...appearance of a gun shot wound, ...produce it. ...Mr. Coppinger addressed the Jury for the prisoner, ...urging that there was no evidence to show that he was ...the person who inflicted the wound which caused ...Mulcahy's death. ...A verdict of "Not Guilty" was returned. ...Cornelius Harding, an apprentice of Mr. William ...Johnston, George-street, Chandier and Tobacco mer- ...chant, was indicted for embezzling money and goods ...the property of his master, and for having several ...pieces of silver coin, also the property of Mr. Johnston. ...The prisoner pleaded Guilty. ...Mr. Coppinger said the prisoner was sorry for the ...offence with which he stood charged—being conscious ...of his guilt, he thought it the best course he could ...adopt was to acknowledge it, and throw himself on his ...Lordship. He was of a very respectable family, and ...would receive an excellent character. ...Mr. William Johnstone, his master, gave Harding a ...character as a well conducted lad up to the period of ...his offence. ...Mr. John R. Heuston, of Tipperary, also spoke highly ...of the prisoner's character, and said his family were in- ...dependent and respectable. ...The Judge deferred passing sentence. ...A young urchin named Bartholomew Meyres, a sweep, ...was found guilty of stealing a shawl, the property of ...Bridget M'Mahon, of Thomond-gate, and sentenced to ...one month's imprisonment. ...The trial of James Lyddy, of Palmer town, for fraud ...in the purchase of corn, was postponed by the Crown, ...the traverser being allowed to stand out on his own ...recognition. ...Mary Greatrix was indicted for stealing two yards ...and a-half of blue cloth, the property of Mr. George ...Grubb, of Patrick-street. ...Mr. Gilbert Dowling swore that two yards and a-half ...of blue cloth was purchased at Mr. Grubb's, on the ...2d of December, by a clergyman, who left it at the shop ...to be sent to his tailor; missed it about 7 o'clock; saw ...it after with Sergeant Riedy. ...Sergeant Riedy traced the robbery to the prisoner. ...Verdict—Guilty. ...Mary Anne Ward, indicted for stealing a cloak, the ...property of Honora Molony, of Cornwallis-street, ...pleaded guilty. ...Catherine Joyce was indicted for stealing ribbons ...from the shop of Cummin and Mitchell, George's-st. ...William Davis deposed that the prisoner went into ...the shop with another girl; they asked to see ribbons, ...and having been shown them she made off, with two ...pieces, leaving her companion at the counter—Verdict ...—Guilty. ...Daniel Shaughnessy, Michael King, Edward Browne, ...and Patrick M'Namara, were indicted for stealing 8lbs. ...weight of unmanufactured tobacco, out of the Queen's ...stores, in Michael-street. ...Sub-Constable Frawley, from information he re- ...ceived proceeded to the Queen's stores, and met two ...of the prisoners coming out, made them return, searched ...the four prisoners inside and found tobacco in their ...hats and pockets; Shaughnessy said "that the wages ...in the store would not support their families, if they ...didn't take the tobacco." ...Jeremiah Cronin, Sub-constable, corroborated Fraw- ...ley's testimony. ...The prisoners withdrew their plea of not guilty, and ...pleaded guilty. ...The Rev. Richard Walsh, P.P. gave Shaughnessy a ...character. ...To Mr. Coppinger—Smoking has increased very much ...since temperance set in; I heard the prisoner say he ...didn't think it any harm to take the tobacco, as he ...often saw it burned in store. ...The Rev. Richard Moore gave Brown a character, as ...a well conducted proper young man. ...The Rev. James Quin, P.P. of St. John's, also gave ...Brown a character. ...Counsel for the Customs—Messrs. Bennett, and ...Freeman, Q.C. Agent—Mr. Thomas Carte. ...Patrick Mulquenny indicted for stealing several arti- ...cles of wearing apparel, the property of Patrick Lough- ...lin, of Thomondgate, pleaded guilty. ...Mary Normoide was indicted for stealing 20 yards of ...cloth, the property of Daniel Ryan, of William-street. ...Patrick Hickey deposed that he was standing in Mr. ...Ryan's shop on the night of the 20th of Dec.; while ...Mr. Ryan was shewing cloth to a tailor, he looked to- ...wards the door and observed some one dragging a piece ...of cloth off a shutter; ran out and detected the prison- ...er running away with; kept her in custody. ...Verdict—Guilty. ...William and Alice Macnamara were indicted for steal- ...ing 100 yards of rope, the property of Mr. Edward ...Kenniffeck. ...Verdict—William Macnamara guilty of stealing; the ...female guilty of receiving. ...Catherine Quin and Thomas Cotter were indicted for ...stealing four yards of cloth, the property of Mr. Leslie ...Acheson, George's-street. ...Mr. Robert Evans proved the loss of the cloth, which ...he subsequently saw with Sergeant Riedy. ...Sergeant Riedy having been informed of the robbery, ...went on the "look-out," and in Roche's-street, ap- ...prehended the prisoners, who were at the time disputing ...as to whom the booty should belong. The female ...brought him to Mr. Acheson's, to show him where it ...was stolen from. ...Verdict—Catherine Quin, guilty of stealing; Tho- ...Cotter, of receiving. ...John Hogan was indicted for stealing copper coin, the ...property of Edmond Bushe, of Mary-street, on the ...24th of January. ...The prisoner stole behind Bushe's counter, and made ...off with 6s. or 7s. shillings, made up in paper—Guilty. ...Jeremiah Donovan was indicted for stealing a watch, ...value £5, the property of Mr. Benjamin Guest, of Rut- ...land-street. ...Mr. Henry Guest proved that while his brother was ...at work near the window he saw the prisoner take a ...watch out of the glass case, which was on the counter. ...He ran out after him, brought him into the shop, and ...while searching him he let the watch drop out of his ...hand.—Guilty. ...Bridget Leary, indicted for having stolen a jacket, ...handkerchief, and some money, at Post-office-lane, ...the property of Patrick Wall, was found guilty, the ...prosecutor having proved that the prisoner carried him ...to a brothel and robbed him. ...Patrick King was indicted for having, at Thomond- ...gate, several instruments for the purpose of coining, ...and also for making counterfeit coin. ...Sergeant Reidy sworn—Knows Patrick King; he ...lives in Thomondgate; I went to his house in Novem- ...ber last, with Constable Coe and Sub-Constable Arnold; ...it was with much difficulty we were admitted; we ...searched the house and found several matters there. ...[Sergeant Reidy here produced a variety of materials ...used for coining]. ...Constable Coe and Sub-Constable Arnold, also pro- ...duced implements found by them in the prisoner's house, ...amongst them a machine for milling shillings, together ...with several pieces of base coin, resembling a shilling. ...Mr. John Parcell was examined and proved that the ...articles produced were used for coining. ...The Judge briefly charged the jury, who immedi- ...ately returned a verdict of Guilty. His Lordship sentenced ...him to be transported for 14 years.
