

Society,
and SURVIVORSHIPS
ANNUITIES.

1892.
Perfect Security to Responsibility arising

Auditors, &c.

Agar,
Bart. M.P.
Bart.

rt.
ay,

Esq.

y,
Esq. Solicitor,
hill, London, and 40,
Dublin.

rates of Insurances,
of the Society, may be principal Offices as most of the Cities and
JOHN HELPS, Secre-

UNT, Agent,
OFFICE carried
et, Limerick.

BUILDERS.

ioners for Ireland, on OBER, 1843, will ree Churches of
Co. Limerick.

Co. Tipperary.

ns to be seen in the
of the Parishes.
ted Sealed, Prepaid,

Church of
sioners for Ireland."
October 21.

Philip Marsh, Esq. of Moyally, King's County, to Anna, daughter of the late Nathaniel Hurst, Esq. of Ballinlough.

At St. James's Church, Piccadilly, T. K. Hervey, Esq. to Eleanora Louisa, grand-daughter of the late Colonel G. Montagu.

At Doncaster, Edward Stopford Claremont, Esq. of the Royal Regiment, to Frances Charlotte, only daughter of Colonel Wetherall, CB. Deputy Adjutant-General of the Forces in Canada.

DEATHS.

At Belfast, Thomas J. Moyle, Esq. Captain 66th Regt. and formerly of the 18th Royal Irish Regt. aged 43 years.

In Mallow-street, Edward, son of Mr. Robert Hodge, Excise Officer.

At Johnstown county Kilkenny, Mary, wife of John Little, Esq. At her house, Upper Mount-street, Theodosia, relict of the late Captain Thomas Gordon Caulfield, R.N.

At St. Francis Abbey, in this city, Bridget Kennedy, aged 105 years. This centenarian enjoyed her mental and bodily faculties to the day before her death.

In Mary-street, Mr. John Nunan, sawyer.
Michael Peter, son of Michael Fox, Esq. Stephen's-green,
At his residence, Ballymorris, Queen's County, Joseph Harte, Esq. M.D.

Mary Jane, daughter of the late Abraham Walker, Esq. Derry.
At Ballgreen, Jane, relict of the late John M'C. Maunn, Esq. of Letterkenny, aged 95 years.

In Stragullin, near Strabane, Martha, relict of the late Thomas Church, Esq. of Castledawson.

William Synd Smith, Esq. of Lisdillin, Derry.
In Leeson-street, Miss Skyring, eldest daughter of the late Lieut. George Skyring, Royal Artillery.

In Boyle, Mr. Henry Hogg, saddler.
Mr. Samuel Limerick, of Ballykelly, Derry.

At Leamington, Lieut.-Col. R. Murray, late of the 54th Regt.
In Marine-parade, Brighton, Archibald Bryson, Esq. aged 80.
In Great Portland-street, D. H. M'Neill, Esq. Lieut. R.N.

At the Rectory, Willingale, Essex, the Rev. John Deedes.
At Kilmarnock, Robert Grieve, Esq. aged 84.

At Matlock, Mrs. Gregory, housekeeper of the Duke of Devonshire at Chatsworth, aged 76. She had been in his Grace's service sixty years.

At Dover, the Lady of R. Richardson, Esq. and two days after her infant son.
At Great Crosby, aged 90 years, Mr. Richard Fisher.

At Weymouth, Eleanor, daughter of the Right Hon. H. Hobhouse, of Hadspen, Wilts.
At Paris, Mrs. Brodie, wife of the Rev. E. Brodie, rue Rivoli.

At Calcutta, T. Kelley Key, Esq. son of Sir John Key, Bart.
At Paris, aged 75, the Count de Montroud.
On the 25th of June, at Cawnpore, Major W. W. Huntley, 9th or Queen's Lancers.

In June last, at Calcutta, Thomas Kelley Key, Esq. youngest son of Sir John Key, Bart.
At Circular-road, Dublin, in the 75th year of her age, Mrs. Catherine Rogers, daughter of the late Captain George Tomkins, of Limerick, and sister to Major Tomkins, of the City Limerick Militia.

Suddenly, at Passage, Waterford, the Rev. P. Morrissy, P.P.
At Tramore, Kate, wife of Richard Phelan, Esq. M.D. Graig, county Kilkenny.

At Patrick-street, Cork, Mr. William Teulon.
At Cappoquin, Mr. Cornelius Dennehy.

On the 16th inst. Lieut.-Colonel Charles Levinge, KH. formerly of the 71st Light Infantry, youngest son of the late Sir Charles Levinge, Bart.

At sea, when returning to England, commander Richard Francis Cleaveland, Royal Navy.
At Gravesend, the Rev. Daniel Edward Stephens, Curate of Trinity Church, St. Giles's.

At Greenhill, Edinburgh, Mr. Menzies, of Pitfodels, one of the most affluent and liberal Roman Catholics in Scotland.

At Leamington, Leut.-Colonel Richard Murray, late 54th Regt. and son of the late Lord Henry Murray.

In Regent-street, Henry Knyvett, Esq. of the firm of Charles Hopkinson and Co. bankers.

At Aylmer, Township of Hull, Canada, Laura Dewey, wife of Ithamar H. Day, Esq. and mother of the Hon. Judge Day.

Lady Devere.
Lady Chatterton.
Lady O'Brien.

All contributions of useful Drawings, &c., if intrusted to Patronesses, Stallholders, Cecil-street, labelled "Prize" and directed to the care of the Committee, will be received and delivered on the day of the Bazaar.

Each parcel to be marked with the name of the person who sends it, and the price affixed to it by the Committee.
Admission 1s —Children 6d.

CHAN

Joseph Wood, Esquire,
Plaintiff.
Arthur French St. George's,
and Christopher St. George's,
Esquires, and others,
Defendants.

Same,
Plaintiff.
Patrick French, Esquire, and
others,
Defendants.

highest and fairest Bidders for the FRENCH ESTATES, consisting of the TYRONE and BEAGH, situated in Galway; and the ST. GEORGE'S, comprising the EYRE CONNOR and MARA ESTATES, all situated in Galway; and the LEITRIM ESTATES, in the pleading of the Rental particularly described in the Decree mentioned, except the Lands of TYRONE, which are reserved in the Decree from the Sales thereof.
Dated this 9th day of

The Sale of the QUEEN'S ESTATE, situate about 3 Miles from the City of Dublin, comprising the Lands of Ballyfoyle, and producing an annual Rent of 1000 Roubles, will be first proceeded with on the 10th inst. at 12 o'clock, at the following Lots.

For Rentals and particulars apply to the Solicitors for the Plaintiff, JAMES HARRISON, of the Strand, London; JOSEPH FRENCH, of St. George's, Dublin; for Defendant; ARTHUR FRENCH, of 12, Hume-street, Dublin; for Christopher St. George's; and CHARLES FRENCH, of the Quay, Dublin; and CHARLES FRENCH, the Receiver, Annefield,