

Monday.
 ative, will be elected for East the present Lord St. Germans. the county Tipperary is fixed for at Clonmel.
 borough, Esq. was sworn on Mon-the county Tipperary. Samuel as Sub-Sheriff.
 the last five years fever was not so as at present, and the disease is districts. On Sunday last there er treatment in the fever hospital, morning the number was 174!
 armed party, with their faces dwelling-house of Alfred Waller, esented fire-arms at Mrs. Waller, ot her, and demanded Mr. Waller's d them they searched the house, finding any.
 med party beat a man named e fair-green of Murroe, in such a life is despaired of. The Friday ned ruffians went on the land of tenant to Thomas Evans, Esq. of ly shot a horse, the property of er the Head Pacificator had left of ruffians attacked a man in the nd beat him severely.
 s. Cantwell was broken into at mavara, on Friday evening by a th sticks, in search of a man who o was fortunately absent. They wo daughters and her son.
 ed James Small, was killed on Sa-Mr. Costello's gate, at Farnane; to restrain a young colt which he as; he was knocked down, and the t over his body.

nise of the Rev. J. J. Rowley, D.D.
 Stanford has been promoted from hn's, Dublin, to the rectory of St. value £550; and the Rev. E. S. from the living of St. Michael's to 65. Mr. Stanford was also Rector value £174 per ann. which he vacates.
 of Lurgan and Munterconnaught, more, are also vacant by the death is union is to be severed, and the t, formerly of Ahascragh, and o Denn, diocese of Kilmore, gan or Virginia, value 700l. a year.
 ugent will succeed to Denn, value ne Rev. Charles Echlin is to be proacy of Killesher to the vicarage of y Mr. Nugent's promotion.
 the clergy of the united diocese of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, is in to the Primate and the Bishops who aration on the subject of the naucation.
 . Blake, of Newry, has received a
 v. Dr. Cullen, president of the Irish suring the Bishop that he has had self a denial of any negotiation for a e English government. This fully Lieutenant's late communication to y.

his day cried through the City at its first appearance, by statute, for

DEATHS.

