DEATHS.

On Monday last, in Cecil-street, after a short illness, Henry Casey, Esq. in his 29th year. Death, with his relentless hand, has sorely stricken his afflicted family, it having been our task to record the demise of his brother, James Casey, Esq. within the last year. The premature removal of this amiable young gentleman from a world of sorrow, affords another striking instance of the shortness and uncertainty of life, and that even its brightest bloom and vigour are no shield from the remorseless tyrant.

THE MANCHESTER FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

CAPITAL, TWO MILLIONS.
ESTABLISHED MARCH, 1824
98, KING-STREET, MANCHESTER.
BONUS.

At the Annual General Court of Proprietors, held on the 20th June, 1839, Bonuses were declared to the amount of £10 per Cent. on the premiums received during the five years previous to the 1st of March, 1839, to be paid on all Insurances of more than five years' standing, and to the assured in the Fire Department, on all policies for the whole duration of life, of four, or more years' standing, on the 25th of March, 1839, of very nearly 26 per Cent. on the amount of premiums received thereon, improved at compound interest, to be added to the sum assured by such policies when they become claims, or an equivalent reduction to be made in the annual premiums upon them, at the option of the parties entitled thereto.

The attention of those who have insured with this Office, and of the public generally, is requested to the above satisfactory announcement. The benefits derived by insurers, in addition to low rates, is the fact that every claim which has occurred since the establishment of the Office in Limerick, has been punctually discharged without demur or dispute, and point out the manifest advantage of insuring with a wealthy Company.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Assured are entitled to one-third of the amount of their losses without any liability on their part to the losses. Parties intending to continue their policies after the 29th inst., must renew them within 14 days of that time, or they will become void.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The Assured are entitled to two-thirds of the amount of their losses without any liability on their part to the losses. The Premiums charged are lower than those of any other office. The business of the Life Department is kept distinct from that of Fire, and its accumulations are not liable to make good any losses sustained therefrom.

The Rates of premium, and all other particulars may be obtained on application to the Office. Policies falling due on the 24th July should be paid on or before the 9th July, as the 14 days allowed for renewal will then expire.
