

the Grand Jury, said—Sir lemen of the Grand Jury of calendar which is now before will be brought under your erally speaking of a description most serious consideration and me to any conclusion about which I have made in the appy to find, that with few the calendar are not of an re. I regret, however, to learn s of Whiteboyism at present ty, cases of this description tion by you, and you must evidence of the clearest before sending the case e lament to learn, that there rder which you will be called e of them likely to have arisen , and which I conceive come denomination of whiteboyism. need not trouble you further ; of another nature about which offer some remarks, it relates ery disgraceful state of your I am very much surprised een done before this about the nsequence of the many times to by the going Judge of assize. strangers coming to this place, wonder how justice can be ilapidated old building. On had the honor of appearing rance from the Grand Jury would be done, either to repair erect another in its stead. I at engagement has not been effort be not now made by ring the present session of will be given which will enable ng nuisances such as this.

at the Grand Jury were disestion, but they were generally the rate-payers at Road Ses-been able to come to any or building a new Court-house, at the present one can be re-to the 18th section of the enables them to carry on any cessary, by memorialling the a notice with the Clerk of the s to the assizes, and serving Sessions with a notice of the retired, and the Court was of the day fiatting presentments. ernoons, Mr. Justice Jackson d by the High Sheriff and a but will not sit in court until

TO BE LET for Six Months from the 24th day of FEBRUARY inst., sub- ject to redemption, that part of the Lands of BALLY- ESSE, containing 48 Acres, more Measure, situate in the Barony County of Limerick.
 Massy, Esq. Castle-Connell.
 February 26.

... of Plymouth.

DEATHS.

- Suddenly, of malignant scarlatina, at the Archdeaconry House, Hillsborough, Marianne, wife of the Ven. Walter B. Mant. Archdeacon of Down, and daughter of the late Lord Dufferin and Claneboyne.
- Richard Raymond, Esq. M.D. son of the late Captain James Raymond, of Dromin, county Kerry.
- At Summerville, Dundrum, (the residence of her son-in-law, H. J. Mason, Esq.) Margaret, relict of Captain Wm. Humfrey Frew.
- At Hartcourt-place, Lady Tuite, relict of the late Sir George Tuite, Bart.
- At Clonakilty, John Spiller, Esq. aged 75 years.
- Suddenly, at her mother's residence in Tralee, Mary, eldest daughter of the late William Busted, Esq.
- At his mother's residence, Tralee, Thomas Nash Raymond, son of the late George Agar Raymond, Esq. half-pay 57th Regiment.
- At the Limerick District Lunatic Asylum, Justin M'Carthy, one of the ward-keepers.
- Mr. James Poyntz, Custom-house Officer, Blennerville, Tralee.
- At the Glengall Arms, Caher, Judith, wife of Mr. John Cusack.
- At New Ross, James Howlett, Esq. nephew to the late Right Rev. Dr. Doyle.
- At his residence, Earl-street, Belfast, Mr. Thomas Fryer, in the 77th year of his age.
- At Fanet Glebe, Deborah, relict of the late Nathaniel Alcock, Esq. M.D. Kilkenny.
- At Portman-square, London, Johanna Lyons, relict of James Lyons, Esq. Dublin, a lady much regretted by her family and friends.
- At Brighton, Judith, wife of Lieut. John Burton, of the Royal Artillery.
- In Berwick-street, Soho, Francis, youngest son of the late John Walsh, Esq. of Gloucester-street, Dublin.
- At Belle Vue-place, Southampton, Henry Franklin Foley, Esq. M.D.
- At his seat, Northrepps, Norfolk, Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton, Bart.
- At Greenock, Mr. John Fleming, a celebrated landscape and portrait painter.
- Walter Pelham, son of the Hon. and Rev. Lowther Barrington.
- At his house in Grafton-street, Piccadilly, Guy Lennox Prendergast, Esq. formerly Chief of Surat, Member of Council at Bombay, and M.P. for Lymington.
- At Brighton, Miss Julia Sophia Cross, niece and adopted daughter of Captain Cogan, Upper Mall, Hammersmith.
- At his residence, Dix's Field, Exeter, Henry Blackhall, Esq. magistrate of that city, aged 75.
- At Greenock, Robert Glass, sen. Esq.
- In Jernyn-street, Robert Garnett, Esq. of the firm of Scott, Garnett, and Co. aged 76.
- Suddenly, William Beach, Esq. of Sloane-terrace, Chelsea.
- At Corsygedol, near Barmouth, (the seat of the Hon. E. M. Ll. Mostyn), Bell Lloyd, Esq. brother to Lord Mostyn, aged 74.
- At Badsworth Rectory, the Rev. Henry William Champneys, aged 74.
- Amy, wife of Captain John Chambers, of Upper Seymour-street, Euston-square.
- At Stonehouse, the wife of Mr. Burke, Boatswain of H.M. Dockyard, Devonport.
- At Great Torrington, North Devon, Wm. Lea, Esq. half-pay of the 20th Light Dragoons, and Captain and Adjutant North Devon Yeomanry Cavalry.
- Georgiana, wife of Lieut. Tracy, R.N. of Tothillfields, Westminster.
- At his seat at Clatterford, suddenly, Edward Buller Hicks, Esq. Captain R.N.
- Rebecca, wife of William Melville Neale, M.D. Assistant-Surgeon, Royal Military College, Sandhurst.
- Sophia Eliza, wife of M. Fortuné Bourrusse de Laffore, and daughter of Colonel Baker.
- At the Royal Naval Hospital, Bermuda, Henry William Hunt, Esq. late Secretary to Commodores Byng and Sharpe.
- At Florence, Mrs. Le Mesurier, wife of Edward Le Mesurier, Esq. of Ancona.
- On the 6th, at Tours, greatly lamented, Elizabeth, relict of Major Otter, and sister of the late Richard Harold, Esq. of Pennywell, near this City.
- At his residence on the Mall, Waterford, Major Gahan.
- At his seat at Ballyduff, county of Waterford, at the age of 78 years, John Douce Langley, Esq.
- At his uncle's house, Patrick-street, Cork, Robert Holmes Gordon, son of the late Samuel James Gordon, Esq. Clonmel.
- At his residence, Lower Newtown, Thomas H. Gill, Esq.
- At Nelson Place, Cork, Mr. Humphry Donovan.
- At Dungarvan, Thomas Quinlan, Esq. merchant.
- At his house in Cumberland-street, Dr. Heberden, in the 78th year of his age.

Limerick and Tip competitors only, their own manage of Limerick is de these contending me for bringing t especially as the i amongst us are ide
 The decision of session of the disp can possess one-t occasioned much dissipated by a do —this document i ment) of the claim mitted to the Boar
 It is not necessar detail, suffice it to be addressed with secret tribunal; bu attention. It is th tween Waterford a session of the line sary to compensat
 traffic with Dublin,
 to support the traf Your intercourse v your intercourse w enormous. The d and Waterford by eight persons. Th Limerick and Tippe ges over 120. The the line to Tipperar in Ireland, instead of the cheapest—ar to be taxed to sup which she has no that the additional be too trifling to so, the struggle f eager. The Water away, say £200,00 own creation, on t make up for this possession of the them even the inte unnecessary and u
 traffic with Dublin,
 of Ten Thousand P a tax is to be impo which you have a lo poor or, the encour purpose, in fact, r mischievous bridge Another allegatio unwilling to charact Company's intercou that they will have for every one which will require—the fac must run fifteen tra Waterford Company In conclusion, I submit to the treat Board of Trade, you quences. A little, part now, will defe you—a little supiner will be fixed upon y
 I am,
 February 26.