The Bill for the Great Southern and Western Railway, from Dublin to Cashel, with a Branch Line to Carlow, having received the Royal Assent, the Directors con-sider that the time has now arrived for submitting to the Proprietors and to the Friends of Railway intercourse in Ireland, a Prospectus for the Extensions of their main line to Cork and Limerick. These extensions are intended to form integral parts of the Great Southern and Western Railway, and in the first instance it is proposed to offer one-third of the Capital, or 8000 Shares, to those parties who, having local interests in the Counties of Tipperary, Limerick, Cork, Kerry, and Clare, may apply for the same on or before the 14th of September next. The remaining two-thirds, or 16,000 shares, together with any Shares which are not placed as before mentioned, will be offered pro rata, amongst the Registered Shareholders of the Dublin and Cashel Railway.

The extension lines are about 95 miles in length, and according to the revised survey and estimate, we completed at a cost of less than £12,000 per mile. The extension to Cork will commence between Holy cross and Cashel, and running through a country singularly favourable for Railway construction, will pass near the towns of Tipperary, Kilmallock, Charleville and Mallow. The extension to Limerick leaves the main line near Tipperary, and sweeps close round the Keeper mountains passing North of the Towns of Pallas Grean and Caherconlish. The Traffic has been carefully taken, and the result shows that it fully justifies these extensions of the Main
