GREAT Southern & Western Railway (SECOND DIVISION)
From CORK and LIMERICK, through MALLOW and CHARLEVILLE, to join the "Dublin and Cashel Railway" at or near HOLY CROSS.
THE advantages presented by the formation of this line of Railway, in connecting the important Cities of CORK and LIMERICK with DUBLIN, must be obvious to every one, and there can be but one opinion as to the immense benefit that must result when this Undertaking is carried out.
It is intended that this Railroad shall commence at CORK, passing through LIMERICK, to join the Dublin and Cashel Company at HOLY CROSS: It can be constructed at a moderate expense, as there are no Engineering difficulties to encounter.
The Landed Proprietors in the several Districts through which this Railroad is intended to pass, and the inhabitants of the Towns on and near the line, entertain the most favorable opinion of the undertaking, and have expressed themselves most desirous for its adoption.
The Traffic that now exists between both cities fully justifies its construction, and is probably not exceeded on any line of equal extent in the United Kingdom at present unoccupied by a Railway, and holds out every inducement for the investment of Capital.
This line has been in contemplation for a length of time by the Projectors, who have anxiously waited to ascertain the intentions of Government towards the Dublin and Cashel Company, on the success of which the proceedings as to the construction of this line entirely depended.
The House of Commons, aided by the powerful assistance of Government, on Friday, the 17th of May instant, dispensed with the Standing Orders to enable the Dublin and Cashel Company to proceed with their Bill, and there is no doubt that the same will receive the sanction of Parliament this Session. It is therefore reasonable to expect that the last-mentioned Company will give every support in their power in carrying out this measure: Forming, as the two Companies will do, one continuous line of Railway from Dublin to Limerick and Cork.
The Projectors confidently rely upon the full co-operation and concurrence of the IRISH PUBLIC in promoting this valuable line of Railway. A detailed Prospectus, with the names of the Provisional Committee, will be issued in a few days; in the meantime, any further information may be obtained on application to Mr. BILLING, Acting Secretary, at the Company's Temporary Offices, No. 4, Manchester Buildings, Parliament-street, Westminster, London.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS AND GRAZIERS. GROWTH OF WOOL.
THOMAS BIGG, Chemist, &c., 15, Crawford-street, Portman-square, London, begs to call the attention of Farmers and Graziers to his valuable SHEEP-DIPPING COMPOSITION,
For effectually destroying the Tick, Lice, and all other insects, injurious to the Flock, preventing the alarming attacks of Fly and Shab, and cleansing and purifying the skin, thereby greatly improving the Wool both in Quantity and Quality, and highly contributing to the general health of the animal. He trusts from the established reputation of his Composition, which has now stood the test of several seasons, and has been universally approved, that he may confidently rely on its continued use from year to year, by those friends and patrons whose support he is ambitious to maintain, and whose orders shall at all times have his best attention.
Whilst it cannot be denied that the dipping of Store Sheep and Lambs is very important, a little attention will show that even those to be fattened will derive benefit, inasmuch as by destroying the Tick, &c. (which are known to harass and irritate the animal) they are more likely to go on well. They may be dipped throughout the year during mild weather, but for economy's sake, and particularly to guard against the fly, the whole flock (no kind of sheep whatever on the farm excepted) should be submitted to the operation during the month of July, or within a month after shearing time. In consequence of the serious losses some have sustained from the use of preparations of a dangerous nature in dipping their sheep, the Proprietor of the above Composition begs to assure all Flock-Masters and Breeders of Sheep, that no injury can result from the use of his Preparation, if performed according to the printed directions; in proof of which he begs to observe, that Mr. John Matson, an extensive Breeder in the Isle of Sheppey, publicly stated at the Smithfield Club Show of 1839, that during the last three or four years he had dipped about 1000 sheep with this composition, and had not lost one.
Sold at 8d. per lb. or in quantities of 100lbs. cask included, being amply sufficient to dress 500 Sheep, £3 3s. Directions for use accompanying each Packet.
"Prospectuses," containing a list of distinguished Patrons, may be had either from the Proprietor direct, or from the following Agents; and may also be seen appended to the Advertisement regularly inserted in the Mark Lane Express and Farmer's Magazine.
CAUTION.—In consequence of the unprincipled attempts at imitation of certain parties known to the Proprietor, and in order to obtain the Composition genuine, all Flock-Masters and Breeders of Sheep are earnestly requested to see that the Proprietor's Signature (THOMAS BIGG) appears on a Label, which will in future be affixed to each Package, to imitate which is Felony. Any authentic information of persons so transgressing will be handsomely rewarded.

VERY LARGE SUMMER IMPORTATIONS. SPLENDID VARIETY OF Trowser Stuffs and Pantalons FOR SUMMER COATS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
SIR,—The continued and daily increasing support we are meeting with from the Public, and the consequent increase in our business, as Drapers, together with the healthy appearance which Trade in general appears to be assuming, have induced us upon this, the occasion of our FIRST SUMMER PURCHASES.
To enlarge and extend them to such an extent as to far exceed any former importations of ours, and we believe to excel in Variety and Elegance anything ever heard of before in this city; and we are sure the people will duly appreciate our exertions for having procured for them in this instance, certainly as Fashionable a Stock of Woolen Drapery as was ever offered for public inspection in any retail warehouse in this country. It would be useless to attempt giving any outline of the goods comprising this stock, but we cannot refrain from calling the attention of Clergymen and Professional Gentlemen to our Black Cloths, and Cassimeres. We are at present selling for 11s 3d. a yard, a Black Cloth not only fine enough for any man, but engaged to wear as well as these charged 16s. and 18s a yard for in other houses, and warranted never to lose its colour, and we are ready to support this statement by sending, to be tested, a pattern of this cloth, postage-free, to any part of the country, or to any person requiring it.
In Trowser Stuffs and light material for Summer Coats, we certainly cannot have less than one thousand pieces of these goods, from 2d a yard up, in every shade, in every colour, and in every style now worn.—Such as Tweeds, Cassimeres, Cashmeres, Doeskins, Gambroons, Cassinets, Lastings, Ducks, Drills, Cantons, Printed Moleskins, &c. &c.
IN CLOTHS.
Our Stock now contains Cloths of all shades, and at all prices.
IN VESTINGS.
We hold quantities of Printed and Plain Marseilles and Quiltings, Rich Figured Satins, and Cut Velvet, Shalys, and Shawl Pattern, with several new patterns only out a few days.
IN HATS,
We were never so well supplied, having got in within the last week several cases of every description, including Black and Drab Beavers, Silk, Gossamer, and French Plush Hats, with Boys Hats and Caps in great variety.
TOGETHER WITH
Brown, Drab, Olive, Blue, and Black Beavers, and Pilots, Blankets, Flannels, Baizes, Bockings, Druggets, Corduroys, Friezes, Kerseys, Rugs, Quilts, Counterpanes, Grey and White Calicoes, Plaids for children dresses, &c &c. together with a very large assortment of Trimmings of the most fashionable description, all of which will be sold upon the principle that all large Establishments are now conducted on, that is on such a scale of profit as must insure a quick sale.
We are, Sir, very respectfully yours,
K. TIDMARSH & CO.
