

the Irish Society is being to, the Dean of St. Patrick's ip on the Dublin and Droerday. The train, containing lf-past eleven o'clock, and istance to Drogheda in an

Union Workhouse, named , at the of 106 years! This f Dublin, and lived in the et.

r Court an action for seduc-
-was tried. The defendant, Balbriggan, contrived by his er, a tenant, off the land, to nter, an innocent young girl; atrage upon the poor farmer's as a wife and children. The by Counsellor O'Hara, and f, £30 damages with costs.

held its weekly meeting yes-
, Esq. in the chair. Mr. W. ohn O'Connell, M.P. attended. r from Mr. O'Connell, inclo-nd, and alluding again to his ovent-Garden. He anticipates bill for Ireland will be founded g, with the arbitrary Chandos e contributions to the Repeal ted to £341; but the sum t storms upon the Irish coast n Friday and Saturday. The sels and the damage done to as been considerable. On Saonvulsed, and the weather so ailway trains could run only n the shore, as the waves for made clear breaches over, the s washed the ballasting away. oners drove on the rocks near d have become perfect wrecks; e Old Harbour, which is any-

They had either burst their om when fouled by vessels that e unfortunate vessels have likeelanchsly to state the schooner laden, from Whitehaven, was en crossing to Burford Bank, All the vessels that anchored harbour which is sheltered by

The steamer Queen Victoria t should have sailed on Sun-rt until next morning. The recked are as follows:—Brig Prig Mary of Whitehaven.

Government intend establishing a general metallic currency in Ireland, by withdrawing the £1 notes from circulation. In England no bank note under £5, is suffered to have currency.

Government engineers are making a survey of the line for a canal or railroad between Loughs Gill and Allen, Leitrim.

James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest upon the body of Nancy Hannan, a young woman, who ran out of her father's house at Kilpeacon, and perished of epilepsy, on Saturday night. The same officer held an inquest at Ragamus, upon Laurence Ryan, who was found dead in a fit on Sunday. Verdicts accordingly.

There were only four committals for drunkenness from the City Police-office, after Patrick's Day.

Sergeant Riedy apprehended on Monday Mary Tuoghy, charged with robbery of wearing apparel, the property of Denis Scanlan, of Clare. She was detected in the act of pawning her booty.

The Poor Law Commissioners have determined on appointing four Provincial Auditors of Poor Law Union accounts in Ireland, at a salary of £500 per annum each.
A further waste of money! This needless aggravation of the existing burdens will only make the Poor Law establishment more obnoxious still to the public.

There are but three of the electoral divisions of the Newcastle union contested at the present election, viz.
Monegea, Mahonagh, and Newcastle. No contest in the other ten divisions of the union.

We are rejoiced to learn by a letter to a friend in this city, to-day, that the benevolent Mrs. Fry, whose life was despaired of by her physicians, has rallied, and they recommend her removal to Bath, as soon as the extreme debility she now suffers under shall permit.

The several Knots of Friendly Brothers in Ireland celebrated the anniversary of St. Patrick by convivial dinners on Monday last.

Masonic Lodge, No. 13, in this City, have taken the commodious and elegant dwelling of William Roche, Esq' in George's-street, which they intend to fit up as a central Club House for the numerous members of that Lodge, and of the other Brethren of the North Munster district.

Masonic Lodge, No. 208, comprising nearly all the respectability of North Tipperary, will give a grand entertainment to-morrow, at their Hall, at Nenagh, to which several of the Brethren of neighbouring Lodges are invited. The Grand Master of North Munster, the High Sheriff, and N. Maher, Esq. M.P. will be amongst the guests.

The ball intended to be given by the Ennis Club is postponed to Easter week.

The following arrangements and appointments have just been made in the Customs' department:—Mr.
Miller, comptroller at Exeter, to be comptroller at Waterford; Mr. Gardner, comptroller of Waterford, is to be collector at Lancaster; Mr. Colin Symers, col-

Colonel Mans-
don on Friday, t

Major-Genera
the Colonelcy of the Service not i in 1798, as Co gallant veteran v upon the Staff o ago, when on in Lieut.-Colone gave an elegant officers of the arrival of head-garrison.

Lieut. Morrit
As the divisi Buttevant from officers were ho non-commission

The late Ma
the Service as C and graduated goons, 10th, 52 corps he comm and 13 children

Major Tulloc
day, enrolled at pensioners, an

The Resista
Monday for Qu
Canada.

Private E. G rade in a bo offender, Slow

Capt. Taylor
Fort, is to em
Island, Cork.

Capt. Tylder
from Woolwic
the new carbin

Several men employed diggi and repository Gunners Norv company, havi gravel above t they were kille

Lt.-Col. W. week, comman nees, where under him.

Colonel Str
returnes hom

Lieut. and pany in that at Corfu.

The Acre p