their presumptive to the barony of Carbery.
The Earl of Ross is on the eve of quitting Birr for England, to resign at York his post as President of the British Association, and to visit his relatives at Kilnwick and Brighton. This done, he returns to Ireland to resume his astronomical pursuits.

Sir David Roche, Bart., has left for London.

Mr. Sheil's brother is advanced from the grade of Secretary of Legation at the Court of Persia, to the rank of her Majesty's Ambassador at that court.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Thomas Norton, Esq., First Puisne Judge of British Guiana, to be Chief Justice of Newfoundland. Mr. Norton was but a few years ago proprietor of a Newspaper in Dublin.

In the Dublin and Cashel railway extension line 6500 shares were taken of the agent in this city, Mr.
David Fitzgerald, and sent up by him to the provisional committee, with applications for 500 more shares, if attainable.

The Citizens of Waterford have taken up the subject of a Railway communication between that City, Limerick and Dublin. A meeting was held on Monday, at which Edward Billing and L. H. Thompson, Esqrs., attended. Resolutions were adopted approving of the line suggested by Mr. Billing, and convening a general meeting of the Railway Committee and Citizens of Waterford, and Landed Proprietors for Monday next.

The inhabitants of Galway at a public meeting, Charles Blake, jun. Esq. Sheriff in the chair, have declared for a railway extension from that town to Athlone.
Mr. John Reynolds, agent to the line from Dublin to Athlone, attended the meeting, and a provisional committee was appointed.

Mr. John Grey Vesey Porter, High Sheriff of Fermanagh, author of the pamphlet for a Federal Union, and domestic Legislature, is grandson to the late Bishop of Clogher, Dr. Porter, an Englishman, who, in the Lord Lieutenancy of Lord Camden, accompanied him to Ireland as his chaplain. Mr. Porter's father is Rector of Killskeery, in Tyrone, and proprietor of Belleisle, an extensive and valuable estate in Fermanagh, which he purchased from the Earl of Rosse.

Thursday night the bottling establishment of Matthew Fitt, Esq. Newgate brewery, was broken into by some miscreants, who succeeded in carrying off a quantity of ale and porter. This is the second outrage of a like nature perpetrated within the last fortnight, in the same concerns, but the police are on the alert for the offenders.

John Keily, labourer in the corn store of James Bannatyne, Esq. Roche's-street, dropped dead yesterday morning, after returning to his work from breakfast. He was a strong healthy man, about 60 years of age.
