burn's Rooms, Brunswick-street, for the purpose of selecting a person to fill the vacancy caused by the Resignation of Sir David Roche, Bart., the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted. In the absence of the Mayor, Rev. P. D'Arcy occupied the Chair pro tem:—
Proposed by the Rev. Mr. Brahan, P.P.; seconded by Capt. Kane, J.P.:
Resolved—That we cannot permit the present opportunity to escape without bearing testimony to the services of Sir DAVID ROCHE in the popular cause during the long period of twelve years, during which he was our Representative. That his consistent and unswerving advocacy of Catholic Emancipation, during the agitation of that question—his unaltered declarations and votes in favour of Domestic Legislation—his intrepid, proud, and manly support of the Liberator, when a parliamentary faction wanted to trample on him—are solid memorials of his adherence to the popular cause; and we hereby most respectfully and sincerely tender him on his retirement into private life this tribute of our regard and esteem.
Proposed by Mr. Honan, Esq. ex-Mayor, seconded by acclamation.

Resolved—That the resignation of Sir David Roche, as one of our Representatives, renders it imperative on the Repeal Electors of the City of Limerick to take immediate and decisive steps to secure the return of a candidate qualified in every respect to be the object of their choice—that the noble stand taken by James Kelly, Esq., of Erina House, in the glorious struggle for Legislative Independence, most fully entitles him to the unanimous support of the Repealers of this important City—that we hereby pledge ourselves, in testimony of the value we attach to his virtues, his ardent patriotism, and his acknowledged talents, but most particularly for the manner in which he has come forward at an eventful crisis, and thrown himself into the ranks of his countrymen, to use every effort in our power to secure his Election as our Representative in Parliament.
Proposed by Robert M'Mahon, Esq. T.C.; seconded by Thomas Scanlan, Esq.:
Resolved—That a deputation be appointed from this Meeting to wait on Mr. Kelly, for the purpose of soliciting his acquiescence to the foregoing Resolution.
The deputation having returned, accompanied by the Mayor; and Mr. Kelly having acceded to the wishes of the citizens—
Proposed by Rev. James Quin, P.P.; seconded by John F. O'Gorman, Esq.:
Resolved—That an Election Committee be now formed to carry out the object of the meeting, with power to add to their number.
A large and influential committee was then appointed.
Proposed by Alderman Dawson; seconded by the Rev. M. Lyons:
Resolved—That the foregoing resolutions be inserted in the LIMERICK CHRONICLE, Reporter, and Tipperary Vindicator newspapers.
W. J. GEARY, M.D. Mayor, Chairman.
The Mayor having been moved from the Chair, and James Kelly, Esq., having been called thereto, it was Proposed by Nicholas Kelly, Esq., T.C.; seconded by Martin Honan, Esq. T.C.:
Resolved—That the marked thanks of the meeting be given to the Mayor for his readiness in complying with the wishes of the meeting, and for his dignified conduct in the chair.
JAMES KELLY, Chairman.
P. LYNCH, Secretary.

21st June, 1844.
TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF THE CITY OF LIMERICK.
GENTLEMEN,
A VACANCY being shortly about to occur in the representation of our City, I beg, in compliance with the wishes of a Public Meeting of the Citizens of Limerick, held this day, and conveyed to me by the Mayor and a highly respectable Deputation then appointed, to offer myself as a Candidate for the high honor of representing you in Parliament.
In the event of being elected, my anxious care shall be directed to promote the interests of my native City; and, as I feel thoroughly convinced that nothing would tend so much to advance either your welfare or the happiness of Ireland as a RESTORATION OF OUR DOMESTIC PARLIAMENT, I shall use every exertion in my power to secure so desirable an object.
I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES KELLY

MOST ELIGIBLE CIRCUMSTANCED FARM AND Family Mansion TO BE LET, WITH OR WITHOUT A FINE.

MR. MARSH begs leave respectfully to announce that he has received instructions to Let by proposals for a short term of years, the very delightfully situated FARM and COMFORTABLE MANSION of DOON, lying within 2½ miles of Kinsale, 3½ of Innishannon, 7 of Bandon, and 13 of Cork, bounded on the south by the Bandon river, on which commodious Quays are erected, (one for public use) which yields a considerable sum annually, which is daily increasing. The entire of the land is in the prime heart, and its fertility is proverbial yielding as it does the largest crops of Corn in the Country, and the quality of the Grazing Land is such as to produce a greater quantity of Butter than any other in its vicinity.
The FARM and PLEASURE GROUNDS are beautifully planted and completely fenced, and contain 104 Acres (free of rent charge) with suitable range of Out-Offices, viz., Stalls for 28 Cows, neat Dairy, Cooking House, with Steam Boiler and Vessels, complete; Fowl House and Yard, Piggery, Cart Linney, excellent Coach House, Six Horse Stable, spacious Barn and Granary, and in the centre of the Yard a Liquor Tank; all secured by one gate, and to the rear a large enclosed Haggard with Corn Stands and Cart Sheds, all in the most perfect repair. In fact, the entire Farm and Offices do not require the outlay of a single shilling. An abundant and continued supply of Water runs through and by 90 Acres of Land, on the whole of which there is not a foot of unproductive Ground. The fences are most perfect, principally quicks, five feet high. There are Iron gates to every field, which can be entered from within the Farm, on which are five comfortable Houses for Labourers, who afford sufficient labour for the cultivation of the Land.
The MANSION, which is modern built, and fit for the immediate reception of a respectable family, lies due south, facing a Lawn of 9 Acres, and contains Hall and Spacious Sitting Rooms, 4 best Bed Rooms, 2 Servants' Rooms, Pantries, large Kitchen, Scullery, Coal House, &c.; all in the most perfect state of repair. The Garden of 1 Acre, which adjoins the House, is very tastefully laid down and well stocked with choice Fruit Trees, Flowers, and Vegetables, with an abundant supply of the purest Spring Water on the spot.
The Bandon River, which runs by the Farm, affords excellent accommodation for Bathing, as well as for profitable Shooting and Fishing. The neighbourhood is most respectable, and its contiguity to one of the cheapest Market Towns in Ireland, renders it most desirable to a gentleman desirous of combining economy with comfort and profit.
One of the largest Danish Entrenchments in the South of Ireland is on the Farm, at Foot of the River.
The Advertiser has endeavoured to place before the Public a few of the many advantages which this desirable Farm possesses, but which must be seen to be appreciated.
The CROPS, consisting of 29 Acres of Wheat (25 laid down with Grass and Clover), 8½ Acres of Barley, 5 of Oats, 16 of Potatoes, 5 of Turnips, and 17 of Meadowing, will be given at a fair valuation; as also, the Stock, amongst which are some of the best Milchers in the county, Farming Implements, &c.
The House and Lands may be viewed on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and every information can be had on application to the Advertiser, at his Rooms, 30 and 31, South Mall, Cork.

