

adduced. He alluded to what he ent" suppression of names from jury list on the plea of the jury list, was like tions raised upon a point which had y ruled by their lordships in the pro-ary to the trial, when an application ave the special jury panel quashed. came to consider the affidavits, they e that the omission of the names from e to a certain degree, and to a certain mitted was purely accidental, and alto-fraudulent contrivance, or that, if fraud sed or imputed to anybody, there was on for supposing that it originated with cted with the prosecution, whatever ight be of suspecting its applicability to Mr. O'Connell had made an affidavit in nt proper to express a belief upon his was a fraudulent suppression of names, designed with a view to his prejudice ; allegation which the crown was there overthrow. It was with the traversers crown, that accusation of fraud originated. hat in consequence of the omission of the jury list, the traversers had not that the chance of having any one pro-man Catholic religion on the jury to as thereby greatly diminished. There tion of fraud respecting the omission, whatever to sustain it ; and it was not to bring forward the circumstance, that y had voted against Mr. O'Connell, as a side the verdict, when it was not argued was itself against the weight of evidence. n the community had a right to exercise ehise, and the court were not then to er the jury had voted for or against Mr. the elections of the city of Dublin. If orm the ground of objection it would be ct from the panel a sufficient number of had not expressed their opinions, by f their franchise on one side or the he should contend, was no reason aside the verdict. Now he had lordships' attention to the fact he state to them, as it was important.— e list of St. Audoen's parish that the aken place, and that very list had been anded to the clerks of Mr. Mahony. gentleman called the attention of particularly to the connexion thus esose clerks of Mr. Mahony with the origich contained the names whose subsequent complained of by the traversers. Having avit sworn by Mr. Kemmis, the Crown Solicitor General proceeded to complain l been introduced into them, as a ground e verdict, the circumstance that the Crown struck off the names of certain persons of atholic religion. What had the exercise ion to do with the setting aside of the vers the right of each party to strike off the lve persons—a right exercised by the travelves ; and was it not the duty of Mr. t aside those whom he had great reason ejudiced in favour of the persons charged ent, by reason of the fact that they were r had subscribed to the funds of the associaoceedings were the overt acts complained of. ght home to nine of the persons struck off nexion with the Repeal Association, and Committee" to watch over the interests of the trade, our butter did not sustain its former high fame. We are now happy to find, for the credit of Limerick, that the trade have, during the last month, held several meetings, and that they have appointed a committee for the current year, whose character will be a sure guarantee to the public, that their interests will be faithfully attended to. We understand that the committee sent specially to Cork, to engage the services of Mr. Johnson (whose experience and judgment as an "Inspector of Butter" has been well tried and vouched for by the first houses in that city.) The vast increase of Butter to this market, in consequence of these salutary regulations, is directly calculated to procure beneficial employment for many persons. We refer to the advertisement for names of committee, and other particulars.

The Earl of Devon, Sir Robert Ferguson, M.P.
George Hamilton, M.P. and Mr. Wynn, M.P. attended in Drogheda, to hear evidence on the landlord and tenant question. Messrs. Francis Donagh, Patrick Mathews, and Nicholas Markey, nominated by the Board of Guardians for the purpose, were examined.

The chief questions upon which the Landlord and Tenant Commissioners of Inquiry require information are—Tilling, grazing, draining, rent, tenure, or good will, improvement, subletting, agency, cess, rent-charge, and poor-rate.

Lady Isabella Fitzgibbon is expected at Mountshannon this week.

Lady Headley has left Aghadoe house for Kingstown.
The Spring levy, 1844, on the borough of Limerick is 1s. 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per pound ; ditto, instalment on old liberties, 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per acre ; do., on North Liberty barony, 2s.
4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ditto.

The spring county cess upon Tralee is £249.

At the Police-office, on Monday, T. P. Vokes, and John Crips, Esqrs. presiding, informations were ordered against Mary Burns, for maliciously breaking glass in the windows of Miss Turner, Charlotte's-quay, and running away with a pair of shoes. Four persons in custody since Saturday night for being drunk in the streets, were discharged, and Peter Mortimer was fined 2s. 6d. for a like offence ; John Falvey, charged with stealing ropes, Martin and Patrick Keough, arrested for stone throwing in the streets, and George Ross, for rioting in Nicholas-street on Saturday night, and breaking the windows of Mr. James Sexton, were remanded for Petty Sessions.

The young girl, Catherine Mulqueen, who was gored by a cow near Castlepark, died on Monday, at her father's house, whither she had been removed from hospital on Saturday evening, in a hopeless state.

Mr. Thos. Nolan is declared contractor for supplying the City gaol with new milk, at 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per quart, and sour milk, at  $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per quart.

County Cork Quarter Sessions—Kanturk, 24th June ; Youghal, 4th July.

The joint stock banks of Ireland are—the Bank of Ireland, 23 branches ; Provincial Bank, 36 branches ; National Bank, 37 branches ; Belfast Bank, 17 branches ; Ulster Bank, 13 branches ; Northern Bank, 11 branches ; London and Dublin Bank, 7 branches. The Royal Bank, and Hibernian Bank, have no branches out of Dublin.

The Legislative Council of Capetown, Cape of Good Hope, voted £500 compensation to Mr. Field, the collector of customs there, for passing 1290 liberated Africans for labour in the above colony, as apprentices.
These negroes were imported from St. Helena, where the Queen's cruisers landed them from slave vessels they

Two subalterns of fought a duel last each without injury
Major Parke, Cey
a large fortune.

The 13th Light D
the 7th inst. for W Head quarters will b

Ensign Montgom
his horse at Manche

Capt. Ballard, sor exchanged from the ment, to the 44th, week, to Miss Philli

No medical office
Veteran Companies district is to attend.

Ensign Francis, C
money orders, to d to bail at Bow-street each. His female c

Assistant-Surgeon
resigned his commi

The Depot Adjut
promotion of Lieut
tancy, vice Sharpe,

Lieut. Birch, 25t

The Officers on Governor-General c of Directors, are Guards, Military S
Dragoons, Lieut.
Hellier, 14th Light

The last division three Lieutenants, officers, and 140 ra at Chatham this transport, for Sydn the 51st, 80th, 96th same conveyance.

Ensign Forster,
for accidentally dri

The late Lt. Col Hull, entered the
and with which he lost his left leg at

Lieut.-Colonel B
nant of Sussex.

Thomas M. Carv
East Middlesex Mi

Corporal Nash a were tried for a st and the other sent

It may be inter birthday has been
May ; 1840, 25th
May ; 1843, 6th

Mr. Manning,
port of London, b a year. Mr. Man

service of the cro Patrick Lynch,
who died suddenl left a very large whoever they be,

At the Curragh dare won the Que
Mr. Digby's Desp
Mr. O'Callaghan'

Madame Garc