County of Clare.
AUCTION
OF VERY SUPERIOR DAIRY STOCK,
One and Two-year-old Heifers and Bullocks, Bulls, Fat Sheep, Farm Horses, Brood Mares, Young Horses, Farming Implements, Dairy Utensils, &c. &c.
MR. JAMES HEALY having set the Farm of KILBRICKEN, has fully instructed JAMES MARSHALL To Sell by perfectly Unreserved Auction on the Lands of KILBRICKEN, county of Clare, (within one mile of the town of Clare, and 2 1/2 from Ennis,) on TUESDAY, the 23d of APRIL, 1844, the following:
30 Very superior half-bred Springers, and new Calved Cows in very fine condition, all Top Milkers.
30 Two-year-old Heifers, not to be equalled in Clare.
20 Yearling Heifers, very promising.
10 Bullocks,
30 very forward 3-year-old Heifers.
70 Two-year-old Fat Widders.
1 Four-year-old Imported Durham Bull.
1 Two Highly bred.
3 Stout Brood Mares, with Foal to a thorough-bred Horse.
3 Two-year-old Colts, of great promise.
3 Yearlings, do. do.
4 Strong Farm Horses.
The Implements and Dairy Vessels consist of Carts, Cars, Ploughs, Harrows, Roller, Turnip Slicer, Sheep Crib, Tackling Troughs, Churns, Keelers, Tubs, &c.
Approved accepted bills, with stamp and interest added, for any sum over £20, will be taken in payment.
Lunch at One o'Clock, and Sale to commence immediately after, to enable persons coming from Limerick to return by the evening Coaches.
The Dairy Stock in the above lot are really worthy the inspection of those requiring Milk, they are principally half-bred, and are of that peculiar strain so profitable to the Dairy, and so scarce at present in Clare. They have been well wintered. The two-year-old Heifers are of a class to do credit to any lot for Ballinasloe. The Yearlings are large and very promising. The Sheep are finished fat, and the Farming Implements and Dairy Utensils are of the most approved principle.
JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer.

A Board of Medical Officers attend every day at 12 o'Clock precisely, at Mr. GALBRAITH'S Office, Unique Medical Hall, Commercial Buildings.
This Office has been expressly established for effecting Insurances on the Lives of Mariners (whether members of the Royal or Mercantile Navy) Military men, and all General Assurers. The great and distinguishing features, as regards individuals connected with the Navy and Army, are, that the Policies granted to them will cover Voyages of every description and service in every quarter of the globe; that the Premiums will be lower than have ever yet been generally taken by Life Offices for such risks; and, that the Assurance once effected, it will matter not where the Assured may thereafter go, provided the service be under the British Flag. Fishermen and Boatmen of the Coasts of Great Britain will also henceforth be eligible for Insurance at this Office.
SOLE AGENT FOR LIMERICK,
MR. WILLIAM GALBRAITH,
