

incurred by Parties transferring their from other Companies.
 re a powerful Engine is always ready of the Public at the Company's Roches-street.
 for Fire and Life Insurances may be every Information given at the office of Fitzgerald, Agent,
George's-St. Limerick.
 December 23.

S AND SHRUBS,
 FOR SALE AT
Prospect Nursery,
 THE ROXBOROUGH ROAD,
ELIZA ABRAHAM
 FULLY takes leave to inform the and Gentry of Limerick and the sur-vices that her Nurseries are extensively well Grown Peach, Plum, Cherry, Pear
 , all which can be engaged to their mental Trees, American Plants, Ever-flowering Shrubs, &c. &c., 500,000
 Horn Quicks, 10,000 Grafted French Oak, 2½ to 3 feet, Apple Trees
 , a great variety of Standard Roses, and Azelias, Green House Plants, Paragus.
 ting done as usual on the most mode-catalogues can be had at the SEED
 E, 28, PATRICK-STREET, LIMERICK.
 December 23.

PLATED WARE,
Jewelry, Watch & Clock
ESTABLISHMENT.
GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMERICK.
 SMITH has the honour to announce ability and gentry of Limerick, and the counties, that in addition to his splendid in hands, he has received from some celebrated Factories in England fashionable assortment of the above to meet the present depression in the dispose of cheaper than goods of the can be bought elsewhere. He begs solicit an early inspection of this which he flatters himself will meet ation.
 ictest attention will be at all times ists of Watches of every description, experienced Watchmaker in his Estab-
December 20.

George Bennett, Joseph T. De Fanu, Esq. eldest son of Dean
 Le Fanu, to Susanna, fourth daughter of George Bennett, Esq.
 QC. Merriou-square.
 At Mullingar, B. Martin, Esq. at the age of 99 years, to Miss Coddington Fleming, aged 26.

DEATHS.

Isabel Frances, infant daughter of George Ignatius Goold, Stipendiary Magistrate, of Rathkeale, Esq.
 On the 21st, at Mount Willow, Edenderry, King's County, Mary, the beloved wife of Robert Newsom, a respected member of the Society of Friends.
 At Fethard, Sophia, wife of Mr. Philip Connell, formerly of Clonmel.
 At her father's house, Broad-street, Eliza Maria, second daughter of Mr. Thomas Purcell, grocer and merchant.
 At Peasfield Terrace, Blackrock, Emily, child of Richard Jubb, Esq.
 At his residence, South-mall, Clara, wife of J. J. O'Brien, Esq.
 At her residence, Clare-street, at an advanced age, Mrs. Celia Saunders, relict of the late Mr. George Saunders.
 At Monkstown, Annie, daughter of the Rev. Robert Halburd.
 In Dublin, Mrs. Rose Thomas Phibbs.
 At Kiltubride Rectory, Jemima, daughter of Robert Scott, Esq. MD. of Lower Mount-street, Dublin.
 At Dunfanaghey, the Rev. John Harris Jameson, son of Capt.
 Jameson, of Clonkeen, Clones.
 Suddenly, Emily, relict of the late Isaac Haddock, Esq. and sister of William E. Hudson, Esq. Fitzwilliam-street.
 At his residence, Oak Park, Donegal, William Wray, Esq. the oldest magistrate of that county.
 At her residence, Richmond, Jane, wife of Peter J. Carroll, Esq.
 At the Vicarage, Ormesby, Yorkshire, Phebe, wife of Captain George Hayes, RN.
 At Brighton, in his 71st year, Sir Robert Fitz-Wygram, Bart.
 At Bushey, Herts, in his 81st year, Mr. E. P. Sharpe, many years town surveyor under the Board of Excise.
 Henry, youngest son of Fulke Greville, Esq. of Walmer, Kent.
 At Inverness, North Britain, Major John Barclay, of the 4th Bengal Light Cavalry.
 At Stebbing-park, Mr. W. H. Willis.
 Ellen Sheregold, wife of Captain Charles Coster, sen. of Southampton.
 At Greenwich Hospital, Commander Edward Williams, aged 68.
 At Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire, Catherine, relict of the Rev. Joshua Smith, late Rector of Holt, Norfolk, aged 81.
 At Bredisholm, Lanarkshire, Colonel Henry Du Vernet Grossett Muirhead, late of the Royal Staff Corps, eldest son of the late Lieut-Colonel Du Vernet, Royal Artillery.
 At Cartburn House Greenock, Mr. Jas. Cuthbertson, aged 75.
 At Portobello, Ann Gibson, relict of Alexander Gibson Hunter, Esq. of Blackness.
 At Edinburgh, Ann, daughter of the late Valentine White, Esq. of Pembrokeshire, and relict of the Rev. Dr. Hodgson, of Blantyre.
 Jane Reid, wife of Mr. D. M'Farlane, watch-maker, Glasgow.
 At the Vicarage, Hayes, Middlesex, the Rev. John Neville Freeman.
 In the Avenue-road, Regent's-park, the daughter of Joseph Haynes, Esq.
 On the 17th inst. at his residence, Mount-row, Guernsey, Major William Bernard, of the late 5th Royal Veteran battalion.
 In Charlotte-street, Bloomsbury, Mr. Michael Jones, of her Majesty's office of Woods, Forests, &c.
 At Genoa, John Watts, Esq. late of Cheltenham, aged 74.
 At Koningsberg, Prussia, David Guthrie, Esq. banker, Dundee.
 Sunday morning, at Ennis, after a short illness, Patrick Kean, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, son of the late Robert Kean, Esq. Hermitage. Kindly disposed, he was esteemed by all who knew him, and his early dissolution is regretted by his family and friends.
 On Monday, at his residence in Cahir, to the sincere regret of a wide circle of friends, Doctor T. Beale, Surgeon to the Cahir Dispensary.
 Of typhus fever, the Rev. Francis Tynan, PP. of Kinetty, King's County.
 The Rev. Michael M'Gann, Roman Catholic Curate of Rivers-town, county Sligo.
 In York, Honor, mother of Mr. John O'Flaherty, house-painter, and formerly of Bauagher, King's County, aged 80.

Att
 20th J in the miums
 March
 more y
 Depart life, of 1839, o premiu terest, when t be mad option
 The Office, above s derived fact th establis punctu point o wealthy
 The
 without Parti due the days of The
 without
 The
 majorit
 The b distinct are no therefo
 The
 may be should days all Belfa
 Cork
 Dubli
 Dungs
 Lond