road, Margaret, wife of John Duffy, Esq.
At Cloncallow house, Longford, Esther, wife of William Murray, Esq.
At her residence in Russell-place, Mrs. Lucinda Blacker, aged 80 years.
Henry Laird, son of John Hogan, of York-street, Esq.
Mr. Thomas Thompson, of Ballyshannon, aged 85.
At Jersey, very deservedly lamented, Samuel A. Austin, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, of Ringavilla, county Cork.
At Ashbourne, Derbyshire, William Webster, Esq. a Magistrate and Deputy Lieutenant for that county.
At Prospect-place, South-town, Yarmouth, Sophia, sister of Sir Thomas Gooch, Bart. and wife of Captain G. W. Manby.
At High-street, Glasgow, Mr. Robert Cairns, merchant, aged 81.
At Bridge of Allan, James Little, Esq. merchant, Greenock.
At Glasgow, Mr. William Bannerman, sen.
At Laurieston, Alexander, son of Mr. John Cree, jun.
At Dartmouth, Mr. John Woodcock, landlord of the Commercial Inn, and for many years in the Coast Guard Service.
At Trelleck-terrace, Pimlico, Samuel Malcolm, son of the Rev. S. M. Morgan.
At New York, Charles, second son of Henry Hales, Esq. late of Saville-row, Walworth.
Mr. Richard Webb, druggist, many years proprietor of the Plymouth and Devonport Journal.
Richard Learoyd, Esq. of Craig Cottage, Hoxton, near Bradford. The deceased when a young man enlisted into the 82d Regt. and by meritorious conduct was promoted from a private to the honourable rank of Captain.
At her residence, near St. Charles, Kane County, US. Lydia Monck, the beloved wife of Mr. John Forrest, late of Cork.
Mr. Thomas Haylett, many years organist of Chester Cathedral; also, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. John Wilkinson, of the Cathedral choir.
Near Glasgow, the Rev. Walter Maclean, formerly minister of the Scotch Church, Douglas, Isle of Man.
In Plymouth, Mr. W. Bassett, PG. of the Odd Fellows.
In Devonport, Mr. William May Ough, Supervisor of Excise.
At Dumfries, Mrs. David Christy, aged 77.
At Treinfryn, near Bangor, the Rev. David Griffith.
At Carlisle Cottage, his seat in Aberdeenshire, at the age of 71, Rear-Admiral Sir Arthur Farquhar, KCB. and KCH.
At Cloudeley-terrace, Islington, Eliza, wife of George Athill, Esq. of the Island of Antigua.
Friday last, in Arthur's-row, Ennis, after a very short illness, John Magrath, Esq. Surgeon-Apothecary, brother to the late Dr. Edmond Magrath, of that town. The demise of this estimable gentleman is a source of deep and general regret—to his family the loss is irreparable, while to the inhabitants at large, more especially the poorer portion, of whom he was the friend and benefactor, the melancholy event must be attended with sincere and lasting sorrow.
In the 24th year of her age, Maria, eldest daughter of the late Captain Stacpools, of Cappahard, county Clare.
At his residence, Thomond-square, Cork, Mr. Patrick Lyons, father of the Rev. P. Lyons, O.S.A. Limerick.
At his residence, Fermoy, David O'Gorman, Esq.
Mr. Joseph B. White, of Passage West.
At his residence, near Derry, Samuel Haslett, Esq.
At the Rev. Francis Brownlow's, county Derry, Elizabeth Georgiana, wife of Claud Alexander, Esq. of Ballochmyle, Ayrshire, and daughter of the late Colonel and Lady Martha Keatinge.
At Elm Grove, Parsonstown, Isaac Hackett, Esq. Solicitor, seventh son of Michael Hackett, Esq. of same place.
Henry Fortescue, Esq. Mid-shipman on board the East India-man Williammoney, on passage from Calcutta to Singapore, son of Captain Fortescue, S.I. Constabulary, Parsonstown.
At Waterford, Miss Mary Ann O'Shea.
Mr. Peter Boyd Park, Civil Engineer.
In Upper George-street, Captain Robert Harvey, of Cadogan-place, Belgrave-square.
In Porchester-terrace, Bayswater, Nicholas Nugent, Esq. M.D.
At Brighton, Geo. La Coste, Esq. of Chertsey, Surrey, banker.
In Tutton-street, Westminster, Mr. Handley, many years chief officer at the Queen-square Police-office.
At Elliot-place, Blackheath, Captain Peter Cameron, of the East India Company's Service.
In Philadelphia, Samuel Abbott, Esq. of Dublin.

this point; but he would suggest be in want of Articles in the Op suffer material loss in purchasing not practical knowledge of that ve it being a fact, the truth of which rienced that the organs of vision suffer very serious injury.

J. M. begs to announce that selection of Mathematical Instru Pocket Sextants, Primastic Co Brazil Pebble Spectacles and C cription, ground on the most accur the various defects of the sight, an in Gold, Silver, Tortoise-shell, frames. To those who find the takes the liberty to recommend which the eyes may be saved o further decay. He also assures Gentlemen who may be dispos with their patronage, that they fitted in the most correct manner proper focus and most perfect ki particularly adapted to the head o the centre of each glass will con the pupil of the eye, which is o although neglected by many Opti

Optical and Mathematical Instr the shortest notice. Medical Elec

Engraving of all descriptions do manner, and on reasonable terms 6, Patrick

Important to Sportsmen LIMERICK SPORTING RE AND PISTOL MANU

No. 110, GEORGE-S
WILLIAM COLGAN, P

COLGAN begs leave to call the men to his present large Stock Single and Double Percussion G case) which cannot be excelled durability and close shooting, by the Kingdom, and which he offer dentedly low; also Rifles, Walkin Guns, Blunderbusses, with Spring Holster and Pocket Pistols, in gre and six shot Turnabout and Self-

COLGAN has just received from facturers a large supply of every the Sportsman's use, consisting John Hall, and Curtis & Harvey's Walker, Parker & Co.'s Chester S & Starkey's Percussion Caps, Ele Cartridges, Chemically prepared Waterproof Caps, Baldwin's Plain boxes and sheet, Sykes & Son's Belts and Pouches, Liquere Bott zines, Cap Carriers, Game Bags, Screws, Nipple Keys, Wad Cutt Bullet Moulds, and every other with the business.

COLGAN, in connection with supplied with their usual large CUTLERY, for the well-known he hopes it is unnecessary for comment.

A constant supply of best En Powder of unrivalled strength.

The greatest care taken repairing old Guns, Pistols, &c.

THREE NEWLY BUILT HOUSES TO

to be Let, at the corner (New) Bridge. This is the best si by the only free entrance from th the City Limerick.

Apply to ROBERT HUNT, Immediate possession will be g