" My attention has been directed to the state of the law and practice with regard to the occupancy of land in Ireland. I have deemed it advisable to institute extensive local inquiries into a subject of so much importance, and have appointed a commission with ample authority to conduct the requisite investigation.

" I recommend to your early consideration the enactments at present in force in Ireland concerning the registration of voters for members of Parliament. You will probably find that a revision of the law of registration, taken in conjunction with other causes at present in operation, would produce a material diminution of the number of county voters, and that it may be advisable, on that account, to consider the state of the law, with a view to an extension of the county franchise in Ireland.

"I commit to your deliberate consideration the various important questions of public policy, which will, necessarily, come under your review, with full confidence in your loyalty and wisdom, and with an earnest prayer to Almighty God to direct and favour your efforts, to promote the welfare of all classes of my people."

[We are indebted to our cotemporary, the Evening Mail of last evening, for the above copy of the Royal Speech, which was expressed to its Editor, the London papers not having arrived.]

The election for the county Tipperary will take place on Saturday next, the 19th inst. at Clonmel.

The fancy and full dress Ball in aid of the nearly exhausted funds of Barringtons' Hospital, which is to take place on the 16th inst. under the auspices of Lodge 13, promises to excel in brilliancy and effect every other assembly that has taken place in this City for a series of years. The rank, fashion, and beauty of this and the surrounding Counties have, we understand, signified their intention of being present on the occasion; and we have reason to believe that the Committee are making every effort to ensure the gratification of the assembly, and to realise the hope of being able to serve an institution, having such paramount claims on all the better feelings of our nature.

Her Excellency the Countess De Grey has given large orders to Mr. Wm. Lloyd, proprietor of the most extensive Lace establishment in this city. Mr. Lloyd has just completed for her Excellency a magnificent lace scarf and pocket handkerchief of very elaborate design and novel workmanship; on receiving which her Excellency was pleased to appoint Mr. Lloyd, Lace Manufacturer to her Excellency and the Irish Court.

The schooner Nymph, of and for Limerick for Liverpool, grounded on the Blackwater bank, Wexford. The Coast Guards, and shore boats, gave assistance, and after discharging a portion of her cargo, coal, the vessel was got off with triffing injury, and proceeded. The Nymph was on fire at Liverpool docks, as previously reported.

COURT OF QUEEN'S. BENCH-FEB. 2.

Their Lordships sat at eight minutes after ten o'clock this morning. At ten o'clock Mr. O'Connell and the other traversers entered court.

Mr. Whiteside then rose and said he should first draw the attention of the jury to the charge in the indictment upon the subject of arbitration courts.

When Mr. Whiteside had concluded his speech, the Court adjourned for forty minutes. Upon their lordships taking their seats, the Chief Justice called upon Mr. M. Donagh Q.C., to address the jury, upon which-

The Learned Gentleman proceeded to say, that he appeared as counsel for Mr. Richard Barrett, proprietor of the Pilot newspaper. He then proceeded to comment at some length on the proceedings of the Tullamoore meeting, and the evidence in reference to He stated that the next to which he should refer was the Baltinglass meeting, and it being five o'clock, asked the Court whether they wished him to proceed. The Chief Justice thought it was rather late, and the Court adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow.

TO SIR R. PEEL. BART. PRIME MINISTER.

Traversers' Bar, Queen's Bench, Jan. 30, 1844. Sir-Having had great practice in restoring the peace of Ireland among the Terry Alts and Whitefeet, among their midnight woods, and bogs, and morasses, and mountains, during their two insurrections, I hereby volunteer my services in trying to prevent her Majesty's Irish Attorney General-The First Law Officer of the Crown (an office held by the illustri us Norbury)-from using and threatening physical force and violence in the Court of Queen's Bench, where her Majesty is presumed to be present in person.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, THOMAS STERLE. O'Connell's Head Pacificator of Ireland.

"Facts are Stubborn Things" ND to Illustrate "a fact" by " a fact," will be It the simplest way of placing the "fact" before a discerning public, and thus it is :-4lb of Tea, usually sold to the public at 5s per lb. 20s 31b of Hosequa's Celebrated Mixture, at 6s per lb. 18s.

Leaving a profit, in favour of the public who } 2s. use Howqua's Teas, of

For it is a well authenticated " fact" that THREE spoonsfull of Howqua's Tea make much stronger and a considerably better flavoured Tea, than your spoonsfull of the Tea usually sold at 5s. ; therefore, it is an undeniable " fact" that the public have How-QUA's MIXTURE, the best Tea in Ireland, at a cheaper rate than they pay for common 5s, Tea.

Consumers of Tea look at this " fact ;" you have the BEST TEA in IRELAND 10 per CENT. cheaper than the generality of leas which are sold at 5s. per 1b.