At Newmarket-on-Fergus, Mr. Thomas Byrne, Post-master.
 At Galway, Mr. Edward Coffey, merchant.
 At the Rectory, Aughrim, the Rev. Henry Martin, for many years Incumbent of that parish.
 At Passage West, Jonathan Lancaster, Esq.
 Mr. Thomas Healy, of Askeaton.
 At Doneraile, at an advanced age, Miss Eliza Nagle.
 At Fort Cottage, Bray, of hooping cough, William Plunket, son of the Rev. Henry H. Dombain.
 Colonel Andrew Creagh, C.B. late commanding 93d and 81st Foot, Aide-de-Camp to his late Majesty William IV. and Bar-rackmaster at Burnley.
 At Great Charles-street, Dorinda, wife of James Corry
 Lowry, Esq.
 In Dublin, Sergeant James Clarke, of the Constabulary, many years a most efficient officer of that force in Galway.
 His demise is much regretted by the inhabitants.
 At Epworth Terrace, Upper Leeson-street, Harry, eldest son of John Sibthorpe, Esq.
 Of hooping cough, Ellen and Henrietta, the beloved children of Robert Scott, Esq. of Dublin.
 The Rev. R. P. Cleary, of Enniskillen.
 At his residence, Ballingar, Queen's County, Robert Kenny, Esq.
 At the residence of his brother, Great George's-street, South,
 H. T. Coppin, Esq. M.D.
 At Harrington-street, Ruth, daughter of the late George Clibborn, Esq. of the Castle, Moate, county of Westmeath.
 At Parker Hill, Rathmines, aged seventy-six, Hannah, relict of the late Henry Sibthorpe, Esq. of Cork Hill.
 At Londonderry, Mr. Denis Coll, late of the Ordnance Survey Department, Dublin.
 Robert Langtry, son of Thomas Battersby, Ormeau place,
 Esq. Belfast.
 At Illenan, near Baden, Margaret Gillespie, daughter of the Rev. H. E. Boyd, Prebendary of Dromore, county Down.
 At Cheltenham, Anne, widow of the late James Corballis, Esq. of Pembroke-road, Dublin.
 On the 28th ult. at Douglas, Isle of Man, Anne Margaret, youngest daughter of the late J. Grave, Esq.
 At Walworth, Mr. John Kitson, student at the London University.
 At Felton, the Rev. Joseph Orrell, R. C. clergyman, and chaplain to Thomas Riddell, Esq.
 John Hinton, Esq. one of the coroners for Salop.
 At Church Eaton, Harriet, wife of the Hon. and Rev. Arthur
 C. Talbot.
 At Edinburgh, Mary, wife of John Tait, Esq. Sheriff of Clack-mannan and Kinross.
 In Piccadilly, Captain Fortnum, of Datchet, late of the Royals.
 Suddenly, Mr. Francis Walsh, brother of Mr. N. S. Walsh, wine and spirit merchant, Berwick-street.
 Francis, son of W. Townsend, Esq. of Blackheath.
 At Sandgate, Maria, daughter of the Rev. M. D. French.
 At Gillingham-street, Vauxhall-road, Mr. Henry Erskine Johnston, formerly an actor of vivid talents in the melo-dramatic performances at Drury-lane and Covent-garden.
 At Rothsay, Margaret Turnbull, daughter of D. Fisher, Esq. of Forth-street, Edinburgh.
 At St. Petersburg, Prince Lieven, General in the Russian service, aged 78.
 At Hurryhur, Philip Lane Spry, Brevet Captain and Adjutant 35th Madras Native Infantry.
 At Khanpoora, near Nuseerabad, the Rev. Henry Pratt, Chaplain of the East India Company.
 At Trinidad, Edward Jackson, Esq. late Attorney-General of that colony.
 At Jamaica, G. Burgess, Esq. senior Landing Waiter and Searcher of Customs.
 At Eccles-street, Maria, wife of John Sweetman, Esq. and daughter of the late William Sweetman, Esq. of Raheny House, county of Dublin.
 Edward Arthur, eldest son of Edward William Birmingham, Esq. of Kilfylan, King's County.
 At Clonmel, Mr. William Killigrew, in advanced age.
 Mr. Henry Vincent O'Byrne, of Charlotte-street.
 At Pembroke road, Alicia, wife of John Reynolds Peyton, Esq. of Laheen.
 At Bushy Park, county of Wicklow, William Nesbit, youngest son of Colonel and Lady Louisa Knox.
 At Baal's Bridge, Myles Jones, eldest son of the late Michael Jones, Baggot-street.
 At his residence, Tavistock-street, Covent-Garden, Mr.
 Andrew Franklin, at the advanced age of 88, many years editor of the "Morning Advertiser."
 At Chipping Barnets, Nathaniel Roberts, Esq. aged 81.
 At Heathfield, Sussex, Emily, wife of John Thomas Fuller, Esq. Captain in the Royal Artillery.
 At Bedford-place, Clapham Rise, Jacob Thomas, Esq.
 At Calcutta, Major W. R. Fitzgerald, Bengal Engineers.

walls and other fences
 WE
 3 years,..... 9st
 4 years,..... 10st
 Three horses belong
 or the money will not
 THE KILCORNAL
 by Thomas N. Reding
 the County Galway Sovs. added, p.p. for from the 1st of Janua County Galway Hun
 tions for the current hunted with the Cou
 period, and shall qua of the Stewards, by three trials, at such t rough-bred horses 7
 geldings. Two Mile H
 WE
 3 years,..... 9st
 4 years,..... 10st
 The winner of the keep it; and the Cup year, (according to t and place, within the tee of the Hunt for th
 QUEEN
 3lb to mares and Stewards or a majority both races to be enter before 10 o'Clock, on March, at Nolan's Hot

C. D. BELLEW,
 J. W. H. LAMBERT
 JOHN O'LOU
 February 15.

TO
 AT A M
 For such term
 AND IMMEDIATE
 THE HOUSE and within 5 miles of 11 of Mallow, in the c
 The House which has repair, contains 3 larg
 Hall, 8 Bed Rooms
 Waterclosets, Kitchen
 Wine, and other Cellar
 The out-Offices comp
 House, Barn, Dairy, C
 House, Kennel, &c.
 There is a large walle
 Orchard. The Demesn Acres (nearly 100 plan would be given to suit of prime limestone land
 ornamentally planted, divided. An abundance within a mile of the ho
 The contemplated ra and Dublin, will pass wi way between the two within reach in a few ho
 For further particular Castleview, Mallow; or at his office, Mallow-lane
 DENIS DONOVAN, the Sew the house.