DEATHS.

On Tuesday evening last, at the house of Dr. Hutchins, Surgeon Dentist to her Majesty, Harstonge-street, Captain David Arthur England, of Cahercalla, county Clare, at the patriarchal age of 96 years—a gentleman who, both as an officer and as a private individual, ever preserved the most unsullied honor and integrity, and by his uniform kindness of heart and benevolence endeared himself to all who knew him.

Washed overboard, and lost on the 28th October, having only sailed from Liverpool on the previous day on board the James Matherson, bound for China, Mr. Thomas Sherlock, aged 22,
