

as to battle all efforts
 Mohide, in this county,
 lesiastical Board.
 Church of Roscrea :—
 rector of Birr ; 8th—T.
 th—The Lord Bishop of
 tor of Ballingarry ; 29th
 W. Edwards, Curate of lin was re-opened for
 an expenditure of £900
 mon would not suffer a Lieut. De Winton, into the Sabbath. The dee, of Tuam, has made
 Rev. John M'Culloch
 cant by the death of the Terence O'Kean from
 ed by the Rev. Patk.
 y, Michael Curley from uring at Adam and Eve
 athmines, who served on e purchaser of the Fox-
 hillings each, and costs,
 eiland, for cockfighting.
 rrelled with Mr. Vaughan, houses seperate from the
 was said would disfranchise
 lee and Listowell is com-
 is appointed to the Kin-
 the late Dr. Smyth. pamphlet, "Ireland under vative, and a Roman Ca-ctures at the Sligo Meeha-
 he Kerry Savings' Bank, invested last year. Num-
 part of last impression :
 wnes was received with rary salute from her great ptain Sir H. Blackwood, at the Depot of the 33d on rvice companies at New

At St. George's, Hanover-square, Captain Whitelock, East India Company's Army, to Annie, daughter of the late A. G. Storer, Esq. of Purley-park, Berks.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at Ralahine Cottage, at the advanced age of 80, beloved, esteemed, and regretted, by her family, her friends, and the poor, Diana, relict of the late Boyle Vandeleur, Esq. of Ralahine, county Clare, Lieut.-Colonel of the Clare Militia.

Yesterday, in Mungret-street, Mr. William Jackson—an old and respected inhabitant of St. John's Parish.

Sarah, second daughter of Mr. J. Dallas, George's-street.

On the 22nd inst. at Newcastle, Jane, relict of the late Roger Lombard, Esq.

At Seafort, Sligo, Catherine, wife of Richard Wood, Esq.

At Raphoe, Rebecca, daughter of the late Isaac Pitcairn, Esq.

Mrs. Frewen, wife of Thomas Frewen, Esq. Imishannon.

In Cork, William Fuller, Esq. Lieutenant half-pay 4th Foot.

Mr. William Martin Nealor, Cork.

At Ballinasloe, Mr. John Clayton.

At Adelaide-terrace, Cork, Deborah, relict of the Rev. Pierce Power, of Affane, county Waterford.

At Woodbine Villa, Blackrock, Noble Johnson Lindsay, Esq.

At Peter-street, Miss Jane Weld, aged 95 years.

At Ballinasloe, Mrs. Hozier, relict of the late Thomas Hozier, of Hollywell, county Galway, Esq. Solicitor.

At Kinlough, Leitrim, Miss Johnston, niece of the late Robert Johnston, Esq.

At Abbeyleix, Samuel Barker Greene, Esq. of Garryduff, county Tipperary.

At Kingscourt, Bedel Daly Winning, son of the Rev. Robert Winning.

At Loughrea, Maria, wife of Paul Dolphin, Esq.

In Carlow, Mr. J. Cummins.

At Wisebaden, Germany, Mary Anne, only child of the late Richard Bunworth, formerly of Mallow, Esq. and Captain in the 86th Regiment.

In London, J. Harman, Esq. the head of the firm of Harman & Co. of Adam-court, Broad-st. and Governor of Bank of England in 1816.

At Greenock, Miss Hopkins.

At Glasgow, of fever, Surgeon James Douglas, eldest son of the Rev. Mr. Douglas, minister of Kilbarchan.

At Windsor, Mr. John Burn, late of Southampton, aged 78.

At South Lambeth, Prudence Lucas, sister of Alderman Lucas, aged 75.

In his 72d year, Mr. Munday, the well-known bookseller of Oxford-st.

At Cornwood Vicarage, the Rev. G. Oxenham, aged 73, Vicar of that Parish, Rector of St. Petrock's, and Prebendary of Exeter Cathedral.

Of apoplexy, the Rev. John Jones, minister of Blakeney, Gloucestershire.

At Bishop's Hall, near Taunton, Sarah, the wife of the Rev. Dr. Everard.

At Manheim, Germany, Captain William Payne, of Nutwell, near Lypstone, Devon.

On Wednesday, in Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, sincerely and deservedly regretted, the Rev. William Bushe, son-in-law of the late J. Daxon, Esq. of Strasburg, county Clare.

In Carlow, at the house of his son, Dr. White, Lawrence Edmond White, Esq. of Scarvagh, county Wexford, late R. M. for Leitrim.

At Templemore, the widow of Capt. Grey, Tamworth.

In Digges-street, Mrs. Editha Ball, wife of Robert Ball, Esq. Solicitor.

At his residence, in Lower Baggot-street, James Watson, Esq. aged 72 years.

At Liscarroll, Mr. Charles Osborne.

John, son of the late J. P. Beasley, Esq. of Cork.

At his seat, Woodville, Queen's County, Frederick Thompson, Esq. in his 80th year.

In London, Major-General Sir Gregory Way, Bart.

12

FOR
TO SAIL AB

(WIND AND

The very fine, Fast

E

305 TONS B

JOSEPH BU

T THIS well-known despatched abo
 usual most comforta
 of Passengers, and Water, together wit
 agreeably to Act of
 rable opportunity to Every exertion wi
 the voyage as comfo
 Apply to the own
JAMF

13

W WILL Cover I
 from Gort,

POUNDS each Mare,
BARRIER is a da
 standing 15 hands 3
 per and constitution
BARRIER was g
 and Defence is Sire
 dern times, Defens
 of the Oaks ; Barri
 winner of the Great
BARRIER was c
 England of his year
 Sussex and Molec
 Eubey, who subsequ
 Derby, as a 3 year
 Bath, the Coburg
 and the Foals Stak
 land, who ran 3d
 diately after that he
 his career as a Race
 His winning in S
 £2000.
 N.B.—Hay, Cor
 most moderate terr