The Limerick Chronicle.

PERCEIVING by your Journal of the 31st of July last, that a Policy of Insurance for £300 alleged to be effected on my life, with the Medical Insurance Company, and forming a part of the Assets of the late Alderman PIERCE SHANNON, is to be Sold by Public Auction, I think it my duty to apprise the Directors of that Company, as also the Public, that I had not any dealing whatsoever directly or indirectly with the late lamented Mr. SHANNON, to create in him an interest to entitle him to effect said Insurance, and also to guard the Public against dealing in what I conceive a matter of speculation, the Insurance having been effected without my knowledge, privacy or consent. I should be glad to know under what pretext the Agent of the Company effected this Insurance.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, JEREMIAH TUTHILL, 11, Glentworth-street.
