REGULATION OF MARKETS.

The author of the annexed letter, the agriculturers of the South of Ireland will, at once, as independent and enlightened member of Commons, whose study it has been, since Parliament, to improve the social and moral of his countrymen, irrespective of party or There is one subject of paramount interest to of the great mass of the inhabitants of Irewe are happy to announce, he has directed to, and that is the present irregular and state of the Irish markets for the sale of and farming produce. It is also a subject in character of the mercantile portion of the is involved, because the want of a regular, and public system of transacting busimarket towns of Ireland, engenders sus-of unfair dealing, and often gives advantage reputable adventurer over an honest man in the same trade, so that acknowledged evil, which is not of recent origin, farmer and merchant are sufferers. The of Commerce of Limerick are not insensible to the grievous anomaly in the local market, and to assist in devising an efficient remedial has been more than once recorded in their The bad effects of the present discredit-have frequently been exposed to the magis-and both assizes and quarter sessions the last year, furnished instances of fraud, and in one instance was doomed to and in the other to imprisonment. The being notorious, we can feel no doubt proprietors, farmers, corn and provision of this city and county, in particular, will to co-operate with their high-minded coun-Mr. Stafford O'Brien, M.P., in preparing of the Legislature a corrective of by a well-advised general system of market for the protection of both buyer and seller. recommend that the Directors of the Chamber and the Committee of the Agricultural of this County should put themselves in corres-with Mr. O'Brien, who in the coming recess to receive their suggestions upon this important and desirable matter. The bill to which we had notice of in our columns yesterday, and we shall, with much pleasure, wish in all the future stages:—

EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
 Monday night I obtained leave to bring in a regulation of the sale of agricultural pro-market towns of Ireland," which was read and ordered to be printed. It is not my proceed further with the Bill this session, details, that they should be thoroughly can-discussed during the recess, in order, that if Bill may be framed next session for the of evils, which the merchant as well as the will acknowledge to press heavily on all, on the poorest classes.
 I trouble you with this letter, and your inser-in your columns, not so much because yours paper whose circulation can so completely object I have in view—namely, the calling in Ireland to what may be the basis of and important enactment next session.