LA POLKA.
MONSIEUR BARNET, the first introducer of LA POLKA into Ireland, and the only certified competent Teacher of his now indispensable Dance, begs to apprise the Nobility and Gentry of LIMERICK, and its environs, that should Pupils offer to receive instructions from him in the POLKA and VALSE A DEUX TEMPS, that he will visit Limerick for that purpose.
Monsieur B. requests immediate application (per letter, post-paid), in order to permit his attendance on other engagements. Terms—For completion in the Polka and Valse a Deux Temps One Guinea.
Monsieur B. is the Master of the Ceremonies of the Dublin Almack Balls, and it was under his superintendence and tuition the Polka was danced at the Castle, in presence of their Excellencies the Lord Lieutenant and the Countess De Grey.
Address No. 6, North Frederick-street, Rutland-square, Dublin.

ROYAL SCHOOL OF BANAGHER.
(CUBA HOUSE)
HENRY OWGAN, A. M. ex-Scholar and Senior Classical Moderator of T.C.D. Master.
THE Course of Instruction taught in this School Comprises:—
IN CLASSICS—The Greek and Latin Language for entrance and subsequent examination in T.C.D. including the collateral departments of Ancient History, Antiquities, Mythology, &c. together with that critical knowledge of Philology which the present system of examination in the University renders indispensable to the attainment of classical honours. The course of the entrance examination in Hebrew also forms a subject of instruction.—Mr. OWGAN still continues to assist students of college in preparing for their Terminal, Scholarship, and Classical Medal examinations, at all which he has been himself a successful candidate.
IN SCIENCE—The Mathematics and Metaphysics of the undergraduate course, viz.—the Physical Sciences, Geometry, Algebra, (including the theory of equations) Trigonometry, Logic, &c. In this department Mr. OWGAN is assisted by a master of first-rate ability and experience; and, as in the classical course, the preparation of pupils is accommodated to the new form of university examination.
IN ENGLISH—The usual branches of Modern History, Geography, Writing, Arithmetic, &c. with the study of such of the English classics as are objectionable in sentiment and language, and the popular branches of Natural Philosophy. Periodical exercises in English Composition will be required.
IN RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION—Which constitutes the chief business of every Saturday, instruction is communicated to the senior classes through the medium of the original languages of Scripture—Hebrew and Greek; being the means best calculated to impart a correct and permanent knowledge of these important truths; and to the junior pupils by the English Scriptures, Catechism, &c.
THE MODERN LANGUAGES—French, Italian, and German are taught by a Native of Germany residing in the house.
An extensive play-ground, and (within doors) a spacious play-room and Gymnasium are appropriated to the physical recreation of the pupils.
Vacation commences on the 22d of June, and business will be resumed (D.V.) according to charter, after 30 days on the 22d July.

Assurances may be effected for £5 and upwards, on the lives of persons resident in the United Kingdom, in the Colonies, on the Continent of Europe, and elsewhere, at Rates proportionate to the nature of the risk.
To Naval and Military Officers every facility will be given for effecting Assurances on their lives.
The business of this Association also embraces Assurances on Survivorships; the granting and purchasing of Annuities; the purchase of Contingent and Reversionary Property; the endowment of Widows and Children and the advancement of Money on available Securities. The Rates of Premium are as moderate as is consistent with perfect security, and a due regard to the benefit of the Policy-holder.
Assurances may also be effected by a single payment, by a payment for a number of years certain, or by such other mode as may meet the views of the Assured; and the Premiums may be paid either yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, at proportionate Rates.
As the most scrupulous care will be taken at the time of effecting the Assurance, in making all the proper enquiries, no Assurance, when once completed, will afterwards be questioned or disputed, except in cases of fraud or misrepresentation.
Policies assigned for bona fide considerations will not become void by death from suicide, duelling, or the hands of justice; and in case where Policies shall not have been so assigned, a discretionary power, founded upon the most liberal consideration, is vested in the Directors to return to the Widow or Children of the Assured, the whole, or any part, of the Premiums paid.
All Claims on the Association in respect of Assurances, will be paid within Three Calendar Months after satisfactory proof of the death of the party.
Risks taken on the Lives of Master and other Mariners, or Passengers by sea, either for the whole Term of Life, or for the voyage.
