

tual friends, that Mr. Lyons and emplated an alliance with the they signed a requisition for the express sympathy for Mr. w sufferers, and also to adopt ment "as may be expedient"— e of conveying the object of a should be precise and intelligible. sonal friends of Mr. O'Connell, m any acknowledgment which e whole Roman Catholic body him, the champion of their civil their political freedom. So far public benefactor, and we repeat Catholic in Ireland he deserves attitude for his eminent ser-extent Mr. Lyons and Mr. ubscribe, but having succountrymen on equality with a'l e great labour of half a century was nt co-operation naturally ceased. ortunately impelled to try ano-the influential host of all per-d him in the former constituce withdrew their countenance. as ominous in its very name, aracter, threatening a national ant with disunion and weakness. n Catholics dissolved their former the new agitation was prosecuted The movement was partial and e a failure. We now behold the incipals are in custody, and the the constitution is viewed with hension than ever.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Monday the Grand Jury was sworn before Robert Tighe, Esq. Assist-man.

George Bevan.
Michael Apjohn.
John Carroll.
Thomas F. Sexton.
Eyre Powell.
Edward Browning.
Edward O'Farrell.
Edward Fitzgerald, and Benjamin Lucas.

informed them that the calendar h, and the cases being of an ordiould have little difficulty in disen retired, and the Court was nder of the day, re-building tra-rs in city cases to appear at the Assistant Barrister declining to rown business.

AGAINST POOR-RATE.

A squad of excellent volunteers from the 82d for the 61st, was approved by Col. Mansel, D.A.G. on Saturday, at Clare Castle, and will join the 61st at Cork.

Lieut.-General Lord Bloomfield, is recovering from a severe indisposition at Woolwich.

Lord Heytsbury, the new Lord Lieutenant will retain the entire of the Earl De Grey's Staff, except Major Parker, of the 1st Life Guards, and Mr. Magenis, Private Secretary.

A clever young man named William Riordon, aged 18 years, was drowned yesterday while bathing at the rere of Fitts brewery, opposite the North Strand. He was sworn in as a recruit for the 21st Fusileers the day previous, before Sir Richard Franklin, and then stated he was from Castlemahon, near Newcastle, in this County.

The 60th and 61st will embark at Cork the latter end of this month, for Bengal, and the 53d in August, for Bombay.

Major-General Sir Guy Campbell inspected the 38th Depot at Boyle on Saturday. Sir Guy expressed his entire satisfaction at their soldier-like appearance.

General Sir Thomas M. Brisbane, Colonel of the 34th, dined the non-commissioned officers and privates of the regiment, besides women and children, at Richmond barracks, Dublin, at his own expense.

The 11th Hussars, in Dublin, relieve the 8th Hussars at Dundalk.

The Bays move to Dublin from Cork, and the 10th Hussars will proceed to India.

The intention to encamp a force on the Curragh of Kildare, this summer, has been abandoned.

Mr. J. Tuckwell, music master, 16th Regt. Dublin, is to leave this month for another corps.

The officers 10th Regt. have got up sailing matches at Athlone. The Athlone regatta will come off next month.

The garrison of Athlone, under Major-General Sir Guy Campbell, on Friday, celebrated the Queen's coronation, and gave three cheers for her Majesty.

Privates Madden and M'Coy, of Capt. Smith's company, 54th, and a young woman, named Mitchell, were drowned on a boating party at Shannon Bridge, on Monday.

Lieut.-Col. Smith, Deputy Adjutant-General, arrived at Boyle from Athlone, for the purpose of inspecting 20 volunteers for the 53d from the 38th Depot. They marched for Cork yesterday.

James Edward Freeth, Esq. late Lt.-Col. of the 64th Regt. and who had been residing sometime at Flora Place, Plymouth, was found dead in his bed on Tuesday. He had not suffered from any serious illness but complained of general debility, which he considered was occasioned by the heat of the weather. A verdict was returned of apoplexy at the Coroner's inquest.

Richard Galway, ex private of the Royals, sentenced at last Tralee Assizes to 7 years transportation for house robbery, is ordered to be sent on to Kilmainham.

The Flan

fired a Roy

Majesty's co

The Com

their defect

for service.

As Richa

Packet Con

were on Su

through Ta

John Sewel

steamer, w perished, o small boat.

brothers fo

also saved

The Snip

from Cork

veyance of

Speedy bei fisheries.

Lieut. B

has joined martial up

A large

the Resista

tary invalid

Prize m

the officers

July. Co

the officer

receive £2

Of 2,61

1,040 in e

The Ra

hour, the

The Nir

pool to C

passage k

The spl

perty of th

from Kin

his two d

ham, wh

The Ea

and Geor

man, vic

Westport

collecting creasing t

The G

intimatio

Land Co

first week mation o

will visit

of Augu