

dedicated to the Protestant orphan, Ladies who have assistance—useful every age and condition were moderate, in order, and with to add that the was greater than on the articles exhibited to notice a beautiful Blind Girl at the Alley, of William-devotional expressive original drawing astonishing fidelity, Alley, that amongst women of her ability, department of the value—Lieutenant articles were also sent to the institution at parts of England, from friends "at display. A vase of an artist, purchased and sent to the Bazaar conducted a large collection, where it was

Stall, No. 1, Mrs. Croker. No. 2, Mrs. Dillon Massy. No. 3, Mrs. Hastings. No. 4, Mrs. Furnell, assisted by Mrs. Massett. The articles were composed of variety, and a great number. No. 5, (The refreshment of the Misses Maunsell. No. 6, (drawing, print, &c.) No. 7, Hon. Mrs. Grady, and Hon. Mrs. Croker, &c.)

the High Sheriff, and Mr. Bart. Sir Hugh Wellesley, Hon. Misses, Sir David Roche, &c. were among the audience.

will be exhibited at half price will be obtained, the attendance this day. The Rev. Mr. M.P. were among the audience.

will be exhibited at half price will be obtained, the attendance this day. The Rev. Mr. M.P. were among the audience.

Captain Denman, R.N. to Miss Lacy, sister-in-law to John Gully, Esq. of Ackworth Park, near Pontefract.

DEATHS.

At Dunmanway, in the prime of life, after a short illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, William, the eldest and beloved son of Richard Johnson, Esq. of Eastwood, in this county. He died, relying on the merits of his Redeemer alone for pardon and acceptance, and has left behind him many sorrowing relatives and friends.

At Millview, Ennis, aged 73 years, Anthony Enright, Esq.

Ellen Baker, eldest daughter of John Besnard, Esq. Greenville-place, Cork.

On Monday last, in Fermoy, the beloved daughter of Mr. James M'Cormick, being the second who departed this life in the space of one fortnight.

At Fitzwilliam Lodge, Blackrock, Dublin, the Countess of Roscommon, after a short illness.

In Cork, Cornelius Linihan, Esq. of Killina

Margaret, daughter of P. M'Swiney, Esq. Clonmel.

At his residence, Claremorris, Mayo, of malignant fever, contracted in attending a poor patient, James O'Grady, Esq. M.D. Medical Superintendent to the Claremorris and Ballyhaunis Baronial Dispensaries.

In Dungarvan, in the 82d year of his age, Mr. S. Baker.

Thomas Roberts, engraver, Belfast.

At Airmount, county Dublin, the residence of his father, James Dodd (the eldest son of John Dodd, Esq. Sackville-street.)

At Downshire-place, Belfast, Mrs. Currie.

At Kilmurry House, Enfield, in the 81d year of her age, Elizabeth, relict of the late Walter O'Brien, Esq.

Joseph Gregory, of Castle-view.

James Kennedy, Esq. Millvale, Belfast.

At D'Olier-street, Mrs. Flaville.

Mr. William Shields, of Belfast.

In Liverpool, Mr. St. John Rounds, for many years an officer in the custom department, Dublin.

At Hampton, aged three years, Richard Bright, third son of Sir William Follett, M.P. Solicitor-General.

At his residence in Cheltenham, aged 75, Charles Barton, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, author of valuable works on Conveyancing.

At Mansell-street, London, Mr. Henry Harris.

In Wilton-place, Belgrave-square, Hannah, widow of the late Captain G. Monke. R.N.

At Brompton, Middlesex, John Alexander, Esq. aged 94.

At Torquay, George Hart Dyke, Esq. late Lieut-Colonel in the Coldstream Guards, son of the late Sir John Dixon Dyke, Bart. late of Lullingstone Castle, Kent.

Mr. Reese, of Southampton-place, Camberwell, musician in ordinary to her Majesty, aged 81.

At Greenock, Mr. Peter M'Vicar, of the James Watt Inn.

At Edinburgh, Dr. William Finch.

At Brixton, Thomas Henuah, Esq. Accountant's office, India House.

At Hackney, Anne, relict of Mr. Trevanion Harnett, Folkstone.

At Charlton, Emily, daughter of Lieut-Colonel H. W. Gordon, R.A. aged 17.

At Glasgow, Mrs. Janet Macbeth, relict of Mr. Henry More aged 73 years.

At Newent, Gloucester, at an advanced age, Mr. Oliver Cromwell, druggist and schoolmaster.

At Valparaiso, on board the Royal Admiral, Captain William Thomas Fell.

At Jamaica, Margaret, wife of the Rev. Jonathan Edmondson, Wesleyan Minister, and Chairman of the Jamaica district.

At Jamaica, Alexander Grierson, Esq.

On Tuesday night, the 21st inst. at Limerick, Sir Amyrald Dancer, of Modreeny, Bart. who departed this life at an advanced age.

Tuesday last, at his house in Cecil-street, Dobin Casey, Esq. of Rostemple, in this county, sincerely and deservedly regretted.

In Clare-street, on Tuesday, of inflammation of the brain, aged 13 years, Elizabeth Anne, the beloved child of John Bowles, Esq.

The premature death of this amiable child, who died as she lived, rejoicing in the sure hope of redemption through her Saviour's merits and intercession, is a source of deep regret to her sorrowing parents and friends.

On the 16th inst. aged 6 years, Arthur Henry Legge, youngest son of William Legge, Master of the Endowed School, Navan.

Miss Rogers, only daughter of the late Major Rogers, of Water Park, Waterford.

At Meeth Viewage, North Devon, John Davye Foukes, Esq.

Among its peculiar features noticed:—

Whilst in ordinary Insurance of the Sum insured is delayed Insurer, in this Society it is during his life.

Whilst in most other Companies Insurance is available only sentatives of the Insurer, available to the party himself.

Whilst in other Companies the will be derived is altogether fixed and definite, and is himself, as the most suitable.

The effect of these principles to make a provision for an. It enables professional Men to provide a fund payable period when they may conduct active business.

It enables Parents to secure Member of their Family or age,

It enables Landed Proprietors without encumbering their for the younger branches of

It secures to the Members the Profit which can be derived of Life Survivorship with the ment of Money—the whole each Scheme by surviving with the whole of the at Interest thereon, being divided among survivors.

Detailed Prospectuses, Terms Contributions, and all other obtained at the Head Office.

OR OF THE AGENT

DA

November 25.

FIRE-A

THE Inhabitants of the City of that portion of the formerly forming part of the are hereby informed that all Fire-Arms in either of the places receive the necessary instructions have such Arms Registered Quarter Sessions to be held at my OFFICE, No. 7. between the hours of Eleven o'Clock in the afternoon excepted.)

Dated this 13th Nov

EDW

Clerk of the Peace and late

N. B.—All Notices to Register with me 21 days at least previous to the next Quarter Sessions.