

...in person. On the 1st inst. in a cient service, I think it better action which would be purely to add, in acknowledgement of
of your letter, that the expres-indness which it conveys are to my feelings—not more on ewhat exaggerated value which ic services, than as an indication ality which, under the present and, ought to exist amongst all eir country.—I remain, my dear
ours,

WILLIAM S. O'BRIEN.

Esq.”
company 15th Regiment, from ed in garrison this day. Three th will march in to-morrow, and
ay. The Lieut.-Colonel, Lord walked most of the road with his horse to a soldier.

it in contemplation to dissolve the d to delegate their authority to al and more efficient force, the

enant Governor of Chester Castle
e of General Sir John Fraser, will var steam-vessel, formerly com-Austin, C.B., has been commis-by Captain Lapidge (1837,) and 175 men. Mr. Edward Williams of Ordnance has called for proeyance of stores by land carriage and the several stations in Ireland, ry next.

ench, on Saturday, Mr. Coppinger Marum and other prisoners in the for arson, should be admitted to ion was grounded on the fact that nant, Ellen Hackett, was induced me forward, and that her testimony
n with suspicion. The application
r. Smiley on the part of the crown, nation had been since obtained. The d that bail should be taken, Marum urity in 200*l*. and two sureties in e others in 20*l*. and two sureties in erty of Mr. Corbett, which was at Connell, last night, was maliciously nd killed. The cause assigned is nant to the ground was dispossessed

al Quarter Sessions for this County
at Rathkeale on the 28th December

Esq. to Sir John Owen, Officer of Excise.
At the Holy Trinity Church, Chester, O. J. E. Nanney, Esq.
of Gwynfrvn, Major Commandant of the Royal Carnarvon Rifle Corps Militia, and High Sheriff for the county of Merioneth, to Mary, eldest daughter and heiress of Hugh Jones, Esq. Hengwrthucha, Merionethshire.

DEATHS.

- At Killaloe, on yesterday, Edward, youngest son of Captain Tully, R.N.
- At Athlone, Henry William, eldest son of Wm Sproule, Esq.
- At Tipperary, Mrs. Scully, wife of Mr. Richard Scully.
- In Tralee, Richard, second son of the late Jeffrey Eagar, Esq. of Killarney.
- At Mountshannon, county Galway, on the 28th ult. Mr. Patrick Bourchier, aged 82.
- Thomas Tenison, Esq. of Castle Tenison, county Roscommon.
- At Glenbrook, Magherafelt, Samuel Jackson Cassidy, Esq. son of the late Rev. Mark Cassidy, of Newtownards.
- Francis Robert, son of the late Rev. John Burdett, of the Glebe House, Banagher, King's County.
- At Spring Hill, Jane Hamilton, daughter of William Lenox Conyngham, Esq.
- In Wexford, Anna Maria, daughter of Mrs. Mary Pettit.
- At the residence of his father, Rathgill, Bangor, Doctor Wm. M'Culloch.
- Mr. James Hogan, formerly of Kilkenny, Repeal Warden for Farringdon ward.
- At his residence, Greenwich Hospital, Lieut. Edward de Montmorency, R.N. son of the Rev. Redmond Morres, of Mallow, and nephew of the late Lord Viscount Frankfort de Montmorency.
- At Summerseat, Richard, son of the Rev. Richard Radcliff, Rector of Shryne.
- At Brock Farm, Cobham, Surrey, Admiral Sir Graham Moore, GCB. GCMG.
- At his house at Newington-place, Kennington, John Shaw, Esq. of the firm of Shaw and Son, Fetterlane, aged 72.
- At Blackheath, George Turner Coote, son of Richard Holmes Coote, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq.
- At Greenock, Jane, relict of Captain P. M'Dougall, 57th Regt.
- At Edinburgh, Mary Macgregor, widow of Captain Alexander Wishart, 78th Regt.
- Ann, wife of the Rev. H. Barry, Rector of Brockley, Somerset.
- In Regent-square, Arthur Woodhouse, Esq.
- In Dufour's-place, Golden-square, aged 75, Mr. J. Toogood.
- At Edinburgh, Margaret, widow of Lieut-Colonel A. Loraine.
- At Ostend, the wife of Commander C. Fitzgerald, R.N.
- At Walsoken House, Norfolk, Thomas Broughton, Esq.
- In Reading, John Ratty, of Paddington, one of the Society of Friends.
- Mrs. Goulding, widow of the late George Goulding, Esq. of Soho-square.
- At Parkhurst, Isle of Wight, Daniel Alexander, son of the Rev. Thomas England.
- At Brighton, George Smith, Esq. formerly Receiver-General in Jamaica.
- In Dublin, Jane, wife of Cromwell Price, Esq. and only daughter of the late Alderman George Sexton, of Limerick.
- On Friday, the 24th inst. at his lodgings in Abbey-street, Dublin, George Pepper, Esq. aged 66, eldest son of the late Simon Pepper, Esq. of Lissinisky, Nenagh. His hope was in the Lord his righteousness.
- On Saturday last, at Waterford, John Cashman, Esq. Lieut. Royal Navy.
- In South Earl-street, Andrew O'Farrell, Esq. late of Lanterborough, county Longford.
- At Delbrook, Ballinteer, Mrs. Mason, wife of Edward Grove Mason, Esq.
- Mr. John Scott, Printer, Fownes's-street.
- At his residence, Bedford-row, aged 87, John Foster Burnett, Esq. of the Custom department.
- At Hammersmith, Samuel Webbe, son of the late S. Webbe. Aged 76 years, Mr. Massey, of Whitefriars, Chester.
- At Gravesend, Mr. Charles Edward Johnson, auctioneer.
- At Picket-place, Mr. Wrench, the veteran comedian.

in Spain)
Schlosser's Hist
Johnston's Nati
morocco.
Waverly Nove
morocco.
Mrs. O'BRIE
of new Goods,
Presents," com
Fancy Goods,
LETTERP

IN Creagh
p.
Creagh.

ery, in this ca
12th of Decem
the well known
sale Establishm
The Goods in fresh, and will They consist
every shade,
Vestings, Cass
Velvets, Bonn Orleans, Shall
Plush, Counte
Calicoes and L
fourth and sev
Table Cloths o
size, Rockspu
Roll and Tw
White Calicos
Handkerchiefs
Coats, Button
Jacoult, Camb
lins, Cap Nets
Muslin and L
Ribbons, S
Gloves in eve
Beaver Hats,
In the limit
possible to e
every possible
Trade, of Fir
After the S
Desks, &c. w in a future A

Sale
December