

is holding at our barracks for the 1st Depot at Tralee.

Right Hon. Sir Edward Blakeney, for the west of Ireland on Monday inspection.

the 34th move from Dublin to next.

artial assembled at Belfast, Lieutenants, President; Capt. Maxwell, Advocate, for the trial of prisoners.

ordered from Derry to Naas.

the 85th Depot leave Newbridge when they arrive on the 14th August.

the 55th, under Major O'Leary, on Monday, from Hong Kong. Private of the 4th Dragoons, was transportation, for stealing a horse, at Kilkenny.

bles, Rev. A. Hume, and Rev. orders from the Bishop of on Sunday, and G. Marshall, J. gh, and W. O'Meara, all of which, received Deacons orders.

At the late Scholarship examination, Mr. James Bell, was one of the first and second places) by Dr. Browne's pupils. In the distinctions were also obtained:—

(scholar,) the gold medal of Mr. Richard M. Conner, a first second honor in classics; Mr. honor in classics; *Mr. Ben-honor in science. At the last

Mr. Arthur Bell, was among the examined for first place. *Mr.

been by far the best answerer vacation will end on the 1st of Dr. Browne particularly requests of his pupils.

CK UNION.

of the above Union are desirous for One Year, from the 6th of supply of

HER HOSPITAL REQUISITES

Workhouse.

private formulæ for compounds

's Office.

be required at the same time to supply all other Compounds at ged by the APOTHECARIES' HALL

aining the names of two Sureties the due performance of the con-

me, on or before TUESDAY, to be considered at a meeting of ing day.

By Order,

D. O'CONNOR,

Clerk of the Union.

At St. Mary's, Bath, John Sowdon Scott, Esq. 31st Regiment, to Teresa Ann, daughter of the late Thomas Morris, Esq. of Thornbury, Gloucestershire.

DEATHS.

At his residence, on the Grand Parade, Cork, Thomas Fitzgerald, Esq.

In Francis-street, of scarletina, aged 12 years, Catherine, daughter of the late Mr. James Eyres, Cabinet Maker.

Anne, wife of Christopher Taaffe, Esq. Manager of the National Bank of Ireland in Galway.

At Shrute Glebe, Longford, aged 68 years, the Rev. Francis Maguire, Vicar of the parish of Shrute, which includes the town of Ballymahon.

At his house in George's-street, Cork, Mr. William Hill, architect.

At Fermoy, Mrs. Ferguson, relict of the late Samuel Ferguson, Quartermaster North Cork Militia.

On Monday last, of consumption, aged 13 years, Bartholomew, only son of Mr. John Dartnell, of Ellen-street, printer, and grand-son of the late Mr. Bartholomew Ryan, of Carro-keil, county of Tipperary.

At Kilmain, Joseph Burke, Esq.

Ellen, wife of Charles Tarrant, Esq. C.E. Cowley-place.

At Strokestown, Mr. George H. Stokes.

At Ardee, Anne, daughter of the late George Boylan, Esq.

At Monkstown, Henry Augustus, fourth son of the late James Trail Hall, Esq. of Dublin,

At Drumcondra, Fanny, daughter of Mr. L. Thomas, of Henry-street.

In Blessington-street, James William, second son of Captain Adamson, 38th Regiment.

At Lower Dorset-street, after a long illness, Daniel Kane, Esq.

At Dalkey, Louisa, relict of Abel Onge, Esq. of Haytestown, county Dublin.

In Carlow, Prudence, wife of Mr. Robert Anderson.

Mr. Patrick Larkin, of Thomas-street.

At Hillsborough, Sarah Catherine, daughter of Mr. R. Veale, Officer of Excise.

Drowned in the Avon, the one endeavouring to save the other, Granville Raresby, and Wilbraham, sons of Henry Belville, Esq. late Captain 5th Dragoon Guards.

At Bath, Henry James Amey, Esq. late of the King's German Legion.

At his house in James-street, St. James's Park, Henry Bedford, Esq.

At Wimpole-street, Charles Bouchier, Esq. aged 67.

At his house in Norfolk-street, Park-lane, Joseph Littledale, Esq.

At Plymouth, Lieut. Gallie, Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Lady Well Place, Plymouth, Mr. Henry George Slenner, Master, R.N.

In Gloucester-place, Portman-square, Louisa, daughter of the late Sir John E. Dolbin, Bart.

At Clyde Bank, James, only son of John Spreull, Esq. Treasurer to the Trustees on the river Clyde.

At Glasgow, Barbara Adair Lawrie, wife of Lieut.-Colonel James Campbell, Madras Army.

At Edinburgh, Mr. David Anderson, the celebrated damask weaver.

At Sydney, New South Wales, Isabella, wife of Captain Frank Marsh, 80th Regiment.

At Baroda, James Finlay, Ensign 4th Regt. (Rifles) Bombay N.I.

At Chalcis, in the Negropont, Mr. Wm. Orr, Assistant Surgeon of H.M.S. Savage.

At Tullamoore, Elenor, grand-daughter of the late Captain Robert Shannon, of the Commissariat Department,

At Adelaide-street, Cork, William Gilbert, M.D.

At Clonmel, Mr. Thomas Reylance.

At Summer-hill, Thomas Smith White, of Meath, Esq.

At Bath, in his 74th year, Captain James Conran, only brother of the late Major-General Conran. He served in the 52d, 25th, and 17th Light Dragoons.

Mr. Edward Hawks, of Rotherhithe, ship-builder.

Clement George, son of the Rev. George Winstanley, Rector of Glenfield.

At Glasgow, Mrs. John Hunter.

At Rothsay, James Bannatyne, Esq. of Liverpool, aged 68.

The Rev. William Goold, Edinburgh.

Frederica Jane, wife of Mr. Westall, Clement's-inn, and daughter of the late John Maling, Esq. Commander-in-Chief's Office, Horse Guards.

At the Cape of Good Hops, Lieut. John Mears Devenish, late Cape Rifles.

ENGLISH

(Confined to a Select a

NEW-STRE

MR. J. C

OF ST. MARY'S COL

SEQUENTLY OF T

A

PE

THE Course of Instr

several Departmen form the subject of

Geography, Arithmetic, bra, Mathematics, and

sophy; the French, Ita

&c. These studies, wh

tant a feature in the m

tion, are, by a judicious with the course of Grec

for the Dublin and Lond

lege of Maynooth.

Young gentlemen in Civil Engineering, are the Mathematics, and

Surveying and Levelling

Mr. O'HALLORAN

Classical Department

T.C.D., and in the Ma

competent Master, is en portion of his own time pupils, who in many Sc

of Ushers of an inferior

References of the high

Mr. O'HALLORAN h

(during a period of four

Hon. Thomas Browne, professionally known to

J. O'Connell, Esq. Gren

Killarney; James D. I

Limerick, and several

the counties of Kerry, C

A prospectus may be

application to Mr. O'HA

Business will be resum

SHOOTI

SPORTSMEN are

JOYCE'S ANTI-

CAPS and WADDINGS

respectable Gun Maker

throughout the United K

To prevent accident ar

from the use of spurious to observe the Name and inventor and Sole Manufa without which they are to exporters and the Tra

WARHOUSE, 55, BAR