

of the night, by dense of people, of both sexes, the most noisy and disord immense turf fires blazing shots firing, from gun and ion. The Temperance bands ic to the discordant strains ing, and the Saturnalia was rooms were illuminated, and the windows of the different graceful uproar was suffered n the magisterial or police spectable families felt serious charge of fire-arms, and the houses obnoxious to the es, the storm of yells and cannibal-like. This demon-"peaceful, quiet, and con-r. O'Connell so persevers to observe towards such appen to consider Repeal industry and prosperity of miles around Limerick as s illuminated last night, for charge from prison. orney-General, illuminated windows of his lodge, at his house in Merrion-square to Richmond bridewell this public procession of his late fered up for the liberation the Roman Catholic chapels order of Archbishop Murray th Regt. an habitual drunk-rom Dublin to Naas, on aunton on Wednesday for erved 23 years in the 7th acter, and was engaged a rloo. of wheat, the property of iously burned on the lands Four mile water, county attacked Mr. Boyd's house on Monday, was severely d carried off in a dying state undered a poor man of corn ended and lodged in gaol

Dispensary.
scribers to the ASKEATON held at the PETTY SESSIONS 1st day of October next, e purpose of electing a stitution.
to send their testimonials MAXWELL, Askeaton.
September 11.

Infantry, to Mary Anne, only daughter of the late Rev. Wilton Lynch, Rector of Clarendon, Jamaica.
At the house of the British Minister at Naples, Captain Lord William Compton, R.N. son of the Marquis of Northampton, to Eliza. daughter of Rear Admiral the Hon. George Elliot.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his father's house, Pallasgrean, after a short but severe illness, Doctor William Apjohn, aged 38 years, sincerely lamented by his sorrowing relatives and friends, and universally regretted by all his acquaintance.
In this City, on Sunday morning, Hugh Kenny, Esq. of Bally-greene, county Clare, at the early age of 34 years, leaving a widow and six young children to deplore the loss of a most affectionate husband and father. The uniform integrity and kindness of his life attached to him many friends, who, together with numerous relatives, followed his remains to the Church, at Dysart, county Clare, at an early hour on yesterday.
Of Scarletina, after one day's illness, at his father's house in Thomas-street, on Saturday night, aged 5 years and 7 months, William Elmes, eldest son of Mr. R. B. Corneille. This most interesting and lovely child fell a victim to the fatal malady, which in less than a week had also snatched his younger brother from the arms of their now doubly afflicted and sorrowing parents.
At his father's house, Mardyke, Cork, Mr. Henry White.
At Liscannor, county Clare, the Rev. Denis O'Callaghan, P.P.
At Corofin, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. Edmund Hogan, of Whiteville.
In Clonmel, at an advanced age, Colonel Blackmore.
In Merrion-square, West, Anne, wife of James H. Burke, of St. Cleran's, county Galway, Esq.
At his residence, Donaghmore House, Dungannon, Alexander Mackenzie, Esq. J.P. aged eighty-one years.
At his residence, Garville-avenue, Rathgar, Mr. Andrew Hayes, in the 76th year of his age.
At Salt Hill, Henry, son of Mr. Hugh Mullarkey, of Mount Bellew, Galway.
Mathew Cloney, Esq. of Craig, county Kilkenny, nephew of "General Cloney."
At his residence, North Strand, Mr. John Plunkett.
Mary Anne, wife of John Stringer, Esq. Upper Rutland-st.
In Upper Buckingham-street, Lydia, daughter of the Rev. J.
Duncan Long.
Eliza, wife of Lodge Hall, Esq. M. D. of Boyle.
At Leamington, Campbell, son of Sir George Sitwell, Bart of Reinslaw, Chesterfield.
At Thorney, his seat in Notts, at the age of seventy five, Captain C. Neville, R.N.
At the Rectory, Clifton, Notts, the Rev. Henry Spencer Markham, grandson of the late Archbishop of York.
At his seat at Windlestone, county of Durham, Sir Robert Eden, Bart.
At Belle Hatch, Oxon, in her 85th year, Mrs. Alloway, maternal grandmother of Lady Dunboyne.
Dr. James Mitchell, F. G. S. formerly actuary to the British Annuity Company, London.
Emma, the wife of John Raphael, Esq. of Finsbury-circus.
Edward Kellett Green, Esq. of Southampton-row, Russell-square.
Robert M'Knight, Esq. of Barlochan, Castle Douglas.
At Edinburgh, Mr. William Crawford, land surveyor.
At Birkenhead, Jane, wife of Robert Alexander, Esq. Editor of the Liverpool Mail.
On board the barque Aden, on the passage from Port Phillip to Loudon, Lieut.-Colonel Henry White, late of the 96th Regt.
At Dominica, Maria, wife of Alexander Stewart, Esq. M.D.
Staff Surgeon.
At Vienna, drowned whilst bathing in the Danube, George Drysdale, son of the late Sir Wm. Drysdale, of Pittchar.
At Ballineen, Mrs. Power, aged 70 years, relict of the late Richard Power, Esq. and sister of Edward Roche, of Trabolgan, Esq. father of the member for Cork county.
In Bath, James Harrison, Esq. formerly Port Surveyor of Cork, and superannuated in 1825 at his full salary of £1,200-a year.
At Shaen's Castle, Queen's County, Thomas Kemmis, Esq.
At Houghton Hall, Cumberland, James Robert Grant, Esq. eldest son of Sir James R. Grant, of The Hill, Carlisle.
At Brompton, Clara Christiana, only daughter of the late Christopher William Irvine, Esq. of Lansdowne-crescent, Bath.
At Dover, John Parker Nuttall, Esq. Exon of the Yeomen o the Guard.

lowing denomination
Kilmacat, Ballynacar
Muckenagh, Cartow
Drummaher, Summer
Palace, Dromeine,
Ballycahan, Cragreag
Miltown.

There are some exce the property, and the ings, are for the mos The soil, with but a fe considerable depth on the most luxuriant wh their varieties. The E the river Shannon, wh taining manure. The about seven miles from between the excellent Askeaton, in the Baron rick, and the Town of the Estate.

Further information may be obtained of F Messrs. Coverdale and London; Henry Staine street. Dublin; Merrs. jeant's Inn, Fleet-street Fladgate, Craven-stree
Hotel, Limerick; at th
W. SIMPSON, 18, Buck

NEWCASTLE

THE Matron of the resigned her office tenders from persons co which will consist in as management and superi and particularly of the She must be a person able to maintain order, the females, and comp cutting out, and makin

The salary is fixed at ments, a sufficient quar Provisions used in the h incumbrance would be allowed to reside with h be required to give se joint and several bond f Candidates for the al applications sealed, a with testimonials as to c on or before the 23d attend the meeting of th of the Workhouse, on T 1844.

By Ord

Newcastle Workhouse
September 7.