

...having been publicly noticed. However, was entered on behalf of ...ing forth that "judgment would be ... verdict, unless cause to the contrary ... four days." A copy of this rule was served ... and if they take no step still further ... evil day, the question will be argued ... But the traversers are fully deter- ... stinate the proceedings to the utter- ... ey mean to serve notice on the ... of their intention "to apply for a new ... ejudice to their moving an arrest of ... his, like the side bar rule obtained by ... uires also a service of four days; and ... a place of shewing cause on Friday next ... should not be pronounced, the question ... ed on the part of the traversers will be ... st, whether or no the Court will accede ... ion for a new trial. Each traverser, ... will be entitled to be heard by special ... this be the case, the argument as to ... rial will occupy several days, and this ... g the question raised by the four-day ... the Crown, as to whether or no any ... can be urged sufficient to warrant the ... g that no judgment can be pronounced ... ersers.—Mail.

servant of the Rev. Mr. Roche, P.P. ... ried for the murder of the Rev. gentle- ... d, was acquitted.

eration in the despatch of the Liverpool ... ht to morning, very few go by the latter. ... eamer from Kingstown is at half-past g and a very unfavourable sensation has ... n the public mind against steeple-chasing, ... of the frequency of accidents occurring ... rses—many of them fatal to both.

how of cattle at the house of the Dublin ... commences on Wednesday, promises to ... ny of the preceding years, especially in ... ll sorts. From an early hour, yesterday, ... cattle of the first description, which ... ed considerable pleasure to all who ... xcellent condition.

of fire-arms registered at the first Ses- ... new act in Dublin is, 2,223.

MacHale remitted £115 to the Repeal ... m Tuam in the last week, the contri- ... many priests in that diocese.

OPENING OF TERM.

OF QUEEN'S BENCH—MONDAY.
y of Easter Term, the Court of Queen's ... d its usually crowded appearance on the ... quays in the vicinity of the Four Courts ... from an early hour by an assemblage of ... s—the impression being that Mr. O'Con- ... llow-conspirators were to be called up ... Mr. O'Connell accompanied by two of ... down to the court about twelve o'clock, ... ed into the hall by a large crowd. Of ... ply Messrs. Steele, Gray and Bay made great Southern railway to extend their line to Cork.

The Wexford and Kildare, or South eastern Railway, in connexion with the Dublin and Cashel—capital, £600,000, has been taken up by the monied interest in the localities through which it will run. Mr. Brunel has planned an improved harbour at Wexford, which, in conjunction with the South Wales Railway, will enable the London mail to be delivered at Wexford in less than fifteen hours.

DEATH BY DROWNING.—With sincere sympathy and regret we record the premature death of Bessy, aged ten years, eldest, daughter of George Jackson, Esq. Harbour Master. This interesting child strayed from her parents house in Henry-street, on Sunday last after dinner, to the Canal, where melancholy to relate, the little innocent fell in at the bank side, and met with a watery grave. She was a child of most engaging disposition and manners.

James Bennett, Esq. coroner, held an inquest yesterday. The Rev. James Quin, P. P. of St. John's, who was first person that observed the child in the water, deposed that he was walking on the Canal between four and five o'clock on Sunday evening; he looked up towards the second lock, and saw the child in the water; he was at a distance from her at the time, but heard her cry out, as he believes "Mary;" he immediately ran to the spot, and a man who could not swim went out to save her, but did not succeed; a person coming down the bank at the time had a dog, which jumped into the water; the little girl was then floating above the water, but the dog having put his paws on her, she immediately sunk, and was not raised from the bottom for half an hour afterwards. He did not see any one near the place when he first observed the child in the water.

Dr. Thwaites, who was called on to attend the child in Barrington's Hospital, stated that he applied the usual remedies to restore animation but in vain, as life was extinct.

The Jury returned a verdict of "accidental death." The unhappy parents of the child were not aware that she had left their house, until the melancholy intelligence of her death was made known, nor does it appear that she was in company with any one when this melancholy accident occurred.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy's, (Medical Hall, George-street) tender being the lowest, he was on Thursday declared contractor for medicine to the Kilmallock Union Work-house. Tenders from the first and most extensive houses in Dublin and Cork were received. Mr. O'Shaughnessy supplied the institution for three years and it was stated by the medical gentleman of the Union, that his medicine was of the most genuine kind.

Several letters have been received by gentlemen in Roscommon, pointing out what Captain Starlight wishes to have done, and threatening death if his orders be neglected.

The Cork committee of merchants negatived almost unanimously Mr. Beamish's motion for the establishment of public markets, which the county Agricultural Society are anxious for.

The Assistant Barrister for the county of Killarney