

George M'Iver has joined the Depot 48th, at Guernsey the Assistant-Surgeon proceeds to the Regiment Jamaica.

Captain Harvey late Aid-de-Camp to his father-in-law Major-General Sir Guy Campbell, has left Athlone in the 87th Fusiliers at Glasgow.

On Tuesday evening a young boy was observed drowning in the Clyde, near to Rutherglen bridge. In an instant the spectators were delighted to see a military officer strip off his coat and hat, leap into the river, and save the poor little fellow. Lieut. Staveley, of the 87th, will have the mention of his name in connexion with this noble action.

CHELSEA HOSPITAL.—The anniversary festival dinner in commemoration of the foundation of Chelsea Hospital by King William the 2nd, was celebrated in the Great Hall of the College on the 29th of May. It was attended by the Adjutant General, Quarter Master General, the Major Governor, Sir W. Clinton; Generals Sir James Riall, Brotherton, Sir J. Lushington; Admirals Sir James O'Brien, Hon. G. O'Callaghan; Colonels Sir J. Hod, Clerke, Brown, Sir John Wilson, and the six Regiments of Invalids, the officers of the Royal Hospital, about twenty guests. The dinner was provided by the kitchen, of Berkley-square, and was of the most recherche nature, including real turtle and venison. The refreshments were from Long's, and were most exquisite, and were highly appreciated. The much esteemed Governor, Sir E. B. Lytton, was absent from indisposition.

Lieut. Hugh Pigott, the Admiral in command of the Squadron, has made arrangements for a permanent establishment at Cove.

David Roche, Bart. M. P. of this City, will shortly marry at the hymeneal altar the lovely and accomplished daughter of H. D. Grady, Esq. Q.C. sister of Viscountess Anne, Baroness Muskerry, and Lady Chichester, daughter-in-law of the Marquis of Donegal. Miss White, Esq. late Deputy Grand Master of the Masons of Ireland, was on Thursday presented at the Grand Lodge in Dublin, with a splendid service in testimony of his services to the order.

MILLS IN CORK

TO BE

LET OR SOLD.

TO BE LET on Lease of 7, 14, or 21 Years, as may be agreed on, those recently built and well known Mills concerns on George's-Quay, CORK, upon which upwards of £17,000 have been expended, comprising a Flour Mill (with 8 pair of Stones,) an Oat Mill (with 3 pair of Stones,) Corn Stores, Yards, Linen Stores, Ground Stores, and Bakery, and Bakehouse, together with an excellent FAMILY RESIDENCE, a large Store and several DWELLING-HOUSES, now occupied by persons in business, making the Rent free.

The Mills are worked by One Steam Engine of 35 H.P. of the latest and most improved principle, and the Corn Stores capable of holding 10,000 Barrels. Each Mill is built on a distinct interest, and has Linnies, Cellars, and Ground Stores attached. Each division being well adapted for the making of any description of Provisions on a large scale, and a separate entrance convenient to the Quay at which vessels of 300 Tons can lie;

OR,

TO BE SOLD,

any one or more of the above Concerns in One or Two Divisions, the Oat Mill merely requiring the purchase of a Small Steam Engine to make both divisions complete with their respective Yards, Linnies, &c., and to suit the convenience of purchase, the half of the purchase money would be paid, the remainder out on Mortgage, on such terms as may be agreed upon.

Particulars are to be addressed to A. D. MURPHY, Esq., Barrister at Law, South Mall, Cork, and to JAMES L. MURPHY, Esq., Solicitor, 52, Dame-st, Dublin, who will furnish necessary information and show title.

Cork, May 13.

J. P. Vincent, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn-fields, eldest son of the daughter of the Rev. Henry Budd, Rector of White Roothing, Essex, and grand-daughter of the late General John Hale.

At St. George's, Bloomsbury-square, Charles Mercer, Esq. of Ashford, Kent, to Anne Martha, daughter of the late George Elwick Jemmett, Esq. of Ashford.

Mr. Michael O'Neill, of the City Hotel, Montreal, to Agnes, daughter of Mr. James M'Nider.

At Montreal, Charles Portlock Rubidge, Esq. son of Capt. Charles Rubidge, R.N. Registrar of the Colborne district, to Miss Sarah Maria Russell.

DEATHS.

At Liskennett, James Henry, youngest son of Roger K. Sheehy, Esq.

At Mountpleasant-avenue, Portobello, in the 79th year of his age, William Hannagan, Esq. Assistant Commissary General.

At Ballingarry, Mr. Michael H. Todd. Mr. James Thompson, shoemaker, Secretary to the Ennis Temperance Society.

Robert John, son of J. J. Barry, Esq. Solicitor, South Mall, Cork.

At his brother's house, Carey's Lane, Cork, Mr. James Sheehan.

At his house, in Prince's-street, Cork, Mr. James Ushen.

At the residence of his father, Leitrim-street, Cork, James Griott, Esq.

At his residence, Kilbarry Cottage, near Cork, Thomas Long, Esq.

In Paris, Julia Baldwin, daughter of the late Edward Her- rick, of Bellmount, county Cork, Esq.

At his residence, Kilbride, county Galway, Thomas P. Burke, Esq.

At Demerara, of fever, Captain Robert Robertson, Royal Artillery, fourth son of the late Captain J. Robertson, of the Abbey, Boyle.

In Dublin, William Trevor Stannus, Esq. of Portarlington, late Captain 97th Regiment.

At Phibsborough, Mr. Philip Judge, of Capel-street.

At Upper Buckingham-street, Frances, seventh daughter of the late Rev. James Metge, aged nineteen years.

