

to Ennis has been contemplated by some leading proprietors of the counties of Clare and Limerick, who are uniting with the most respectable merchants of Limerick and Ennis, to consider the eligibility of the work, and the line it is to take. Sir John MacNeill has been consulted, and will act as Engineer. Messrs. Barrington & Co. will undertake the Bill for Parliament. The Directors mean to hold their board in Limerick; but, prior to those arrangements, it is expected that a public meeting will be called to elect a Provisional Committee, whose names and characters for business will have public confidence. We are therefore requested to suggest to all parties anxious to promote this work, to withhold their names from any undertaking of the kind put forward without the concurrence of the parties, most interested in the work being well made, and at a small expense.

Affectionate addresses of congratulation were this week presented to Robert Hunt, Esq. of this city, from the tenantry on the lands of Bunleckey, Camheen, Mheravalla, Thomondgate, and Carrigogunnell upon his providential escape from the murderous shot of an assassin near Ballylin. These tributes of regard speak in the most gratifying manner of Mr. Hunt's uniformly considerate and friendly conduct to the tenantry on these properties, on every occasion. Raheen, Parkroe, and Tubberquin, upon which the country people lighted "clears" for this esteemed gentleman, the other night, in order immediately upon the lands of Drombanna, where the same complimentary exhibition was made for Matthew Barrington, Esq. on the restoration of four tenants to their farms.

A few days ago a party of countrymen went to execute a decree near Caherconlish, when a conflict ensued, and a man of the name of Sullivan, received a blow on the head, which proved fatal. He lingered of the wound, and died on Thursday in hospital.

An armed party of four men entered the house of Thomas Carey, near Toomavara, on Tuesday night, and swore to Carey if he did not give up his gun, they would shoot him. Carey shewed them to where he kept it, and they carried it away.

PETTY SESSIONS, YESTERDAY.—Pat Fleming was fined 10s. or a fortnight's imprisonment for an assault on Constable Dunlop, at the Blackboy turnpike, and for being drunk and disorderly. William Danagher, an incorrigible drunkard, and complete nuisance in the streets, was fined 5s. for intoxication, and 3s. or a month's imprisonment for breaking glass in the police-office. James M'Inerney and John Walsh, taken up at a late hour on Thursday night, by one of St. Michael's parish watch, with implements in their possession, evidently for forcing locks and scaling walls, were discharged for want of evidence. At the prosecution of a Poacher, informations were ordered against Mary Forrest, for keeping a brothel in Flag-lane. Celia Sullivan, assaulted on Margaret Kennedy, was fined 5s. or a fortnight's imprisonment. A warrant was ordered against Mary Mahan for contempt of court, in refusing to obey the magistrates' summons. Malachy Slattery was ordered to destroy two dogs which had severely bitten a child belonging to Patrick Quin. Mr. Hackett, collector of the Borough poor rate, summoned over 60 defaulters, against whom warrants were issued for non-payment of the rate. A few persons were fined in mitigated penalties for nuisances, after which the Court adjourned.