At Skeg Hall, Great Oakley, Essex, Lieut.-Colonel John Blake Lynch, formerly in the 6th Regt.

Captain Thomas Callard, late of the 81st Regiment, and Adjutant of the South Hants Militia.

At his house in Tiliney-street, Park-lane, Benjamin Rawson, Esq. of Nidd Hall, Yorkshire, in his 87th year.

Of apoplexy, in Philadelphia, the Rev. Edmund Burke, late of St. John's Church, Dublin.

At Ayr, James Sym, Esq. M.D.

At Paisley, Malcolm Roberts, son of Captain Macpherson, Staff Officer, Paisley, and late 74th Regiment.

Mr. James Parlane, timber merchant, Liverpool.

Mr. John Oake, master of the schooner Edith, of Southamp- ton.

At Loxwood House, Sussex, John King, Esq. Deputy Lieu- tenant, and formerly High Sheriff of the county.

Suddenly, Mr. Edward Dry, a favourite actor at Sadlers' Wells.

In Plymouth, Jane, wife of Mr. Wm. Avery, of the Excise- office.

At Liskeard, at an advanced age, T. Robins, Esq. principal partner in the East Cornwall Bank, and Distributor of Stamps for the county of Cornwall.

At Trinity-street, Borough, George Mead, Esq. aged 78, late superintending surgeon in St. Helena.

At Geneva, the Right Hon. Lady Caroline Mary Greville, daughter of the late and sister to the present Earl of Warwick.

At Lawrence Town, Halifax, N.S. Lieut. Joseph Green, R.N. many years a magistrate of the county of Halifax.

At her residence, Sunday's Well, Isabella, the wife of George Chapman, Esq. late of the Royal Canadian Rifles.

At Clifton Terrace, Monkstown, Elizabeth, wife of John Galloway, Esq. Solicitor.

At an advanced age, Catherine, wife of Joseph Acton, Esq. of Bridgemount.

In Dominick-street, Anne, relict of the late Nathaniel Montgomery, Esq.

At Chelsea, Mary, widow of the late W. Tebbs, Esq. of Doctors'-commons.

In Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, Vice Admiral Nor- borne Thompson, aged 75.

At St. Martin's, Guernsey, Ensign George M'Culloch, of the 7th Royal Veteran Battalion.

Suddenly, at Glasgow, Mr. John Gordon, ship-broker.

At Carnmyle, William Rodger, Esq.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

General—C. P. Douglas.

Major-Generals—Crosse, formerly of 36 Reg.; W. P. Price, E. I. Comp. Serv.

Colonel—R. Moncreiffe, late of R. Mar.

Majors—Myers, Unatt. at Sea; J. C. Wallace, E. I. Comp. Serv.

Captains—J. Wilson, h. p. 7 Dr.; R. Robertson, R. Art.; H. Geary, do. on board the Rattlesnake; James, Adj. to E. Kent Mil.

Lieutenants—Allen, 4 Dr. Gds. Northop; Scott, 5 F.; Mof- fatt, 46 F. on board the General Palmer; Anderson, 49 F.; Lethbridge, 85 F.; Olphert, R. Art.; O'Regan, late 4 R. Vet. Bn.; Neale (Adj.) h.p. 25 Dr.; Egan, h.p. 21 F.; Alderson, h.p. 33 F.; R. Madden, late R. Art. Driv.

Commissariat Department—Dep. Comm. Gen. W. Maturin, h. p.

Assist. Comm. Gen. I. Irvine.

I am Sir,
Your obedient ser

Mr. James Slater, Clerk Gort U

Prime DEVONSHIRE
W. J. TOMKINS now offer
• prices,
150 PIPES,
150 HHDS.

Of the very best, full bodied, rich
and he will land to-morrow, ex Ind
50 PIPES,
80 HHDS.

All which will be found worth the purchasers.
WINE VAULTS, 19, WINTH

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

GROWTH OF THOMAS BIGG, Chemist, &c. street, Portman-square, London attention of Farmers and Graziers to SHEEP-DIPPING COMPOSITE

For effectually destroying the Tick, I insects, injurious to the Flock, prev
ing attacks of Fly and Shab, and cle fying the skin, thereby greatly imp both in Quantity and Quality, and h to the general health of the animal.
the established reputation of his Com has now stood the test of several s been universally approved, that he rely on its continued use from year friends and patrons whose support h maintain, and whose orders shall at a best attention.

Whilst it cannot be denied that the Sheep and Lambs is very important, will show that even those to be fatted fit, inasmuch, as by destroying the Ti are known to harass and irritate the a more likely to go on well. They throughout the year during mild weath nomy's sake, and particularly to guard the whole flock (no kind of sheep what excepted) should be submitted to the the month of July, or within a month aft
In consequence of the serious losses sustained from the use of preparations nature in dressing their Sheep, the P above Composition begs to assure al and Breeders of Sheep, that no injury
the use of his Preparation, if perform the printed directions; in proof of wh observe, that Mr. John Matson, an exte the Isle of Sheppy, publicly stated at Club Show of 1839, that during the las years he had dipped about 10,000 Sh composition, and had not lost one.

Sold at 8d. per lb. or in quantities included, being amply sufficient to dres £3 3s. Directions for use accompanying "Prospectuses," containing a list of Patrons, may be had either from the Pro or from the following Agents; and ma appended to the Advertisement regularly
Mark Lane Express and Farmer's Magazi
Sold Wholesale and Retail b

Surgeon O'Shaugh
AT THE MEDICAL HAL
12, GEORGE'S-STREET,
One Door from the Corner of William Limerick